STATE OF WISCONSIN

Senate Journal

Eighty-First Regular Session

---

TUESDAY, March 19, 1974.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president pro tempore of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Reverend John Mangos, M. D., Assistant Pastor of the Greek Orthodox Church of the Assumption, Madison.

O Lord, Master of the Universe and Supreme Protector of Man, look down upon this gathering of your servants, the Legislators of the State of Wisconsin, and guide them in their deliberations of measures aimed to improve the well being of your people. Since Creation, your Divine Providence of the World has been carried out by two recognized authorities: the clergymen and the public officials. You, our Creator of the World, have entrusted to the first the care of souls and to the second the control of men's bodies. In Your Everlasting Love for Mankind, O Lord, bless, protect and guide your entrusted representatives gathered in this room so that they act in the best interest of your people of the State of Wisconsin, America and the World. Amen.

The senate remained standing and the president pro tempore of the senate led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following senators answered to their names:

Senators Bablitch, Bidwell, Chilsen, Devitt, Dorman, Frank, Hollander, Johnson, Kasten, Keppler, Knowles, Knutson, Krueger, LaFave, LaFollette, Lorge, McKenna, Martin, Murphy, Parys, Peloquin, Petri, Risser, Roseleip, Schuele, Steinhilber, Swan, J.D., Swan, M., Theno, Thompson and Whittow -- 1.

AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Senate substitute amendment 1 to Senate Resolution 38 by Senator Knowles.

To amend senate rules 18, 26 (2) and 47 (2) and (3); and to create senate rule 38m, relating to calendar scheduling by the senate organization committee and permitting authors to request this committee to place their bills or resolutions on a consent calendar.

Resolved by the senate, That:

SECTION 1. Purpose. In order to maintain a workable senate calendar that will be as up-to-date as practicable; to group bills which concern similar subjects for logical and expeditious consideration; and to make it possible for the public, lobbyists and the members of the senate to know approximately when a measure will be before the senate, the committee on senate organization shall properly schedule and group measures on the calendar.

SECTION 2. Senate rule 18, as adopted by 1973 Senate Resolution 7, is amended to read:

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (March 19, 1974)

Senate Rule 18. Daily calendar. All bills, resolutions, appointments, memorials, or other business, referred to a committee and reported by it to the senate, shall be ~~placed upon the calendar under the proper order of business referred to the committee on senate organization.~~ The committee on senate organization shall establish a calendar, grouping together bills, resolutions, appointments, memorials, or other business according to similar subjects and in an appropriate order, and in such numbers as to constitute a workable and up-to-date calendar schedule. The committee on senate organization shall place a bill, resolution, appointment, memorial, or other business on the calendar when directed to do so by a majority vote of the senate. The printed calendar shall be furnished to members at least 24 hours, exclusive of Sunday, before such a calendar is acted upon. The calendar shall not be changed within that period. Unless otherwise ordered, an unfinished calendar of a preceding day shall be first in order as the unfinished business of the senate.

SECTION 3. Senate rule 26 (2), as adopted by 1973 Senate Resolution 7, is amended to read:

Senate Rule 26 (2) As early in the session as is convenient and as often thereafter as may expedite the consideration of bills, the chairman or the chairman and the member of each committee which considers bills, ~~shall may report on a separate to the committee report on senate organization~~ such bills as they consider noncontroversial and which are so simple as will not in his or their opinion require a hearing to secure facts necessary for the members to make a determination on the merits of the bill.

SECTION 4. Senate rule 38m is created to read:

Senate Rule 38m. Consent calendar. (1) As early in the session as is convenient and as often thereafter as may expedite the consideration of bills the committee on senate organization shall prepare a list of bills which are considered noncontroversial.

(2) Authors of bills may request that their bills be placed on such list but the determination rests in the discretion of the committee on senate organization.

(3) Such list of bills shall be posted for one week and such other notice may be given the list as the senate requires. Any member may strike a bill from the list by notifying the chief clerk in writing, and such bill shall be so stricken unless the senate otherwise determines, and shall remain with the committee on senate organization for further consideration by that committee. Bills remaining on such list shall be placed on a special second reading calendar known as the consent calendar. Following second reading such bills shall be engrossed and placed on a special third reading calendar known as a consent calendar.

SECTION 5. Senate rule 47 (2) and (3), as adopted by 1973 Senate Resolution 7, are amended to read:

Senate Rule 47. (2) Whenever a bill or resolution has been rereferred to committee and is again reported by such committee to the senate, it shall, if a senate bill or joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution, be referred to the committee on senate organization and when such committee places it on the calendar under senate rule 18, it shall be placed on the second reading calendar of senate bills and, if an assembly bill or joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution, on second reading calendar of assembly bills.

(3) All Any senate resolutions resolution and any joint resolutions resolution which do does not propose amendments an amendment to the constitution, and which are may be referred directly to the committee on organization or shall, when reported out by a standing committee or otherwise ordered referred to the calendar shall be referred to the committee on senate organization. By action of the committee on senate organization under senate rule 18, any such resolution shall be placed upon the calendar under the eleventh order of business and, upon reading, the question shall be directly upon adoption or concurrence. Any such senate resolution or senate joint resolution which is amended prior to its adoption shall, however, be actually engrossed as provided in this rule, and in the case of a senate joint resolution, prior to its being messaged to the other house.
