STATE OF WISCONSIN
Senate Journal
Eighty-First Regular Session

WEDNESDAY, February 20, 1974.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president pro tempore of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Major Ray Tregellas of the Salvation Army of Madison.

Our gracious and loving heavenly Father, we would give thanks for Thy mindfulness of us and our need, and for Thy ability under every circumstance of life to preserve and keep us a people born for a purpose, and that to fulfill the dictates of Thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Grant us this day our Father a sincere desire to live in peace and harmony with all men and help us to do something that will help to right the wrongs that torment us and to deal fairly with those things that have to do with our people here in Wisconsin.

Through all the changed and changing circumstances of life, Thou hast made and preserved us as a nation where we have been obedient to Thy will, Thou hast favored us. Where we have pursued our selfish aims, Thou hast justly punished us with chastened humility we confess our vaunted pride, our boasted security and our avowed independence. In our conceit we have trusted in our own strength and we have forgotten that Thou alone are the source of peace and happiness. Grant us this day a clearer vision of our duty to Thee and our fellowmen.

Restore to us as a people honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence and lawlessness, discord and confusion. Endure with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government that there may be justice and peace at home and that through obedience to Thy laws we may show forth Thy praise among the nation of the earth.

In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in Thee to fail. For we ask these things in the name of Him, who is able to do exceedingly and abundantly above all we ask or think. Amen.

The senate remained standing and Senator Roseleip led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By request of Senator Risser, with unanimous consent, Senator Schuele was granted a leave of absence for the entire day's session.

RULING OF THE CHAIR

On Tuesday, February 12, 1974, Senate Joint Resolution 44, proposing an amendment to the Constitution failed adoption, the vote being Ayes 16, Noes 14. This resoltuion required "the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected."

On Wednesday, February 13, 1974 Senator Roseleip moved reconsideration, having been one of the 16 Aye votes. Senator Risser raised the point of order that Senator Roseleip did not vote with the prevailing side. The Chair took the point of order under advisement.

Senator Bablitch also entered a motion for reconsideration having been one of the 14 negative votes, -- in the event Senator Risser's point of order is ruled well taken.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 20, 1974)

According to the rules, the purpose of reconsideration is to allow a member who may have changed his mind on the prevailing side to have another vote taken on the subject.

In this case there were enough negative votes to prohibit Senate Joint Resolution 44 from receiving the required seventeen (17) affirmative votes. Therefore the 14 negative votes prevailed and the motion for reconsideration must come from one of these votes. Therefore, the point of order by Senator Risser is well taken, and the reconsideration motion by Senator Bablitch is the question on Senate Joint Resolution 44.

The question was: Reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Joint Resolution 44 failed adoption?

Senator Hollander moved a
