POINT OF ORDER

Representative Shabaz rose to the point of order that Assembly Bill 604 was not properly before the assembly because the language on page 12, line 11 of the substitute amendment required the bill to be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions pursuant to Wisconsin Statutes 13.52 (6). Representative Shabaz cited the definition of "proposal" in Assembly Rule 97 (61). Representative Opitz cited the ruling of the speaker on 1973 Assembly Bill 626 on February 19, 1974 (1973 Assembly Journal page 3542).

The speaker ruled as follows: "First of all, with respect to the precedent of last session, the chair recalls Assembly Bill 626 of last session as a totally different proposal than the proposal before us. The only two things that were the same was the fact that it dealt with wetlands, but the treatment and specifically the tax treatment was totally different between the two bills. Accordingly, the question that has now been raised is not decided by the precedent of what was ruled on Assembly Bill 626 because the character of the measures was totally different. We have to look at what the requirements of the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions statute provides and its intent. The intent of sec. 13.52 is to make sure that no new tax exemptions are created without some analysis being made of the impact of those proposals. The chair will assume for purposes of argument that there is no difference between an amendment and the original proposal. Substitute amendment 2 on page 12 in the section in question, talks about the deed of easement, where a deed of easement has been granted; thereafter the property to be assessed for its value as open space and so on. The provisions of section 8 that deal with taxation, the chair is reliably informed, simply restate what is the present law: namely, that where as is provided specifically in sec 70.32 which is cited in that amendment where there has been a deed of easement the property is valued omitting the value of that easement or deducting the value of that easement. A contribution of that kind, a dedication for public purposes, is presently deductible from the income tax under our existing law. In other words, the language contained in the section complained of by the gentleman from the 83rd is simply a restatement of what the law would be without the language there if this bill is adopted. Accordingly, since the intent of section 13.52 is to filter out what amounts to changes in our tax law and this does not change existing tax law, the point of order is not well taken."

LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU CORRECTIONS

Senate amendment 9 to Assembly Bill 469

On line 4, substitute "another" for "anotehr".

Assembly substitute amendment 2 to Assembly Bill 1040

1. On page 1, line 1, delete "and 121.20" and substitute ", 121.20 and 121.91 (5) (c)".

2. On page 1, line 2, delete ", 121.85 and 121.91 (5) (c)" and substitute "and 121.85".

Engrossed Senate Bill 755

1. On page 18, delete lines 9 to 13. These appropriation schedule lines should have been deleted by senate amendment 82 together with the deletion of the corresponding statutory language by item 17 of that amendment, and the increase of the existing audit bureau appropriation, shown on page 106, line 6, of the engrossed bill, by items 65 and 66 of senate amendment 82.

2. On page 28, line 21, substitute "$380,000,000" for "$308,000,000" as correctly shown in item 18 of senate amendment 82.
