MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, the Homestead Highlander Marching Band has been chosen as one of seven high school bands from throughout the United States to march in the Cotton Bowl Parade at Dallas on January 1, 1974; and

Whereas, they will appear on national television carrying the banner which proudly reads; HOMESTEAD HIGHLANDER BAND -- MEQUON-THIENSVILLE, WISCONSIN; and

Whereas, the 103 musicians are working diligently with parents and community friends to raise the $16,000 necessary to make the trip; now, therefore, The Members of the Wisconsin Senate, on the motion of Senator Kasten, under Joint Rule 26, commends the band and their supporters for their expert musicianship, dedication and hard work, and wishes them well in their performance in Dallas. The Homestead Highlander Band is a source of pride to their home community and the entire state.

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, Orval Meister served the village of Whitefish Bay Police Department for 33 years, acting as police chief for 13 years; and

Whereas, he has been active in several professional and community organizations; and

Whereas, he was a member of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Police Chiefs Association, serving as their first president; and

Whereas, he was chosen to be president of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association; and

Whereas, he has earned the respect of his colleagues and the citizens of Whitefish Bay because of his faithful service; now, therefore, The Members of the Wisconsin Senate, on the motion of Senator Kasten, under Joint Rule 26, congratulate Chief Meister on his outstanding contributions and dedication to the community of Whitefish Bay and wish him well in his retirement.
