AN ACT to amend 146.31 (2) of the statutes, relating to limiting liability for certain medical activities involving blood transfusions.

CHAPTER 75, Laws of 1975

AN ACT to amend 146.31 (2) of the statutes, relating to limiting liability for certain medical activities involving blood transfusions.
The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

146.31 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

146.31 (2) The procurement, processing, distribution or use of whole blood, plasma, blood products, blood derivatives and other human tissues such as corneas, bones or organs for the purpose of injecting, transfusing or transplanting any of them into the human body is declared to be, for all purposes, the rendition of a service by every person participating therein and, whether or not any remuneration is paid therefor, is declared not to be a sale of such whole blood, plasma, blood products, blood derivatives or other tissues, for any purpose, subsequent to August 25, 1965. No person involved in the procurement, processing, distribution or use of whole blood, plasma, blood products or blood derivatives for the purpose of injecting or transfusing any of them into the human body shall be liable for damages resulting from these activities except for his own negligence or willful misconduct.
