STATE OF WISCONSIN

Senate Journal

Eighty-First Regular Session

TUESDAY, October 23, 1973.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Reverend E. B. Adamson, Pastor of the Hilldale Assembly of God Church, Madison, Wisconsin.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, we acknowledge Thee that Thou do govern the affairs of men. If a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without Thy notice, how can we think You are indifferent to what we say and do here? If this day You want us to do, or not to do, any particular thing, we pray that You will make it plain to us, for You know how blind and stubborn we can be, in our own intentions. We pray for Your help in our thinking, and Your love in our hearts.

We pray that each of us shall be aware of Your Presence, for You know our needs and how inadequate we feel ourselves to be in the presence of the world problems and the challenges of this hour. If You will help us O Lord, then we shall be better than we are and wiser than we know, and stronger than we dream.

In this prayer, we bring to You the members of this body, its officers and its servants, for Your Great Blessing. Men who feel the weight of responsibility and the need of divine guidance; men who are often sorely tempted and who need the support of Your grace. Bestow upon them the courage to do the right as You have given them to see the right and make it clear unto us all.

We have felt You near and beside us in the exalted experience of worship in church; make us to feel Your nearness in the business of the day -- the unseeing delegate, present and voting. Act through these men we pray, O Jesus, that what they say and what they do may in accordance with Your will for this land that we love so much.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (October 23, 1973)

You have said, it is more blessed to give than to receive. Give us the grace today to think not of what we may get, but of what we can give, that a new spirit may come into our work here, with a new vision and a new purpose, that You will delight to bless.

We ask these things in Your own Name and for Your sake, Amen.

The senate remained standing and the president of the senate led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following senators answered to their names:
