

STATE OF WISCONSIN
Senate Journal
Eighty-First Regular Session

TUESDAY, May 15, 1973.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the the president of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Reverend J. Clemmons, Pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Madison.

Dear God, we come today in gratitude-

To give our thanks to you for the land in which we live and for the people of this nation--the old and young, the rich and poor, the humble and the proud--the laborers, the managers, the poets, those who are the dreamers and those whose effort is to make dreams become reality...we thank you for all of those who come to make this country the land that it is...we thank you too that we come from every tradition and color and creed-- and that we might join in a common praise for the God who made us.

Then, O God, we come in humility, realizing the many times that we have failed one another, and our God, We confess that the dreams and the hopes of complete justice have not been realized-

Forgive us for being contented, even though there are those in much need and suffering--contented without lending our help.

Forgive us for our blindness to misery and for those times that our social conscience has been dulled.

Help us, O God, that we might come to care deeply about the needs of others. Give us understanding and make us ready to accept the responsibility in governing in justice and with righteousness. Endow each person here with an unswerving dedication for the task that lies before him. Give divine wisdom in the decisions that are to be made, taking away pettiness or selfishness, and instilling instead love and concern.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (May 15, 1973)

Give us not a spirit of fearfulness, but of power--the power to meet life and its problems effectively.

Give us the spirit of love that shares in the other man's needs.

Give us a spirit of discipline-- the discipline of our own ways of life so that both words and actions may be directed with a vision to the future. Amen.

The senate remained standing and the president of the senate led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.
