269 36	Mail service increases time allowed.

269.01 Agreed case; affidavit; judgment.

Parties to a controversy which might be the subject of a civil action, may agree upon a verified case containing the facts upon which the controversy depends and submit the same to any court which would have jurisdiction if an action were brought. The court shall, thereupon, render judgment as in an action. Judgment shall be entered and docketed as other judgments and with like effect, but without costs for any proceeding prior to the trial.

269.02 Settlement offers. (1) JUDGMENT.

After issue is joined but at least 20 days before the trial, the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the sum, or property, or to the effect therein specified, with costs. If the plaintiff accepts the offer and serves notice thereof in writing, before trial and within 10 days after receipt of the offer or within 40 days after service of the notice of trial, whichever is later, he may file the offer, with proof of service of the notice of acceptance, and the clerk must thereupon enter judgment accordingly, provided the summons and complaint have been filed. If notice of acceptance is not given, the offer cannot be given as evidence nor mentioned on the trial. If the offer of judgment is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to recover a more favorable judgment, he shall not recover costs but defendant shall recover costs to be computed on the demand of the complaint.

(2) DAMAGES. After issue is joined but at least 20 days before trial, the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff a written offer that if he fails in his defense the damages be assessed at a specified sum. If the plaintiff accepts the offer and serves notice thereof in writing before trial and within 10 days after receipt of the offer or within 40 days after service of the notice of trial, whichever is later, and prevails upon the trial, either party may file proof of service of the offer and acceptance and the damages will be assessed accordingly. If notice of acceptance is not given, the offer cannot be given as evidence nor mentioned on the trial. If the offer is not accepted and if damages assessed in favor of the plaintiff do not exceed the damages offered, neither party shall recover costs.

(3) SETTLEMENT. After issue is joined but at least 20 days before trial, the plaintiff may serve upon the defendant a written offer of settlement for the sum, or property, or to the effect therein specified, with costs. If the defendant accepts the offer and serves notice thereof in writing, before trial and within 10 days after receipt of the offer or within 40 days after service of the notice of trial, whichever is later, he may file the offer, with proof of service of the notice of acceptance, with the clerk of court. If notice of acceptance is not given, the offer cannot be given as evidence nor mentioned on the trial. If the offer of settlement is not accepted and the plaintiff recovers a more favorable judgment, he shall recover double the amount of the taxable costs.

(4) APPLICATION. Subs. (1) to (3) shall apply to offers which may be made by any party to any other party who demands a judgment or setoff against the offering party.

History: 1971 c. 27.

Cross reference: For tender of payment, see 895.14 to 895.171.

269.05 Consolidation of actions. When two or more actions are pending in the same court, which might have been joined, the court or a judge, on motion, shall, if no sufficient cause be shown to the contrary, consolidate them into one by order.

269.06 Court may order delivery of property. When it is admitted by the pleading or examination of a party that he has in his possession or under his control any money or other thing capable of delivery, which, being the subject of the litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party or which belongs or is due to another party the court may order the same to be deposited in court or delivered to such party with or without security, subject to the further direction of the court.

269.07 Refusal to deliver property; title passed by judgment. When a court shall have ordered the deposit, delivery or conveyance of property and the order is disobeyed, the court may order the sheriff to take the property and deliver, deposit or convey it in conformity with the direction of the court and the court may pass title by its judgment.

269.08 Summons to joint debtors not originally summoned. When a judgment shall be recovered against one or more of several persons jointly indebted upon a contract, by proceeding as provided in section 270.55, those who were not originally summoned to answer the complaint may be summoned to show cause why they should not be bound by the judgment in the same manner as if they had been originally summoned. The summons shall be subscribed by the judgment creditor, his representatives or attorneys, shall describe the judgment and require the person summoned to show cause, within twenty days after the service of the summons, and shall be served in like manner as the original summons. The summons shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the person subscribing it that the judgment has not been satisfied to his knowledge or information and belief, and specifying the amount due thereon.

269.09 Parties may defend. The party summoned may answer within the time specified and may make any defense which he might have originally made to the action, and may deny the judgment or make any defense which may have arisen subsequently.

269.10 Pleadings and trial. The party issuing the summons may demur or reply to the answer and the party summoned may demur to the reply, and the issues may be tried and judgment may be given in the same manner as in an action and enforced by execution or the application of the property charged to the payment of the judgment be compelled by attachment, if necessary.

269.12 Summons where no jurisdiction. When judgment shall have been entered in an action against any defendant upon whom service was attempted, but whereby jurisdiction was not acquired, such defendant may be summoned to show cause why he should not be bound by the judgment in the same manner as if he had been originally summoned. The summons shall be like that provided in s. 269.08, with a like accompanying affidavit when the judgment is for a sum of money. It may be served in any manner as an original summons might be. Proceedings thereon shall be had as prescribed in ss. 269.09 and 269.10, and judgment upon default or otherwise be entered, as the nature of the case demands. This section shall apply to minors and incompetents.

269.13 When action not to abate. An action does not abate by the occurrence of any event if the cause of action survives or continues.

269.14 Continuance if interest transferred, etc. In case of a transfer of interest or devolution of liability the action may be continued by or against the original party, or the court may direct the person to whom the interest is transferred or upon whom the liability is devolved to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party, as the case requires.

269.15 Action by officer, receiver, etc., not to abate. When an action or special proceeding is lawfully brought by or in the name of a public officer or by a receiver or by any trustee appointed by virtue of any statute his death or removal shall not abate the same, but it may be continued by his successor, who may be substituted therefor by order of the court or a judge.

269.16 Death or disability of party. In case of the death or disability of a party, if the cause of action survives, the court may order the action to be continued by or against his representatives or successor in interest.

269.17 Joint actions not abated by death; liability of estate. Where there are several plaintiffs or defendants in any action, if any of them shall die and the cause of action survives to or against the others the action may proceed, without interruption, in favor of or against the survivors. If all the plaintiffs or defendants shall die before judgment the action may be prosecuted or defended by the executor or administrator of the last surviving plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be. But the estate of a party jointly liable upon contract with others shall not be discharged by his death, and the court may, by order, bring in the proper representative of the deceased defendant, when it is necessary so to do, for the proper disposition of the matter; and where the liability is several as well as joint may order a severance of the action so that it may proceed separately against the representative of the decedent and against the surviving defendants.

269.18 Death of parties; effect on action. In case of the death of any of several plaintiffs or defendants, if part only of the cause of action or part or some of two or more distinct causes of action survives to or against the others the action may proceed without bringing in the successor to the rights or liabilities of the deceased party, and the judgment shall not affect him or his interest in the subject of the action. But when it appears proper the court may order the successor brought in.

269.22 Death after verdict or findings; practice. After an accepted offer to allow judgment to be taken, or after a verdict, report of a referee or finding by the court in any action the action does not abate by the death of any party, but shall be further proceeded with in same manner as if the cause of action survived by law; or the court may enter judgment in the names of the original parties if such offer, verdict, report or finding be not set aside. But a verdict, report or finding rendered against a party after his death is void.

269.23 Proceedings to revive action. Whenever any person shall be entitled to continue any action or proceeding interrupted by death, removal from a trust or other disability he may file with the clerk a petition setting out the necessary facts and thereupon give notice to the other party of the time and place of such filing, and that unless he shows cause by affidavit within twenty days after service of such notice on him, exclusive of the day of service, why such action or proceeding should not be revived the same will stand revived according to such petition. Such notice may be served in the same manner as a summons. Upon filing such notice with proof of service and that no affidavit has been received the court or a judge shall order the action or proceeding revived. An affidavit showing cause against such revivor may be served on the party subscribing such notice as a pleading is served; and the court shall make such order as the circumstances may require.

269.24 Action dismissed if not revived. At any time after the death of the plaintiff the court may, upon notice to such persons as it shall direct and on the application of the adverse party or of a person whose interest is affected, order the action dismissed unless continued by the proper parties within the time therein specified; and unless so continued within such time the same shall stand dismissed.

269.25 Dismissal for delay. The court may with notice dismiss any action or proceeding which is not brought to trial within 4 years after its commencement.

Cross reference: See 270.54 for provision permitting dismissal for unreasonable delay.

A court has inherent power to dismiss an action for delay, on notice, without waiting for the statutory period. Lawrence v. MacIntyre, 48 W (2d) 550, 180 NW (2d) 538.

Service of a notice of trial is not sufficient reason for not bringing a case to trial. Counsel must move to put the case on the calendar. Zeis v. Fruehauf Corp. 56 W (2d) 486, 202 NW (2d) 225.

269.27 Motion defined; when and where made; stay of proceedings. An application for an order is a motion. Motions in actions or proceedings in the circuit court must be made within the circuit where the action is triable; in other courts, within their territorial jurisdiction. Orders out of court, without notice, may be made by the presiding judge of the court in any part of the state; and they may also be made by a county judge or court commissioner of the county where the action is triable. No order to stay proceedings after a verdict, report or finding in any circuit court shall be made by a county judge or court commissioner, or in any county court by a court commissioner. No stay of proceedings for a longer time than twenty days shall be granted by a judge out of court except upon previous notice to the adverse party.

Since defendants' motion was a claim that neither the complaint nor evidence established a cause of action in contribution, the trial court also correctly ruled it was a motion for nonsuit and properly granted plaintiff the right to plead over, inasmuch as nonsuit does not warrant dismissal on the merits. Defendants' contention that a motion for nonsuit does not exist in equity actions was devoid of merit, for contribution, while equitable in its origin, is now enforced in a suit at law, and there is no barrier for such a motion in an action for contribution, at least one tried before a jury. Heritage Mut. Ins. Co. v. Thoma, 45 W (2d) 580, 173 NW (2d) 717.

269.28 Orders, how vacated and modified. An order made out of court without notice may be vacated or modified without notice by the judge who made it. An order made upon notice shall not be modified or vacated except by the court upon notice, but the presiding judge may suspend the order, in whole or in part, during the pendency of a motion to the court to modify or vacate the order.

269.29 Restriction as to making orders; review by court. Where an order or proceeding is authorized to be made or taken by the court it must be done by the court in session; where an order or proceeding is authorized to be made or taken by the presiding judge or the circuit or county judge, using such words of designation, no court commissioner can act. Except as so provided or otherwise expressly directed a county judge or court commissioner may exercise within his county the powers and shall be subject to the restrictions thereon of a circuit judge at chambers but such orders of a court commissioner may be reviewed by the court. The court may make any order which a judge or court commissioner has power to make.

269.30 Motions, how heard if judge disqualified. Where a motion is made to be heard before the court or the presiding judge thereof and such judge is disqualified to hear the motion it may be transferred by his order to some court having concurrent jurisdiction of the subject of the action or it may be so transferred by the written stipulation of the parties. The court so designated shall make the proper order for the determination thereof and carrying the same into execution, which shall be transmitted to and entered by the clerk of the court where the action is pending and have the same effect as if made by that court.

269.31 Time of notice of motion. When a notice of motion is necessary, unless the time be fixed by statute or the rules of court, it must be served eight days before the time appointed for the hearing; but the court or judge may, by an order to show cause, prescribe a shorter time.

269.32 Motions and orders; service of papers. (1) All such motions shall be brought to hearing on written notice or order to show cause. Such notice of motion or order to show cause shall state the nature of the order or relief applied for, and if based on irregularity, it shall specify the irregularities complained of.

(2) Copies of all records and papers upon which a motion or order to show cause is founded, except such as have been previously filed or served in the same action or proceeding, shall be served with the notice thereof or the order to show cause, and shall be plainly referred to therein. Papers already filed or served shall be referred to as papers theretofore filed or served in the action. The moving party may be allowed to present upon the hearing, records, affidavits or other papers, not served with the motion papers, but only upon condition that opposing counsel be given reasonable time in which to meet such additional proofs, should request therefor be made.

(3) When a notice of a motion for an order has been served either party may take depositions, on notice, to be used on the hearing of such motion. Testimony may be taken on the hearing and such testimony shall be transcribed, certified and filed at the expense of the party offering the same unless otherwise ordered.

(4) All orders shall refer to the records and papers used, and the testimony taken upon the application for the order.

269.33 Papers to be legible. Every paper in any action or proceeding and copies thereof shall be legible and on substantial paper and shall have indorsed thereon the title of the action or proceeding and character of the paper and serial record number of the action if filed after the clerk had given the action a number, and if not so prepared and indorsed, the clerk may refuse to file the paper and the party to be served need not receive it. The clerk shall indorse on all papers filed the date of filing.

269.34 Service of papers; personal and by mail. (1) The service of papers may be personal by delivery of a copy of the paper to be served to the party or attorney on whom the service is to be made.

(2) Service upon an attorney may be made during his absence from his office by leaving such copy with his clerk therein or with a person having charge thereof; or, when there is no person in the office, by leaving it in a conspicuous place in the office; or, if it be not open then by leaving it at the attorney's residence with some person of suitable age and discretion. If admission to the office cannot be obtained and there is no person in the attorney's residence upon whom service can be made, it may be made by mailing him a copy to the address designated by him upon the preceding papers in the action; or where he has not made such a designation, at his place of residence or the place where he keeps an office, according to the best information which can conveniently be obtained concerning the same.

(3) Service upon a party may be made by leaving the copy at his residence between the hours of six in the morning and nine in the evening, with some person of suitable age and discretion.

(4) Service may be made by mailing such copy where the person making the service and the person on whom it is made reside in different places between which there is a communication by mail. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. The copy of the paper to be served must be properly enclosed in a postpaid envelope and must be addressed to the person on whom it is to be served at his proper post-office address. The envelope may bear the sender's name and address and a request to the postal officers for the return thereof in case of nondelivery to the person addressed.

269.36 Mail service increases time allowed. If a certain time before an act to be done is required for the service of any paper and if, after service of any paper, a specified time is allowed a party to do an act in answer to or in consequence of such service, service by mail shall increase by 5 days the time required or allowed to do such act in case of personal service.

Cross references: See 32.05 (4) for exception to provision for added time in case of mailing

See 251.42 for provision for service by mail in cases before supreme court.

269.37 Service on attorney; when service not required. When a party to an action or proceeding shall have appeared by an attorney the service of papers shall be made upon the attorney. When a defendant shall not have appeared in person or by attorney service of notice or papers in the ordinary proceedings in an action need not be made upon him unless he be imprisoned for want of bail.

Cross reference: See 887.12 (4) for provision requiring service of notice of taking deposition on the parties or their attorneys.

Although service on an attorney in an appeal from a condemnation commissioners award is not allowed where the only appearance of the attorney was before the commission, such service is sufficient when the attorney also appeared in related proceedings to obtain a writ of assistance to obtain possession of the property. Meyer v Wis Electric Power Co. 60 W (2d) 175, 208 NW (2d) 321

269.38 Service of papers dispensed with. When a party's residence and post office are not known and neither can with due diligence be learned and he has designated no place for service of papers upon him, service of notice and other papers on him is dispensed with unless there is a special rule requiring publication of notice, in which case the special rule shall be observed.

269.39 Applicability of service provisions.

The provisions of ss. 269.34, 269.37 and 269.38 shall not apply to the service of a summons or other process, or of any paper to bring a party into contempt.

269.41 Sheriff's certificate as evidence; proof of service.

When service of a notice or paper in an action or proceeding is authorized to be made by the sheriff his certificate of service shall be evidence thereof. Proof of service of notices and papers where no special mode of proof is provided may be made as provided by s. 891.18.

269.42 Papers, where filed.

All affidavits and papers used on any motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court or with the judge by whom the motion is heard, and the judge shall, after decision thereof, file all such papers with the clerk. All undertakings given in actions or proceedings must be filed with the clerk unless otherwise directed by these statutes or the court expressly provides for a different disposition thereof.

269.43 Mistakes and omissions.

The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings which shall not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party; and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect.

269.44 Amendments of processes, pleadings and proceedings.

The court may, at any stage of any action or special proceeding before or after judgment, in furtherance of justice and upon such terms as may be just, amend any process, pleading or proceeding, notwithstanding it may change the action from one at law to one in equity, or from one on contract to one in tort, or vice versa; provided, the amended pleading states a cause of action arising out of the contract, transaction or occurrence or is connected with the subject of the action upon which the original pleading is based.

Where plaintiff insurer, after settling a personal injury claim of a passenger in the other car, sought "contribution" against the other driver and his insurer, but failed in its complaint to allege common liability of both drivers—alleging instead no negligence on the part of its insured but causal negligence of the other driver—it was error for the trial court at the close of plaintiff's case, in ruling on defendants' motion to dismiss, to refuse plaintiff permission to amend its complaint so as to allege subrogation where that theory had support in the evidence, it being manifest from both the original pleading and the proof that defendants could not have claimed surprise if the amendment were allowed. Heritage Mut. Ins. Co. v. Thoma, 45 W (2d) 580, 173 NW (2d) 717.

The amendment to the caption of a pleading is properly allowed where the original pleading is sufficient to invoke the court's jurisdiction, the opposing party has notice of the issues to be determined, and makes no objection to the nature of the proceedings until after the court has rendered its decision. Durkin v. Board of Police & Fire Comm. 48 W (2d) 112, 180 NW (2d) 1.

269.45 Enlargement of time. (1) The court or a judge may with or without notice, for cause shown by affidavit and upon just terms and before the time has expired, extend the time within which any act or proceeding in an action or special proceeding must be taken, except the time for appeal.

(2) After the expiration of the specified period or as extended by any previous order, the court may in its discretion, for like cause, upon notice, extend the time where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; except the time for appeal.

Cross reference: See 879.31 permitting an extension of time for appeal in probate matters for cause shown.

Where an action was dismissed for failure to serve a complaint within 20 days after demand, vacation of the judgment and entry of an order thereafter extending the time for service was valid where the court did not abuse its discretion in entering the order. The court still had jurisdiction under 269.46 (3). Menard v. Jiffy Self-Service Dry Cleaning, 46 W (2d) 142, 174 NW (2d) 493.

A discretionary refusal to enlarge the time to answer on the ground of excusable neglect because of pressure of work in the attorney's office and illness of his wife, with no further elaboration, will not be reversed. Wagner v. Springaire Corp. 50 W (2d) 212, 184 NW (2d) 88.

Prejudice is not necessary in order to justify denial of an extension of time. Stryker v. LaPointe, 52 W (2d) 228, 190 NW (2d) 178.

This section does not apply to a judgment of strict foreclosure of a land contract. Exchange Corp. of Wis. v. Kuntz, 56 W (2d) 555, 202 NW (2d) 393.

269.46 Relief from judgments, orders and stipulations; review of judgments and orders. (1) The court may, upon notice and just terms, at any time within one year after notice thereof, relieve a party from a judgment, order, stipulation or other proceeding against him obtained, through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect and may supply an omission in any proceeding. In addition to the required affidavits, all motions to vacate a judgment entered upon default or cognovit and to obtain a trial upon the merits shall be accompanied by a proposed verified answer disclosing a defense.

(2) No agreement, stipulation or consent, between the parties or their attorneys, in respect to the proceedings in an action or special proceeding, shall be binding unless made in court and entered in the minutes or made in writing and subscribed by the party to be bound thereby or by his attorney.

(3) All judgments and court orders may be reviewed by the court at any time within 60 days from service of notice of entry thereof, but not later than 60 days after the end of the term of entry thereof.

Cross reference: For limitation on power to reverse or set aside a judgment or to grant a new trial, see 274.37.

This section does not limit to one year the granting of relief from an invalid judgment. Home Bank v. Becker, 48 W (2d) 1, 179 NW (2d) 855.

Whether a party has notice of the judgment within a year after entry is a question of fact to be determined by the trial court. State ex rel. Green v. Williams, 49 W (2d) 752, 183 NW (2d) 37.

Existence of a meritorious defense is immaterial on the question of excusable neglect. Wagner v. Springaire Corp. 50 W (2d) 212, 184 NW (2d) 88.

A motion to vacate a default divorce judgment alleging perjury and acts of condonation should have been considered by the court and a finding made, since if true the judgment should have been vacated. Lorscheter v. Lorscheter, 52 W (2d) 804, 191 NW (2d) 200.

Where it is claimed that defendants' attorneys mislaid the file and therefore defaulted, a further delay of 55 days after knowledge of the judgment does not show excusable neglect which would require reopening the judgment. Collings v. Phillips, 54 W (2d) 204, 194 NW (2d) 677.

A probate court has no authority to withdraw an order discharging a personal representative after the lapse of one year. Schnabl v. Ford Motor Co. 54 W (2d) 345, 195 NW (2d) 602, 198 NW (2d) 161.

A judgment of strict foreclosure of a land contract may be reviewed under (3). Exchange Corp. of Wis. v. Kuntz, 56 W (2d) 555, 202 NW (2d) 393.

The trial court may reopen a judgment to reform a release where both parties to the release consent, even though another defendant claims rights under the release. Krenz v. Medical Protective Co. 57 W (2d) 387, 204 NW (2d) 663.

It is not an abuse of discretion for the court to refuse to set aside an order dismissing an action where the order was entered at the request of petitioners with full knowledge of the facts. Buchen v. Wis. Tobacco Co. 59 W (2d) 461, 208 NW (2d) 373.

269.465 Affidavit of advice of counsel.

Whenever it is necessary in any petition or affidavit to swear to the advice of counsel, a party shall, in addition to what has usually been required, swear that he has fully and fairly stated the case to his counsel and shall give the name and address of such counsel.

269.47 Defense where service by publication.

When service of the summons shall have been made by publication, if the summons shall not have been personally served on a defendant nor received by such defendant through the post office, he or his representative shall, on application and good cause shown, at any time before final judgment, be allowed to defend the action; and, except in an action for divorce or annulment of the marriage contract, the defendant or his representative shall in like manner, upon good cause shown and such terms as shall be just, be allowed to defend after final judgment at any time within one year after actual notice thereof and within three years after its rendition. If the defense be successful and the judgment or any part thereof shall have been collected or otherwise enforced such restitution may thereupon be compelled as the court shall direct; but the title to property, sold under such judgment to a purchaser in good faith, shall not thereby be affected.

269.49 Copy of paper may be used, when.

If any original paper or pleading be lost or withheld by any person the court may authorize a copy thereof to be filed and used instead of the original.

269.50 Affidavits need not be entitled.

It shall not be necessary to entitle an affidavit in the action; but an affidavit made without a title or with a defective title shall be as valid and effectual for every purpose as if it were duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to the action or proceeding in which it is made.

269.51 Irregularities and lack of jurisdiction waived on appeal; jurisdiction exercised; transfer to proper court. (1)

When an appeal from any court, tribunal, officer or board is attempted to any court and return is duly made to such court, the respondent shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the regularity or sufficiency of the appeal or to the jurisdiction of the appellate court, unless he shall move to dismiss such appeal before taking or participating in any other proceedings in said appellate court. If it shall appear upon the hearing of such motion that such appeal was attempted in good faith the court may allow any defect or omission in the appeal papers to be supplied, either with or without terms, and with the same effect as if the appeal had been originally properly taken.

(2) If the tribunal from which an appeal is taken had no jurisdiction of the subject matter and the court to which the appeal is taken has such jurisdiction, said court shall, if it appear that the action or proceeding was commenced in the good faith and belief that the first named tribunal possessed jurisdiction, allow it to proceed as if originally commenced in the proper court and shall allow the pleadings and proceedings to be amended accordingly; and in all cases in every court where objection to its jurisdiction is sustained the cause shall be certified to some court having jurisdiction, provided it appear that the error arose from mistake.

Neither this section nor 274.11 (4), Stats 1971, confers jurisdiction on the court to hear an appeal in a criminal case when the appeal is not timely. Scheid v. State, 60 W (2d) 575; 211 NW (2d) 458

(2) applies only at the trial court level; it does not confer appellate jurisdiction on the supreme court when an appeal is first mistakenly taken to the circuit court. State v. Jakubowski, 61 W (2d) 220, 212 NW (2d) 155.

269.52 Mistaken remedy; no dismissal; amendment; transfer to court having jurisdiction.

In all cases where upon objection taken or upon demurrer sustained or after trial it shall appear to the court that any party claiming affirmative relief or damages has mistaken his remedy, his action, proceeding, cross complaint, counterclaim, writ, or relation shall not be finally dismissed or quashed, but costs shall be awarded against him and he shall be allowed a reasonable time within which to amend and the amended action or proceeding shall continue in that court except in case that court has no jurisdiction to grant the relief sought, in which case the action in whole or in such divisible part in which jurisdiction is lacking shall be certified to some other court which has jurisdiction.

269.53 Release of joint debtor; effect. (1)

If any creditor to whom persons are jointly indebted, either upon contract or the judgment of a court of record, shall release any of them such release shall operate as a satisfaction or discharge of such joint debt to the amount of the proportion which the person so released ought in equity, as between himself and the other joint debtors, to pay; and the balance of such joint debt shall remain in force as to joint debtors not released and may be enforced against them. If the amount paid by a debtor to procure his release shall exceed the proportion of such joint debt which he, as between himself and co-debtors ought to pay then such joint debt shall thereby be satisfied to the extent of the sum so paid. If the person released is only a surety his release shall operate as payment of such joint debt to the extent of the money paid by him and no further.

(2) This section does not permit the discharge of a principal debtor without also discharging his sureties.

269.55 Interpreters for hearing-handicapped persons.

Upon a trial or examination in any matter wherein any deaf mute or hearing-handicapped person is accused of a crime or misdemeanor, or upon consideration by any state, county or municipal agency of the right or propriety of any such person to have privileges accorded normal hearing people, or when such person is to come under judgment as to his fitness for a place in society, and there is a definite communications barrier as evidenced by such person being incapable of adequately understanding any charge, issue or pertinent utterances or expressing himself because of a lack of ability to use the English language by reason of being deaf or hearing-handicapped, or by such person suffering from a speech defect or other physical defect which handicaps such person in exercising or maintaining his rights in such matter, the court, judge, agency, person or body conducting, considering or having jurisdiction of such trial, examination or matter shall call in and appoint an interpreter competent to converse in the special language, oral, manual or sign, familiar to or used by such deaf mute or hearing-handicapped person. The necessary expense of furnishing such interpreter shall be paid by the unit of government for which such trial, examination, inquiry or consideration is held or made if satisfactory proof is offered that said deaf mute or person is unable to pay the same.

269.56 Declaratory judgments act. (1)

SCOPE. Courts of record within their respective jurisdictions shall have power to declare rights, status and other legal relations whether or not further relief is or could be claimed. No action or proceeding shall be open to objection on the ground that a declaratory judgment or decree is prayed for. The declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect; and such declarations shall have the force and effect of a final judgment or decree.

(2) POWER TO CONSTRUE, ETC. Any person interested under a deed, will, written contract or other writings constituting a contract, or whose rights, status or other legal relations are affected by a statute, municipal ordinance, contract or franchise, may have determined any question of construction or validity arising under the instrument, statute, ordinance, contract or franchise and obtain a declaration of rights, status or other legal relations thereunder. No party shall be denied the right to have declared the validity of any statute or municipal ordinance by virtue of the fact that he holds a license or permit under such statutes or ordinances.

(3) BEFORE BREACH. A contract may be construed either before or after there has been a breach thereof.

(3m) PATERNITY. If the rights of the natural father have not been terminated, any person who claims to be the natural father of a child born out of wedlock and not subsequently legitimated or adopted may, within 5 years after the date of birth of the child, petition for a declaration of paternity. The court may determine by a clear and convincing preponderance of the evidence that the person is the natural father of the child. Any further determinations affecting the natural father's rights shall be in accordance with the standards of s. 48.425.

(4) EXECUTOR, ETC. Any person interested as or through an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or other fiduciary, creditor, devisee, legatee, heir, next of kin or cestui que trust, in the administration of a trust, or of the estate of a decedent, an infant, lunatic or insolvent, may have a declaration of rights or legal relations in respect thereto:

(a) To ascertain any class of creditors, devisees, legatees, heirs, next of kin or others; or

(b) To direct the executors, administrators or trustees to do or abstain from doing any particular act in their fiduciary capacity; or

(c) To determine any question arising in the administration of the estate or trust, including questions of construction of wills and other writings.

(5) ENUMERATION NOT EXCLUSIVE. The enumeration in subs. (2), (3), (3m) and (4) does not limit or restrict the exercise of the general powers conferred in sub. (1) in any proceeding where declaratory relief is sought, in which a judgment or decree will terminate the controversy or remove an uncertainty.

(6) DISCRETIONARY. The court may refuse to render or enter a declaratory judgment or decree where such judgment or decree, if rendered or entered, would not terminate the uncertainty or controversy giving rise to the proceeding.

(7) REVIEW. All orders, judgments and decrees under this section may be reviewed as other orders, judgments and decrees.

(8) SUPPLEMENTAL RELIEF. Further relief based on a declaratory judgment or decree may be granted whenever necessary or proper. The application therefor shall be by petition to a court having jurisdiction to grant the relief. If the application be deemed sufficient, the court shall, on reasonable notice, require any adverse party whose rights have been adjudicated by the declaratory judgment or decree, to show cause why further relief should not be granted forthwith.

(9) JURY TRIAL. When a proceeding under this section involves the determination of an issue of fact, such issue may be tried and determined in the same manner as issues of fact are tried and determined in other civil actions in the court in which the proceeding is pending.

(10) COSTS. In any proceeding under this section the court may make such award of costs as may seem equitable and just.

(11) PARTIES. When declaratory relief is sought, all persons shall be made parties who have or claim any interest which would be affected by the declaration, and no declaration shall prejudice the right of persons not parties to the proceeding. In any proceeding which involves the validity of a municipal ordinance or franchise, such municipality shall be made a party, and shall be entitled to be heard, and if the statute, ordinance or franchise is alleged to be unconstitutional, the attorney general shall also be served with a copy of the proceeding and be entitled to be heard.

(12) CONSTRUCTION. This section is declared to be remedial; its purpose is to settle and to afford relief from uncertainty and insecurity with respect to rights, status and other legal relations; and is to be liberally construed and administered.

(13) WORDS CONSTRUED. The word "person" wherever used in this section, shall be construed to mean any person, partnership, joint stock company, unincorporated association or society, or municipal or other corporation of any character whatsoever.

(14) PROVISIONS SEVERABLE. The several sections and provisions of this section except subsections (1) and (2) are hereby declared independent and severable, and the invalidity, if any, of any part or feature thereof shall not affect or render the remainder of the act invalid or inoperative.

(15) UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION. This section shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it, and to harmonize, as far as possible, with federal laws and regulations on the subject of declaratory judgments and decrees.

(16) SHORT TITLE. This section may be cited as the "Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act".

History: 1973 c 263.

An action for declaratory judgment will not lie to define a law enforcement officer's right to demand that a doctor take a blood sample for an intoxication test where the complaint cites no statute under which the doctor is threatened with prosecution and where various facts might affect the rights of the person from whom blood is to be drawn. Waukesha Memorial Hospital v Baird, 45 W (2d) 629, 173 NW (2d) 700.

While in most cases a court may not know a declaratory judgment would not terminate a controversy giving rise to the proceeding until it had heard the evidence, a court need not go through trial to arrive at a foregone conclusion when it appears on the face of the complaint a declaratory judgment would not terminate the controversy. (Language in Miller v Currie, 208 Wis. 199, intimating otherwise, is modified in accordance herewith.) American Med. S. Inc. v. Mutual Fed S. & L. 52 W (2d) 198, 188 NW (2d) 529.

Sub. (5) qualifies the specific powers enumerated in subs. (2), (3) and (4) as well as sub. (1) and the discretionary power in sub. (6) applies to all cases. Even if a complaint states a cause of action for declaratory relief it may be dismissed if a declaratory judgment would not terminate the controversy. American Med. S. Inc. v. Mutual Fed S. & L. 52 W (2d) 198, 188 NW (2d) 529.

Where an action is brought challenging the constitutionality of a statute or ordinance, the court has no jurisdiction if the attorney general is not served. McCabe v Milwaukee, 53 W (2d) 34, 191 NW (2d) 926.

In a suit for declaratory judgment the complaint should not be dismissed when the judgment declares the rights on the complaint or the merits are decided; dismissal is proper when for a valid reason the merits are not reached and the suit should not be entertained. Kenosha v. Unified School Dist. No. 1, 55 W (2d) 642, 201 NW (2d) 66.

A complaint alleging that the insurance commissioner is threatening action against an insurance agent who also contracts to service employee welfare funds, claiming a violation of 211.14 (2) (a), Stats 1969, states a valid basis for declaratory judgment as against a demurrer. Pension

Management, Inc v DuRose, 58 W (2d) 122, 205 NW (2d) 553

269.565 Declaratory judgments against obscene matter. (1) FOUNDATIONS FOR AND COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION. Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any book, magazine, or other written matter, or picture, sound recording or film, which is being sold, loaned or distributed in any county, or is in the possession of any person who intends to sell, loan or distribute the same in any county, is obscene, the district attorney of such county, in the name of the state, as plaintiff, may file a complaint in the circuit court for such county directed against such matter by name. Upon the filing of such complaint, the court shall make a summary examination of such matter. If it is of the opinion that there is reasonable cause to believe that such matter is obscene, it shall issue an order, directed against said matter by name, to show cause why said matter should not be judicially determined to be obscene. This order shall be addressed to all persons interested in the publication, production, sale, loan, exhibition and distribution thereof, and shall be returnable within 30 days. The order shall be published as a class 2 notice, under ch. 985. A copy of such order shall be sent by certified mail to the publisher, producer, and one or more distributors of said matter, to the persons holding the copyrights, and to the author, in case the names of any such persons appear on such matter or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained by said district attorney. Such publication shall commence and such notices shall be so mailed within 72 hours of the issuance of the order to show cause by the court.

(1m) INTERLOCUTORY ADJUDICATION. After the issuance of the order to show cause under sub. (1), the court shall, on motion of the district attorney, make an interlocutory finding and adjudication that said book, magazine or other written matter or picture, sound recording or film is obscene, which finding and adjudication shall be of the same effect as the final judgment provided in sub. (3) or (5), but only until such final judgment is made or until further order of the court.

(2) RIGHT TO DEFEND; JURY TRIAL. Any person interested in the publication, production, sale, loan, exhibition or distribution of such matter may appear and file an answer on or before the return day named in said notice. If in such answer the right to trial by jury is claimed on the issue of the obscenity of said matter, such issue shall be tried to a jury. If no right to such trial is thus claimed, it shall be deemed waived, unless the court shall, for cause shown, on motion of an answering party, otherwise order.

(3) DEFAULT. If no person appears and answers within the time allowed, the court may then, without notice, upon motion of the plaintiff, if the court finds that the matter is obscene, make an adjudication against the matter that the same is obscene.

(4) SPEEDY HEARING; RULES OF EVIDENCE. If an answer is filed, the case shall be set down for a speedy hearing, but an adjudication of default and order shall first be entered against all persons who have not appeared and answered in the manner provided in sub. (3). If any person answering so demands, the trial shall not be adjourned for a period of longer than 72 hours beyond the opening of court on the day following the filing of his answer. At such hearing, subject to chs. 901 to 911, the court shall receive the testimony of experts and evidence as to the literary, cultural or educational character of said matter and as to the manner and form of its production, publication, advertisement, distribution and exhibition. The dominant effect of the whole of such matter shall be determinative of whether said matter is obscene.

(5) FINDINGS AND JUDGMENT. If, after such hearing, the court, or jury (unless its finding is contrary to law or to the great weight and clear preponderance of the evidence), determines that such matter is obscene, the court shall enter judgment that such matter is obscene. If it is so determined that such matter is not obscene, the court shall enter judgment dismissing the complaint, and a total of not more than $100 in costs, in addition to taxable disbursements, may be awarded to the persons defending such matter, which shall be paid from the county treasury. Any judgment under this subsection may be appealed to the supreme court pursuant to ch. 274 by any person adversely affected, and who is either interested in the publication, production, sale, loan, exhibition or distribution of said matter, or is the plaintiff district attorney.

(6) ADMISSIBILITY IN CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS. In any trial for a violation of s. 944.21 or 944.22, the proceeding under this section and the final judgment of the circuit court under sub. (3) or (5) or the interlocutory adjudication under sub. (1m), shall be admissible in evidence on the issue of the obscenity of said matter and on the issue of the defendant's knowledge that said matter is obscene; provided, that if the judgment of the court sought to be introduced in evidence is one holding the matter to be obscene, it shall not be admitted unless the defendant in said criminal action was served with notice of the action under this section, or appeared in it, or is later served with notice of the judgment of the court hereunder, and the criminal prosecution is based upon conduct by said defendant occurring more than 18 hours after such service or such appearance, whichever is earlier.

269.57 Inspection of documents and property; physical examination of claimant.

(1) The court, or a judge thereof, may, upon due notice and cause shown, order either party to give to the other, within a specified time, an inspection of property or inspection and copy or permission to take a copy of any books and documents in his possession or under his control containing evidence relating to the action or special proceeding and may require the deposit of the books or documents with the clerk and may require their production at the trial. If compliance with the order be refused, the court may exclude the paper from being given in evidence or punish the party refusing, or both.

(2) (a) The court or a presiding judge thereof may, upon due notice and cause shown, in any action brought to recover for personal injuries, order the person claiming damages for such injuries:

1. To submit to a physical examination by such physician or physicians as such court or a presiding judge may order and upon such terms as may be just, but no court or judge shall order or compel any person to undergo a physical examination by a physician to whom that person objects in writing submitted to such court or judge. Only one such objection to a specified physician shall be allowed a person in any action.

2. To give to the other party or any physician named in the order, within a specified time, an inspection of such X-ray photographs as have been taken in the course of the treatment of such party for the injuries for which damages are claimed, and inspection of hospital records and other written evidence concerning the injuries claimed and the treatment thereof.

(b) If compliance with the portion of said order directing inspection be refused, the court may exclude any of said photographs, papers and writings so refused inspection from being produced upon the trial or from being used in evidence by reference or otherwise on behalf of the party so refusing.

(3) No evidence obtained by an adverse party by a court-ordered physical examination or inspection under sub. (2) shall be admitted upon the trial or by reference or otherwise unless true copies of all reports, photographs, records, papers and writings made as a result of such examination or inspection and received by such adverse party have been delivered to the party claiming damages or his attorney not later than 15 days after the said reports, photographs, records, papers or writings from any such court-ordered physical examination are received by the said adverse party, provided that in an action for recovery of personal injuries, the party claiming damages shall in return deliver to the adverse party against whom the action is brought a true and correct copy of all reports of each physician who has examined or treated such person with respect to the injuries for which damages are claimed.

(4) Upon receipt of written authorization and consent signed by a person who has been the subject of medical care or treatment, or in case of the death of such person signed by his personal representative or by the beneficiary of an insurance policy on his life, the physician, surgeon or other person having custody of any medical or hospital reports, photographs, records, papers and writings concerning such care or treatment, shall forthwith permit the person designated in such authorization to inspect and copy such records. Any person having the custody of such records who refuses to comply with such authorization shall be liable to the person receiving such medical care and treatment for all reasonable and necessary costs of obtaining such copies and inspection and for attorney's fees not to exceed $50 plus costs.

(5) The provisions of sub. (4) shall not be applicable to state or county mental hospitals, or to state colony and training schools, or to community mental health clinics established pursuant to s. 51.36 [Stats. 1971].

History: 1971 c 109

Where a bill of particulars gave defendant sufficient information it was not an abuse of discretion to deny an inspection of books and records Greco, Inc. v. Franklin Roofing Supply, 46 W (2d) 118, 174 NW (2d) 253

An order to the effect that medical records be sent to the court so that he could determine which were relevant was improper in that the party seeking the information has to be allowed to see them and be able to lay a proper foundation for admission into evidence of unprivileged matter Wilkins v. Durand, 47 W (2d) 527, 177 NW (2d) 892

An order granting discovery and inspection which ordered a doctor to furnish a list of books he used in school and had in his library will be reversed where there is no showing of their materiality Shier v. Freedman, 49 W (2d) 41, 181 NW (2d) 400.

If an authorization to inspect hospital records does not reveal that the signer was a life insurance beneficiary or the personal representative of deceased, the records custodian can refuse inspection. A party cannot ask for an order that original hospital records be made a part of the court record, nor for the production of records of a nonparty hospital. Fanshaw v. Medical Protective Assn 52 W (2d) 234, 190 NW (2d) 155.

A motion for the deposit of documents, made 10 days before trial, may properly be denied where some of the documents were immaterial, no showing was made of a need for them, and the long delay in making the motion indicates a possible attempt to delay the trial Bank of Commerce v. Lesperance, 54 W (2d) 519, 196 NW (2d) 671.

It is within the discretion of the court to order a 2nd inspection of property where the 1st was not available because the trial was delayed because of illness of a party and because the inspecting expert left the state. Bauman v. Hoch, 54 W (2d) 662, 196 NW (2d) 660

It is discretionary whether to order that counsel be allowed to attend a physical examination. Grounds for the exercise of discretion discussed Whanger v. American Family Mut. Ins. Co. 58 W (2d) 461, 207 NW (2d) 74

269.59 Consolidation of actions. The circuit court may, upon notice, order certified to said court any civil action pending in any other court in the same county for the purpose of consolidation or consolidation for trial with any action pending in said circuit court, in any case where such consolidation or consolidation for trial would be proper if the actions were originally brought in said court. Sections 261.10 and 261.11 so far as applicable shall govern such change in the place of trial. The change shall be deemed complete and the action transmitted shall proceed as other actions in the circuit court, upon the filing of the papers in said court.

269.60 Borrowing court files regulated.

The clerk shall not permit any paper filed in his office to be taken therefrom unless upon written order of a judge of the court. The clerk shall take a written receipt for all papers so taken and preserve the same until such papers are returned. Papers so taken shall be returned at once upon request of the clerk or presiding judge, and no paper shall be kept longer than ten days. If any paper is not returned to the clerk within ten days the person retaining the paper shall not be permitted to take any other paper from the office of the clerk until such paper shall have been returned. All papers in causes on the calendar shall be returned to the clerk at least one day before the opening of the term, and no paper in any cause shall be taken from the courthouse during the trial of such cause except upon written order of the presiding judge.

269.65 Pretrial procedure. (1) In all contested civil actions and contested special proceedings under Titles XXV and XXVII, and except those under ch. 299, the court shall, unless waived by the parties with the approval of the court, and in all other civil actions and special proceedings the court may, direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (a) The simplification of the issues;
- (b) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (c) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (d) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (e) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;

(f) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

(2) When any action is taken at the conference, the court shall make an order which recites the amendments allowed to the pleadings, the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and any other action taken; and such order, when entered, shall control the subsequent course of the action, unless thereafter modified to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pretrial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided.

Where the parties were ordered to disclose the names of their expert witnesses, and at final pretrial the defendant's attorney stated he had none, the court should have entered an order prohibiting him from calling one. In fact the defendant had consulted an expert and had received a preliminary report but had not retained him until the day after the pretrial. Hardship on the plaintiff was minimized by allowing him to take the disposition of the expert during the trial. Fredrickson v Louisville Ladder Co. 52 W (2d) 776, 191 NW (2d) 193.

A court has inherent power to order a pretrial conference in a criminal case. State v Dickson, 53 W (2d) 532, 193 NW (2d) 17.

See note to 270.635, citing Village of Fontana-on-Geneva Lakev. Hoag, 57 W (2d) 209, 203 NW (2d) 680.

269.70 Conciliators. (1) A circuit judge of the circuit court of any county may appoint, and remove at any time, any retired or former circuit or county court judge to act, in matters referred to him by the judge, in conciliation matters and in pretrial procedure under s. 269.65. When a matter for conciliation is referred to him for such purpose, the conciliator shall have full authority to hear, determine and report findings to the court. Such conciliators may be appointed court commissioners as provided in s. 252.14 (2).

(2) The circuit judges of such county shall make rules, not inconsistent with law, governing procedure before and pertaining to such conciliators and the county board shall fix and provide for their compensation.

269.80 Settlements in behalf of minors; judgments. (1) COMPROMISE OR SETTLEMENT. A compromise or settlement of an action or proceeding to which a minor or mentally incompetent person is a party may be made by his general guardian, if he is represented by an attorney, or his guardian ad litem with the approval of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending.

(2) COMPROMISE OR SETTLEMENT WITHOUT ACTION. A cause of action in favor of or against a minor or mentally incompetent person may, without the commencement of an action thereon, be settled by his general guardian, if the guardian is represented by an attorney, with the approval of the court appointing the general guardian, or by his guardian ad litem with the approval of any court of record. An order approving a settlement or compromise under this subsection and directing the consummation thereof shall have the same force and effect as a judgment of the court.

(3) AMOUNTS NOT EXCEEDING $1,500. If the amount awarded to a minor by judgment or by an order of the court approving a compromise settlement of a claim or cause of action of said minor does not exceed $1,500 (exclusive of interest and costs and disbursements), and if there is no general guardian of the ward, the court may upon application by the guardian ad litem after judgment, or in the order approving settlement, fix and allow the expenses of the action, including attorney's fees and fees of guardian ad litem, authorize the payment of the total recovery to the clerk of the court, authorize and direct the guardian ad litem upon said payment to satisfy and discharge the judgment, or to execute releases to the parties entitled thereto and enter into a stipulation dismissing the action upon its merits. Said order shall also direct the clerk upon such payment to him to pay the costs and disbursements and expenses of the action and to dispose of the balance in one of the manners provided in s. 880.04 (2) as selected by the court.

Comment of judicial council, 1971: Provides that a compromise or settlement of an action, whether the action has been commenced or not, may be made by the general guardian, if he is represented by an attorney, or the guardian ad litem, with appropriate court approval. Present law limits this to the guardian ad litem. [Re Order effective July 1, 1971]
