

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Senate Journal

Eighty-First Regular Session

WEDNESDAY, February 27, 1974.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president pro tempore of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Reverend Thomas A. Going, Pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Madison.

Almighty and gracious God, to You alone belong the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, yet You have ordained human government for the welfare of mankind. Thank you for this good gift from Your gracious hand. Grant to this state, and this nation a succession of legislators and executives who have been taught the wisdom of Your Kingdom. Endow all members of this state government with a right understanding of Your Will, a pure purpose and honorable speech.

Surely, O Lord, the legislators of this state government face temptations unique to their position as state leaders. Preserve them in the hour of temptation that no pride of power or self-aggrandizement betray them into a rejection of Your Will which desires compassion and justice for all. And so enable them to rise above self-seeking and party zeal and to be always mindful of the welfare of all their constituents and the continued improvement of this our state. Purge our political life of every evil; make all of us to love peace, honesty, and fair-dealing. Do inspire these elected leaders of this state with your wisdom and counsel that by a godly life they may set an example of calmness, patience, sincerity, self-restraint, and courage so that the citizens of this state "may lead a quiet and peaceable life, Godly and respectful in every way."

These blessings grant us, heavenly Father, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

Senate Resolution 38

To amend senate rules 18 and 47 (2) and (3); and to create senate rules 20 (8) and 25 (3), relating to creating a senate calendar scheduling committee and permitting principal authors to require committees to act on their bills, resolutions and other matters.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This resolution creates a senate committee on calendar scheduling consisting of 3 members of the majority party and 2 members of the minority party appointed as are other standing committees. All bills, resolutions, appointments, memorials and other business referred to a committee and reported by it to the senate will be referred to the committee on calendar scheduling.

The committee on calendar scheduling will place the proposals referred to it on the calendar in an appropriate order, grouped according to similar subjects, and in such numbers as to constitute a workable and up-to-date calendar schedule. The committee must place a proposal on the calendar when directed to do so by a majority vote of the senate or when requested to do so by 2 members of such committee and the author of the proposal.

The bill also permits the principal author of a bill, resolution or other matter to require a standing committee to hold a hearing on and report out his proposal within 20 days.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

Resolved by the senate, That:

SECTION 1. Purpose. In order to maintain a workable senate calendar that will be as up-to-date as practicable; to group bills which concern similar subjects for logical and expeditious consideration; and to make it possible for the public, lobbyists and the members of the senate to know approximately when a measure will be before the senate, it is necessary to properly schedule and group measures on the calendar.

SECTION 2. Senate Rule 18, as adopted by 1973 Senate Resolution 7, is amended to read:

Senate Rule 18 Daily calendar. All bills, resolutions, appointments, memorials, or other business, referred to a committee and reported by it to the senate, shall be placed upon the calendar under the proper order of business referred to the committee on calendar scheduling. The committee on calendar scheduling shall place such bills, resolutions, appointments, memorials, or other business on the calendar in an appropriate order, grouped according to similar subjects, and in such numbers as to constitute a workable and up-to-date calendar schedule. The committee on calendar scheduling shall place a bill, resolution, appointment, memorial, or other business on the calendar when directed to do so by a majority vote of the senate or when requested to do so by 2 members of such committee and by the author of the bill, resolution, appointment, memorial, or other business. The printed calendar shall be furnished to members at least 24 hours, exclusive of Sunday, before such a calendar is acted upon. The calendar shall not be changed within that period. Unless otherwise ordered, an unfinished calendar of a preceding day shall be first in order as the unfinished business of the senate.

SECTION 3. Senate Rule 20 (8) is created to read:

Senate Rule 20 (8). There shall also be a committee on calendar scheduling consisting of 3 members of the majority party and 2 members of the party having the 2nd greatest number of members.

SECTION 4. Senate Rule 25 (3) is created to read:

Senate Rule 25. (3) Whenever the principal author of a bill, resolution or other matter requests a committee chairman of a standing committee to schedule a hearing on the bill, resolution or other matter, the committee chairman shall schedule the hearing and the committee shall hold the hearing and report the bill, resolution or other matter to the senate as provided under senate rule 18 within 20 days after the principal author requests the matter to be scheduled. If such a matter is not so reported within such 20-day period, it shall be treated thereafter as so reported without recommendation.

SECTION 5. Senate Rule 47 (2) and (3), as adopted by 1973 Senate Resolution 7, are amended to read:

Senate Rule 47. (2) Whenever a bill or resolution has been referred to committee and is again reported by such committee to the senate, it shall, if a senate bill or joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution, be referred to the committee on calendar schedule and when such committee places it on the calendar under senate rule 18, it shall be placed on the second reading calendar of senate bills and if an assembly bill or joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution on second reading calendar of assembly bills.

(3) All senate resolutions and joint resolutions which do not propose amendments to the constitution, and which are reported out by committee or otherwise ordered referred to the calendar shall be referred to the committee on calendar schedule and when such committee places it on the calendar under senate rule 18, it shall be placed upon the calendar under the eleventh order of business and, upon reading, the question shall be directly upon adoption or concurrence. Any such senate resolution or senate joint resolution which is amended prior to its adoption shall, however, be actually engrossed as provided in this rule, and in the case of a senate joint resolution, prior to its being messaged to the other house.

By Senators LaFollette, Keppler, Petri, McKenna, Bablitch, Flynn, Frank, Thompson and M. Swan.

Read and referred to the calendar.

THE BOARD FINDS

1. Mildred Stenberg

Mildred Stenberg, Route 2, Blair, Wisconsin, claims $13.50 for an income tax refund check number L489174 which was not cashed in a timely manner and is not longer valid. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

2. O. A. Ladwig

O. A. Ladwig, 2930 South 126th Street, New Berlin, Wisconsin, claims $63.94 for damages to his trailer and other expenses not reimbursed by insurance resulting from running over a tree stump in the road circling the camping area at Brunet Island State Park on June 15, 1973. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

3. Tony Jelich

Tony Jelich, Route 1, Solon Springs, Wisconsin, claims $339.50 for damages resulting from his duties as a State Conservation Warden while gathering evidence from a gas spill on June 8, 1973, near Foxboro, Wisconsin. Claimant preserved some Mallard ducks killed in the gas spill by placing them in his home freezer. The gas fumes from the saturated ducks destroyed his home freezer and other items in the freezer. Since this incident freezers have been placed in area headquarters. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

4. Gregory Conniff

Gregory Conniff, 102 West Nelson Street, Deerfield, Wisconsin, claims $80.00 for three prints which were missing during an art show in October, 1972, at the University of Wisconsin - Janesville. An employee of the University of Wisconsin made a mistake which resulted in the photographs not being covered by insurance while hanging when they should have been covered. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

5. Michael F. Winter

Michael F. Winter, 1475 Montrose Terrace, Dubuque, Iowa, claims $300.00 for various items of jewelry missing from an exhibit in May, 1971, at the student center at the University of Wisconsin - Platteville. The University did not make a request for insurance coverage, although ordinarily the items should have been covered by insurance. The board finds the value of said items is only $200 and concludes the reduced claim in the amount of $200 should be paid on equitable principles.

6. Robert E. Ladwig

Robert E. Ladwig, 2506 McDivitt Road, Madison, Wisconsin, claims $84.36 for damages to his car on July 12, 1973, when it hit a large piece of concrete in the passing lane 7 miles north of Appleton on Highway 41. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

7. James E. Oughton

James E. Oughton, Route 1, DeForest, Wisconsin, claims $53.75 for damages to his car during the period of Fall, 1972 - Spring, 1973, on Highway 19 east of Token Creek, caused by tar from the poor resurfacing of the highway. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

8. William Oughton

William Oughton, Route 1, DeForest, Wisconsin, claims $94.00 for damages to his two cars during the period of Fall, 1972 - Spring, 1973, on Highway 19 east of Token Dreek caused by tar from the poor resurfacing of the highway. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

9. Howard V. Knodt

Howard V. Knodt, Route 2, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, claims $87.36 for damages to his car on April 25, 1973, on Highway 19 east of Highway 51 caused by tar from the poor resurfacing of the highway. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

10. Robert R. Ehlenbach

Robert R. Ehlenbach, 1930 Wyoming Avenue, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, claims $130.00 for damages to his car during the Spring of 1973, on Highway 19 between Sun Prairie and I-94 caused by tar from the poor resurfacing of the highway. The board concludes

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

the only estimate for repair submitted by claimant is unduly excessive in comparison to numerous other similar claims, and concludes that the claim should be paid on equitable principles in the reduced amount of $65.00

11. Richard Rubenzer

Richard Rubenzer, Route 2, Bloomer, Wisconsin, claims $400.00 for a heifer killed on May 24, 1973, on Highway 53, near Bloomer. The animal got on the highway because the state highway fence was not close enough to the drainage culvert. Since the claimant was reimbursed by insurance for $250.00, the board concludes the balance of the claim in the amount of $150.00 should be paid on equitable principles.

12. Janesville Auto Transport Company

Janesville Auto Transport Company, 1263 South Cherry St., Janesville, Wisconsin, claims $194.72 for damages to its truck when it struck a heifer on May 24, 1973, owned by Richard Rubenzer, Bloomer, Wisconsin. (See preceding claim.) The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

13. Robert M. Chase

Robert M. Chase, DeForest, Wisconsin, claims $426.92 for damages to his car during the Winter of 1972-73 on Highway 19 between DeForest and Sun Prairie caused by tar from the poor surfacing of the highway. His itemized claim includes $14.04 for wheel alignment, $74.88 for tar removal, and $338.00 for a paint job. The board concludes the claim for wheel alignment and paint job cannot be properly justified, and therefore denies same, but concludes that the $74.88 portion of the claim for tar removal should be paid on equitable principles.

14. Obert T. Agerjord

Obert T. Agerjord, Route 2, Waunakee, Wisconsin, claims $45.95 for damages to his hand while working as a volunteer repairing the chapel roof at the Oregon School for Girls on June 9, 1973. The injury required stitches and tetanus shots at Methodist Hospital in Madison. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

15. Dean Rein

Dean Rein, Route 2, Wausau, Wisconsin, claims $89.16 for damages to his cottage on May 27, 1973, at the Town of Merrill, Lincoln County, Knight Lake, Wisconsin. Claimant was paid insurance for all but $50.00 of his claim. The damage was alleged to have been done by an escapee from the Lincoln Boys School,

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

Irma, Wisconsin. Consistent with a long-standing policy of this board not to pay claims for damages alleged to have been done by persons while on escape status from state institutions, the board concludes there is not evidence of negligence on the part of officers, agents or employees of the State and concludes the claim is not one for which the State is legally liable, nor one which the State should assume and pay on equitable principles, and denies same.

16. Cecile G. Parrish for Classified Insurance Corp

Cecile G. Parrish, 301 Troy Drive, Madison, Wisconsin, claims $64.01 for damages to her car on November 27, 1972, while in the employee parking lot at Mendota State Hospital. She was fully paid for her damages by her insurance carrier and seeks payment on their behalf. Consistent with a long-standing policy of this board not to honor subrogation claims, the board concludes there is not evidence of negligence on the part of officers, agents or employees of the State, and concludes the claim is not one for which the State is legally liable, nor one which the State should assume and pay on equitable principles and denies the same.

17. Virginia E. Carney

Virginia E. Carney, Route 3, Lodi, Wisconsin, claims damages of $146.77 to the windshield of her car on June 2, 1973, while parked in the Goodland Parking Lot at Mendota State Hospital from 4:30 to 6:15. The damage allegedly was done by "kids who had thrown something," although there is no evidence of how the damage actually occurred. The board concludes there is no evidence of negligence on the part of officers, agents or employees of the State, and concludes the claim is not one for which the State is legally liable, nor one which the state should assume and pay on equitable principles, and denies the same.

18. Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee, Inc.

Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee, Inc., 2200 West Kilbourn Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, claims $205.85 for damages incurred on October 2, 1972, when Charles Peterson took a chair, breaking some safety glass and damaging a door. Charles was under the custody of the State of Wisconsin at the time of the incident and was in the hospital for psychiatric care. The hospital's insurance did not cover any loss under $250 nor any loss from glass breakage. The board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

19. Raymond F. Tesch

Raymond F. Tesch, Green Bay, Wisconsin, claims $327.60 for a hearing aid he provided to Mary Dowd of Neopit, Wisconsin, on

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

September 25, 1971, upon the verbal assurance of the recipient's social worker that the hearing aid would be paid for by the government. The recipient was in apparent need of the hearing aid and has used it ever since obtaining it. Prior authorization pursuant to established departmental rules and procedures had not been obtained by the claimant to furnish the hearing aid, and there is not legal liability for the state to pay his claim. The claimant was aware of the formal procedures he should have followed, but also knew of other instances where he furnished hearing aids and was subsequently paid for them, even though he had not followed such formal procedures as a prerequisite to furnishing the hearing aid. The claimant acted in good faith in furnishing the hearing aid, and the board concludes the claim should be paid on equitable principles.

20. Daniel J. Banner, Sr.

Daniel J. Banner, Sr., P.O. Box C, Waupun, Wisconsin, claims $1,571.52 damages for wrongful imprisonment. The claim is under s.285.05, Wis. Stats. Claimant was convicted of burglary on February 6, 1970, and sent to the Wisconsin State Prison. His sentence of ten years was vacated on March 22, 1971, and claimant was granted a new trial. On July 21, 1971, after a bench trial claimant was found not guilty and discharged. Claimant seeks reimbursement for wrongful imprisonment for one year and 16 days. The board finds that it is not clear beyond a reasonable doubt that the claimant was innocent of the crime for which he was convicted and imprisoned. In LeFevre v. Goodland (1945), 247 Wis. 521, 19 N.W. 2d 884, the Court held that the burden was on the claimant to establish his innocence beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that there is not enough evidence to prove a person guilty beyond a reasonable doubt does not mean the same lack of evidence establishes innocence beyond a reasonable doubt. The presumption of innocence which accompanies the accused in criminal proceedings does not establish innocence beyond a reasonable doubt in proceedings under s.285.05, Stats. The claim is denied.

21. Patrick E. McClellan

Patrick E. McClellan, P.O. Box 704, Pittsburg, California, claims $20,000 damages for wrongful imprisonment. The claim is under s.285.05 Stats. Claimant was convicted on September 4, 1970, for attempting to cash a forged check. On December 20, 1972, claimant was ordered discharged by the federal district court for the eastern district of Wisconsin. Claimant was imprisoned from November 3, 1970 to December 26, 1972. The board finds that it is not clear beyond a reasonable doubt that the claimant was innocent of the crime for which he was convicted and imprisoned. In LeFevre v. Goodland (1945), 247 Wis. 512, 19 N.W. 2d 884, the Court held that the burden was on the claimant to establish his innocence beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that there is not enough evidence to prove a person guilty beyond a reasonable doubt does not mean the same lack of evidence established innocence beyond a reasonable doubt. The presumption of innocence which accompanies the accused in criminal proceedings does not establish innocence beyond a reasonable doubt in proceedings under s. 285.05, Stats. The claim is denied.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (February 27, 1974)

The board concludes the claims of the following claimants in the following amounts are justified under sec. 16.007 (6), Stats.:

Mildred Stenberg -----	13.50
O. A. Ladwig -----	63.94
Tony Jelich -----	339.50
Gregory Conniff -----	80.00
Michael F. Winter -----	200.00
Robert E. Ladwig -----	84.36
James E. Oughton -----	53.75
William Oughton -----	94.00
Howard V. Knodt -----	87.36
Robert R. Ehlenbach -----	65.00
Richard Rubenzer -----	150.00
Janesville Auto Transport Co. - 194.72
Robert M. Chase -----	74.88
Obert T. Agerjord -----	45.95
Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee, Inc. -----	205.85
Raymond F. Tesch -----	327.60

The Board concludes the payment of the following claims should be denied:

Dean Rein
 Cecile G. Parrish for Classified Insurance Corp.
 Virginia E. Carney
