RULING OF THE CHAIR

On Thursday, March 16, Senator Sensenbrenner raised the point of order that Senate Bill 400 created a tax exemption and was therefore required to be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions pursuant to s.13.52(6) of the statutes. The chair took the point of order under advisement.

Section 13.52(6) provides that "any proposal which...creates any new statute relating to the exemption of any property or person from any state or local taxes or special assessments...shall at once be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions..."

Senate Bill 400 provides, in part, that counties may provide law enforcement services to localities within the county and may charge the localities for services provided.

The bill provides that for cities and villages "such expenses shall be certified, returned and paid as are other county charges."

The bill further provides that for unincorporated areas "the county board may levy a tax upon all real and personal property in any unincorporated area...to reimburse the county for reasonable expenses incurred in providing such services..."

Senator Sensenbrenner contends that because Senate Bill 400 authorizes counties to levy a direct tax on unincorporated areas but does not authorize such a tax on incorporated areas that a tax exemption has thereby been created.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [March 27, 1978]

It is the chair's opinion that before there can be an exemption there must first be taxation. Senate Bill 400 does not exempt incorporated areas from a county tax. Rather, it is silent on the matter with the result that incorporated areas are not subject to such a tax in the first place.

Legislation which creates a tax and applies it to a certain class of people or property cannot properly be said to have simultaneously created an exemption for all other people or property not taxed.

Therefore, Senate Bill 400 does not create a tax exemption in the sense contemplated by s.13.52(6) and the point of order raised by Sensenbrenner is not well taken.

Prior to raising a point of order Senator Sensenbrenner questioned whether Senate Bill 400 would meet the constitutional requirement that "The rule of taxation shall be uniform..." It is not within the jurisdiction of the chair to rule on questions of constitutionality. Therefore the chair remains silent on the matter.

FRED A. RISSER

President Pro Tempore

By request of Senator Bablitch, with unanimous consent, Senate Bill 400 was placed at the foot of the calendar.
