

CHAPTER 802

PLEADINGS, MOTIONS AND PRETRIAL PRACTICE

802.01	Pleadings allowed; form of motions.	802.07	Counterclaim and cross-claim.
802.02	General rules of pleading.	802.08	Summary judgment.
802.03	Pleading special matters.	802.09	Amended and supplemental pleadings.
802.04	Form of pleadings.	802.10	Calendar practice.
802.05	Signing of pleadings.	802.11	Pretrial conference.
802.06	Defenses and objection; when and how presented; by pleading or motion; motion for judgment on the pleadings.

802.01 Pleadings allowed; form of motions. (1) PLEADINGS. There shall be a complaint and an answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under s. 803.05, and a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a further pleading to a reply or to any answer and a party who contests a claim for contribution shall answer or reply to the pleading in which the claim is asserted.

(2) MOTIONS. (a) How made. An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion. Unless specifically authorized by statute, orders to show cause shall not be used.

(b) Supporting papers. Copies of all records and papers upon which a motion is founded, except those which have been previously filed or served in the same action or proceeding, shall be served with the notice of motion and shall be plainly referred to therein. Papers already filed or served shall be referred to as papers theretofore filed or served in the action. The moving party may be allowed to present upon the hearing, records, affidavits or other papers, but only upon condition that opposing counsel be given reasonable time in which to meet such additional proofs should request therefor be made.

(c) Recitals in orders. All orders, unless they otherwise provide, shall be deemed to be based on the records and papers used on the motion and the proceedings theretofore had and shall recite the nature of the motion, the appearances, the dates on which the motion was heard and decided, and the order signed. No other formal recitals are necessary.

(d) Formal requirements. The rules applicable to captions, signing and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers in an action, except that affidavits in support of a motion need not be separately captioned if served and filed with the motion.

(e) When deemed made. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the statutes governing procedure in civil actions and special proceedings, a motion which requires notice under s. 801.15 (4) shall be deemed made when it is served with its notice of motion.

(3) DEMURRERS AND PLEAS ABOLISHED. Demurrers and pleas shall not be used.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 614.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub. (1) changes the rule in s. 263.20 (1) and in s. 263.15 (3) that a party need not respond to a pleading seeking only contribution of him. The demurrer is abolished both by its non-inclusion in the list of permissible pleadings in sub. (1) and by express declaration in sub. (3). The functional equivalents of the demurrer are the motion to dismiss under s. 802.06 (2), the motion to strike an inadequate defense under s. 802.06 (6), and the motion for judgment on the pleadings under s. 802.06 (3).

Sub. (2) (a) abolishes the order to show cause, except where specific statutory authorization for its use exists. Under these proposed statutes, a party with a legitimate reason for bringing a motion on for hearing sooner than 5 days after notice may move the court under s. 801.15 (4), for cause and ex parte, for an order shortening the notice period.

Sub. (2) (b) is derived from s. 269.32 (2). [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

802.02 General rules of pleading. (1) CLAIMS FOR RELIEF. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (a) a short and plain statement of the claim, identifying the transaction, occurrence or event or series of transactions, occurrences, or events out of which the claim arises and showing that the pleader is entitled to relief and (b) a demand for judgment for the relief to which the pleader deems to be entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(2) DEFENSES; FORM OF DENIALS. A party shall state in short and plain terms the defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If the party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the party shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. The pleader shall make the denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, but if a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder.

(3) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively any matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense including but not limited to the following: accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of a condition subsequent, failure or want of consideration, failure to mitigate damages, fraud, illegality, immunity, incompetence, injury by fellow servants, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, superseding cause, and waiver. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court, if justice so requires, shall permit amendment of the pleading to conform to a proper designation. If an affirmative defense permitted to be raised by motion under s. 802.06 (2) is so raised, it need not be set forth in a subsequent pleading.

(4) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO DENY. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the fact, nature and extent of injury and damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(5) PLEADINGS TO BE CONCISE AND DIRECT; CONSISTENCY. (a) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(b) A party may set forth 2 or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one claim or defense or in separate claims or defenses. When 2 or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or equitable grounds. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in s. 802.05.

(6) CONSTRUCTION OF PLEADINGS. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 616; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix.

Cross References: For effect of demand for judgment or want of such demand in the complaint in case of judgment by default, see 806.01 (1) (c).

As to the effect of not denying an allegation in the complaint of corporate or partnership existence, see 891.29 and 891.31.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub. (1) does away with the "ultimate fact" pleading rule of s. 263.03 and adopts the pleading philosophy of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Under that philosophy the complaint must still show a justifiable claim for relief; it must still contain a statement of the general factual circumstances in support of the claim presented. However, in general, it may be said that less particularity is required under this statute than is required under s. 263.03. Hence, the motion to make more definite will be less frequently granted. Special rules of pleading for real property actions are contained in ss. 841.02, 842.05, 843.03 and 844.16.

The list of affirmative defenses in sub. (3) is not exhaustive. If a pleader is in doubt about whether to plead a defense affirmatively, he should, of course, resolve the doubt in favor of affirmative pleading. The last sentence in sub. (3) is designed to make clear the fact that an affirmative defense properly made by motion under s. 802.06 (2) is put in issue even though it is not also raised in a pleading.

Sub. (4) reverses the rule in Seitz vs. Seitz, 35 Wis. 2d 282, 151 N.W. 2d 86 (1967).

Sub. (5) liberalizes the former law somewhat insofar as it permits the pleading of inconsistent defenses regardless of whether the defenses are repugnant. Cf. Gilman v. Brown, 115 Wis. 1, 91 N.W. 227 (1902). However, this subsection is expressly subject to s. 802.05's requirement of good faith in pleading. Hence, there could be cases even under this liberalized rule where inconsistent defenses would be subject to a motion to strike. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1977: Sub. (1) is amended to allow a pleading setting forth a claim for relief under the Rules of Civil Procedure to contain a short and plain statement of any series of transactions, occurrences, or events under which a claim for relief arose. This modification will allow a pleader in a consumer protection or anti-trust case, for example, to plead a pattern of business transactions, occurrences or events leading to a claim of relief rather than having to specifically plead each and every transaction, occurrence or event when the complaint is based on a pattern or course of business conduct involving either a substantial span of time or multiple and continuous transactions and events. The change is consistent with Rule 8 (a) (2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. [Re Order effective July 1, 1978]

See note to 802.07, citing S & M Rotogravure Service, Inc. v. Baer, 77 W (2d) 454, 252 NW (2d) 913.

Aetna Casualty & Surety Co.* 80 W (2d) 376, 259 NW (2d) 85.

802.03 Pleading special matters. (1) CAPACITY. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party. If a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, the party shall do so by specific negative averment which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge, or by motion under s. 802.06 (2).

(2) FRAUD, MISTAKE AND CONDITION OF MIND. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(3) CONDITIONS PRECEDENT. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent in a contract, it shall not be necessary to state the facts showing such performance or occurrence, but it may be stated generally that the party duly performed all the conditions on his or her part or that the conditions have otherwise occurred or both. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity. If the averment of performance or occurrence is controverted, the party pleading performance or occurrence shall be bound to establish on the trial the facts showing such performance or occurrence.

(4) OFFICIAL DOCUMENT OR ACT. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with the law.

(5) JUDGMENT. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(6) LIBEL OR SLANDER. In an action for libel or slander, the particular words complained of shall be set forth in the complaint, but their publication and their application to the plaintiff may be stated generally.

(7) SALES OF GOODS, ETC. In an action involving the sale and delivery of goods or the performing of labor or services, or the furnishing of materials, the plaintiff may set forth and number in the complaint the items of the plaintiff's claim and the reasonable value or agreed price of each. The defendant by the answer shall indicate specifically those items defendant disputes and whether in respect to delivery or performance, reasonable value or agreed price. If the plaintiff does not so plead the items of the claim, the plaintiff shall deliver to the defendant, within 10 days after service of a demand therefor in writing, a statement of the items of the plaintiff's claim and the reasonable value or agreed price of each.

(8) TIME AND PLACE. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 619; 1975 c. 218

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub. (1) makes lack of capacity a matter of affirmative defense on the theory that, since capacity is rarely an issue, it would be wasteful to require detailed pleading of capacity generally. The defense may be raised either by an appropriate pleading or by motion under s. 802.06 (2).

Sub. (2) makes no substantial change in the law.

Sub. (3) is substantially the same as s. 263.34. It expressly includes within its scope conditions precedent which are not "performed" but simply "occur" as, for example, by Act of God.

Sub. (4) obviates the necessity of a party's setting forth in detail in his pleading the circumstances surrounding the execution of an official document or the doing of an official act.

Sub. (5) is substantially the same as s. 263.33.

Sub. (6) is based on s. 3016 (a) of New York's Civil Practice Law and Rules and replaces ss. 263.37-263.38.

Sub. (7) is based on s. 3016 (f) of New York's Civil Practice Law and Rules and replaces s. 263.32.

Sub. (8) is identical to Federal Rule 9 (f). [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

"American rule" of absolute judicial immunity from liability for libel or slander discussed. Converters Equip Corp v. Condes Corp. 80 W (2d) 257, 258 NW (2d) 712.

802.04 Form of pleadings. (1) CAPTION. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the venue, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation as in s. 802.01 (1). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, indicating the representative capacity, if any, in which they sue or are sued and, in actions by or against a corporation, the corporate existence and its domestic or foreign status shall be indicated. In pleadings other than the complaint, it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(2) PARAGRAPHS; SEPARATE STATEMENTS. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate claim or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth. A counterclaim must be pleaded as such and the answer must demand the judgment to which the defendant supposes to be entitled upon the counterclaim.

(3) ADOPTION BY REFERENCE; EXHIBITS. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 621; 1975 c. 218.

802.05 Signing of pleadings. Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall contain the name and address of the attorney and the name of the attorney's law firm, if any, and shall be subscribed with the handwritten signature of at least one attorney of record in the individual's name. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall subscribe the pleading with the party's handwritten signature and state his or her address. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certificate that the attorney has read the pleading; that to the best of the attorney's knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this section, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a wilful violation of this section an attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 622; 1975 c. 218.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Verification is made unnecessary in all but special circumstances such as requests to perpetuate testimony by deposition before action under s. 804.02. The reference to verification required by rule means by rule of the Supreme Court promulgated pursuant to s. 251.18. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

802.06 Defenses and objection; when and how presented; by pleading or motion; motion for judgment on the pleadings. (1)

WHEN PRESENTED. A defendant shall serve an answer within 20 days after the service of the complaint upon the defendant. If a guardian ad litem is appointed for a defendant, the guardian ad litem shall have 20 days after appointment to serve the answer. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against the party shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon the party. The plaintiff shall serve a reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer. The state or an agency of the state or an officer or employe of the state in an action brought within the purview of ss. 895.45 and 895.46 shall serve an answer to the complaint or to a cross-claim or a reply to a counterclaim within 45 days after service of the pleading in which the claim is asserted. If any pleading is ordered by the court, it shall be served within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under sub. (2) alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after notice of the court's action; or if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

(2) HOW PRESENTED. Every defense, in law or fact, except the defense of improper venue, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or 3rd party claim shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (a) lack of capacity to sue or be sued, (b) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (c) lack of jurisdiction over the person or res, (d) insufficiency of summons or process, (e) untimeliness or insufficiency of service of summons or process, (f) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (g) failure to join a party under s. 803.03, (h) res judicata, (i) statute of limitations, (j) another action pending between the same parties for the same cause. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. Objection to venue shall be made in accordance with s. 801.53. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, the adverse party may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If on a motion asserting the defense described in (f) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, or on a motion asserting the defenses described in (h) or (i), matters outside of the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in s. 802.08, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by s. 802.08.

(3) JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS. After issue is joined between all parties but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in s. 802.08, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such motion by s. 802.08.

(4) PRELIMINARY HEARINGS. The defenses specifically listed in sub. (2), whether made in a pleading or by motion, the motion for judgment under sub. (3) and the motion to strike under sub. (6) shall be heard and determined before trial on motion of any party, unless the judge to whom the case has been assigned orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial. The hearing on the defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person or res shall be conducted in accordance with s. 801.08.

(5) MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, the party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(6) MOTION TO STRIKE. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, scandalous or indecent matter.

(7) CONSOLIDATION OF DEFENSES IN MOTIONS. A party who makes a motion under this section may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to the party. If a party makes a motion under this section but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to the party which this section permits to be raised by motion, the party shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in sub. (8) (b) through (d) on any of the grounds there stated.

(8) WAIVER OR PRESERVATION OF CERTAIN DEFENSES. (a) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person or the res, insufficiency of process, untimeliness or insufficiency of service of process or another action pending between the same parties for the same cause is waived only 1) if it is omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in sub. (7), or 2) if it is neither made by motion under this section nor included in a responsive pleading.

(b) A defense of failure to join a party indispensable under s. 803.03 or of res judicata may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under s. 802.01 (1), or by motion before entry of the final pretrial conference order. A defense of statute of limitations, failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under s. 802.01 (1), or by a motion for judgment on the pleadings, or otherwise by motion within the time limits established in the scheduling order under s. 802.10 (3) (b).

(c) If it appears by motion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

(d) A defense of lack of capacity may be raised within the time permitted under s. 803.01.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 623; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 73 W (2d) xxxi; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix; 1977 c. 260; 1977 c. 447 ss. 196, 210.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: The provisions of sub. (1) correspond generally with the practice under the present statutes except for the additional time allowed to the state, its officers, and agencies to serve responsive pleadings.

Sub. (2) makes major changes in the present practice. All defenses, whether of law or fact, with the exception of the defenses lettered (a) through (j) and the defense of improper venue, must be raised by responsive pleading, if a responsive pleading is required. The raising of jurisdictional defenses is controlled by this subsection and s. 801.08 which, together, supplant the special appearance provisions of s. 262.16 (2). The demurrer for failure to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action under s. 263.06 (6) is replaced by the motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted.

Sub. (3) differs from s. 263.227 in that it does not contain a specific time limit within which a motion for judgment on the pleadings must be made. It is clear, however, that the motion must be made "within such time as not to delay the trial".

Sub. (6) is quite similar to ss. 263.42 and 263.44. Section 263.43, however, provides that an attorney who signs a pleading containing irrelevant, redundant or scandalous matter may be ordered to pay costs on a motion to strike. There is no sanction provided in this subsection. However, in appropriate circumstances, sanctions may be available under s. 802.05.

Sub. (7), read with sub. (2), is quite similar to the practice under ss. 263.06, 263.11 and 263.12. The new statute, however, contains a broader range of defenses that must be included in the consolidated motion. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1976: Subs. (2) (e) and (8) make clear that, unless waived, a motion can be made to claim as a defense lack of timely service within the 60 day period that is required by s. 801.02 to properly commence an action. See also s. 893.39. Defenses under sub. (8) cannot be raised by an amendment to a responsive pleading permitted by s. 802.09 (1) [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1977]

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1977: Sub. (1) which governs when defenses and objections are presented, has been amended to delete references to the use of the scheduling conference under s. 802.10 (1) as the use of such a scheduling procedure is now discretionary rather than mandatory. The time periods under s. 802.06 are still subject to modification through the use of amended and supplemental pleadings under s. 802.09, the new calendaring practice under s. 802.10, and the pretrial conference under s. 802.11. [Re Order effective July 1, 1978]

802.07 Counterclaim and cross-claim.

(1) COUNTERCLAIM. A defendant may counterclaim any claim which the defendant has against a plaintiff, upon which a judgment may be had in the action. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(2) COUNTERCLAIM MATURING OR ACQUIRED AFTER PLEADING. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving the pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(3) CROSS-CLAIM. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party if the cross-claim is based on the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences as is the claim in the original action or as is a counterclaim therein, or if the cross-claim relates to any property that is involved in the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(4) JOINDER OF ADDITIONAL PARTIES. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with ss. 803.03 to 803.05.

(5) SEPARATE TRIALS; SEPARATE JUDGMENTS. If the court orders separate trials as provided in s. 805.05 (2), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with s. 806.01 (2) when the court has jurisdiction so to do, even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

(6) CONTRIBUTION. Any party who seeks contribution shall pray for contribution in his complaint, answer or reply, or in a counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party complaint; the party from whom contribution is sought shall file and serve an appropriate responsive pleading.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 628; 1975 c. 218.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: The first sentence of sub. (1) is identical to s. 263.14 (1). In connection with counterclaims, it should be noted that the setoff rules found in ss. 895.07 through 895.13 are recommended for repeal. If in a given case a set-off raised by counterclaim should not be allowed for reasons of equity or otherwise, the court may dismiss the counterclaim, order a separate trial, or draw its judgment in such a manner as to preclude the set-off. See Weslowski v. Erickson, 5 Wis. 2d 335, 92 N.W. 2d 898 (1958).

The second sentence in sub. (1) is similar in effect to ss. 263.14 (1) and 270.54.

Sub. (2) changes the law under s. 263.14 (3) insofar as it permits the counterclaim of a claim assigned to a defendant after commencement of action, provided the court permits it.

Sub. (3) is generally similar to s. 263.15, except for the omission of the words "subject matter". The words were omitted to indicate that the provisions of this section were not intended to be interpreted restrictively as are the provisions of its predecessor in Liebhauser v. Milwaukee Electric Ry. & Light Co., 180 Wis. 468, 193 N.W. 522, 43 A.L.R. 870, (1923).

Sub. (4) corresponds with s. 260.19. The right to bring in additional parties is subject to ss. 803.03, 803.04 and 803.05.

Sub. (6) changes the rule under ss. 263.15 (3) and 263.20 (1) that no responsive pleading need be made to a pleading seeking only contribution. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

Counterclaim based on contract must aver either satisfaction of any contractual condition precedent or an excuse, such as waiver, for not satisfying it. S & M Rotogravure Service, Inc. v. Baer, 77 W (2d) 454, 252 NW (2d) 913.

802.08 Summary judgment. (1) AVAILABILITY. A party may, within 8 months of the filing of a summons and complaint or within the time set in a scheduling order under s. 802.10, move for summary judgment on any claim, counter-claim, cross-claim, or 3rd party claim which is asserted by or against the party. Amendment of pleadings is allowed as in cases where objection or defense is made by motion to dismiss.

(2) MOTION. The motion shall be served at least 20 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(3) SUPPORTING PAPERS. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge and shall set forth such evidentiary facts as would be admissible in evidence. Copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto and served therewith, if not already of record. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this section, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the pleadings but the adverse party's response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this section, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the adverse party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against such party.

(4) WHEN AFFIDAVITS UNAVAILABLE. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the court may refuse the motion for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(5) AFFIDAVITS MADE IN BAD FAITH. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this section is presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused the other party to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(6) JUDGMENT FOR OPPONENT. If it shall appear to the court that the party against whom a motion for summary judgment is asserted is entitled to a summary judgment, the summary judgment may be awarded to such party even though the party has not moved therefor.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 630; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub. (1) replaces s. 270.635 (1). It gives the court latitude in setting time limits within which motions for summary judgment must be made, replacing the 40 day rule which is inadequate in complicated cases.

Sub. (2) is virtually identical to Federal Rule 56 (c) except that the period between the time service of the motion and the time of hearing is 20 days rather than the 10 days provided in Rule 56 (c).

Sub. (3) is virtually identical to Federal Rule 56 (e) except that: (1) there is no requirement that copies of papers referred to in an affidavit be served with the motion if the papers are already of record, and (2) there is no requirement that copies of papers that are served be sworn or certified.

Sub. (4) is identical to Federal Rule 56 (f).

Sub. (5) is identical to Federal Rule 56 (g) except that it does not include contempt proceedings as an available sanction for affidavits made in bad faith.

Sub. (6) is based on s. 270.635 (3). [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976]

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1977: Sub. (1) is revised to allow a party at any time within 8 months after the summons and complaint are filed or the time established in a scheduling order under s. 802.10 to move for a summary judgment. The 8-month time period has been created as the old procedure requiring a party to move for summary judgment not later than the time provided under s. 802.10 can no longer apply in most cases as the use of such a scheduling order is now completely discretionary with the trial judge. The 8-month time period is subject to enlargement under s. 801.15 (2) (a). [Re Order effective July 1, 1978]

Respondents in appeals from orders denying summary judgment motion are invited to move for summary affirmation under 251.71, 1973 stats. [see 809.21]. Am. Orthodontics Corp. v. G. & H. Ins. 77 W (2d) 337, 253 NW (2d) 82.

Where plaintiff had signed release, and where another illness subsequently developed, question of whether plaintiff consciously intended to disregard possibility that known condition could become aggravated was question of fact not to be determined on summary judgment. Krezinski v. Hay, 77 W (2d) 569, 253 NW (2d) 522.

Summary judgment procedure is not authorized in proceedings for judicial review under ch. 227. Wis. Environmental Decade v. Public Service Comm. 79 W (2d) 161, 255 NW (2d) 917.

Where insurance policy unambiguously excluded coverage relating to warranties, factual question whether implied warranties were made was immaterial and trial court abused discretion in denying insurer's summary judgment motion. Jones v. Sears Roebuck & Co. 80 W (2d) 321, 259 NW (2d) 70.

802.09 Amended and supplemental pleadings. (1) AMENDMENTS. A party may amend the party's pleading once as a matter of course at any time within 6 months after the summons and complaint are filed or within the time set in a scheduling order under s. 802.10. Otherwise a party may amend the pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given at any stage of the action when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within 20 days after service of the amended pleading unless (a) the court otherwise orders or (b) no responsive pleading is required or permitted under s. 802.01 (1).

(2) AMENDMENTS TO CONFORM TO THE EVIDENCE. If issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure to so amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice such party in maintaining the action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(3) RELATION BACK OF AMENDMENTS. If the claim asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the transaction, occurrence, or event set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the filing of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against such party, the party to be brought in by amendment has received such notice of the institution of the action that he or she will not be prejudiced in maintaining a defense on the merits, and knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against such party.

(4) SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS. Upon motion of a party the court may, upon such terms as are just, permit the party to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 632; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub (1) generally corresponds with ss. 263.45 and 269.44 except that the timing of amendments has been tied into the s. 802.10 (1) scheduling order rather than the service of the original pleading as in s. 263.45.

Sub. (2) conforms with the case law that has developed under the former s. 269.44.

Sub. (3) overturns the rule of Meinshausen v. A. Gettleman Brewing Co., 133 Wis. 95, 113 N.W. 408 (1907), and Baker v. Tormey, 209 Wis. 627, 245 N.W. 652 (1932). Sub. (3) is an exception to s. 893.48.

Sub. (4) is similar to s. 263.47, except that matters of which the pleader was ignorant at the time of his original pleading should be alleged by an amended pleading rather than by a supplemental pleading. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976].

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1977: Sub (1) has been amended to allow a party to amend pleadings once as a matter of course at any time within 6 months of the time the summons and complaint are filed or within a time established in a scheduling order under s. 802.10. The 6-month time period has been established as the previous procedure stating that a party is allowed to amend pleadings once as a matter of course at any time prior to the entry of a scheduling order is no longer applicable in most cases. The use of a scheduling order is now discretionary under s. 802.10.

Sub. (1) also clarifies that leave of the court may be given at any stage of the action for amendment of pleadings when justice requires.

Sub. (3) has been amended to adopt language consistent with revised s. 802.02 (1). See note following s. 802.02 (1). [Re Order effective July 1, 1978].

Amendment should not be allowed 8 years after accident and 5 years beyond statute of limitations. Drehmel v. Radandt, 75 W (2d) 223, 249 NW (2d) 274.

Trial court abused discretion in prohibiting amendment to pleading on 2nd day of trial to plead quantum meruit as alternative to substantial performance of contract. Tri-State Home Improvement Co. v. Mansavage, 77 W (2d) 648, 253 NW (2d) 474.

802.10 Calendar practice. (1) This section applies to all actions and special proceedings except appeals taken to circuit court, actions seeking writs of certiorari, habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition and quo warranto, actions in which all defendants are in default, provisional remedies, and actions under s. 66.12, chs. 48, 52, 102, 108, 227, 247, 288, 299, 348, 812, and proceedings under Title XLII-B.

(2) Unless excepted under sub. (1), all actions and special proceedings are deemed ready for trial one year after the summons and complaint are filed. Within 60 days after the expiration of one year, the court shall by order set dates for a pretrial conference and for trial. At any time before the expiration of one year from the filing of the summons and complaint, on motion of a party for cause shown, or upon stipulation of the parties, the court may by order set dates for a pretrial conference and for trial. Any order made under this section may on the court's own motion, or upon motion of a party for cause shown, be amended.

(3) (a) Scheduling conference. The court may on its own motion or upon motion of a party, in lieu of the provisions of sub. (2), not earlier than 90 days after the summons and complaint are filed call a scheduling conference upon at least 10 days written notice by mail to all attorneys of record and to all parties who have appeared of record and are not represented by counsel. The conference shall be held at a place designated by the judge and shall be attended by the judge and at least one attorney of record for each party to the action who is represented by counsel. Any party who has appeared and who is not represented by counsel shall attend personally, or by its officer or agent. After consultation, the judge shall set:

1. The time at which a motion for default judgment may be heard;

2. The times within which discovery must be completed;

3. The time, prior to the pretrial conference, within which impleader shall be completed and within which pleadings may be amended;

4. A time at or prior to the pretrial conference within which motions before trial shall be served and heard;

5. A date for the pretrial conference and a date for trial as soon as practicable after the pretrial conference.

(b) Scheduling order. The judge shall issue a written order which recites the schedules established. Such order when entered shall control the course of the action, unless modified as herein provided. If at any time it appears that such schedules cannot reasonably be met, the judge may amend the order upon timely motion of any party. Whenever the judge shall determine that he cannot reasonably meet the pretrial date or trial date established, he may amend the order on his own motion.

(c) Use of telephone and mail; standard order. In lieu of a scheduling conference under par. (a), the judge may obtain scheduling information by telephone, mail or otherwise and enter a scheduling order on the basis of the information so obtained or may serve upon the parties a standard scheduling order. Such orders are subject to amendment as provided in sub. (2). If a standard scheduling order is entered, it shall be entered within 150 days after commencement of the action.

(d) Sanctions. Violation of a scheduling order is subject to s. 805.03.

(4) This section shall become effective as to all actions and special proceedings pending on or after July 1, 1978, provided that any scheduling order entered prior to July 1, 1978 shall remain in effect.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 634; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1977: Section 802.10 governs calendar practice for most actions or special proceedings in the courts of Wisconsin. Prior calendaring procedures have been substantially modified. The section applies to all actions and special proceedings except those actions and proceedings to which the section is specifically made not applicable as enumerated in sub. (1).

Sub. (2) provides that unless exempted under sub. (1), all actions and special proceedings are deemed to be ready for trial one year after the summons and complaint are filed. The trial court will within 60 days after the expiration of the one-year period after the summons and complaint are filed set dates for both a pretrial conference and a trial. The court may set dates for a pretrial conference and a trial at a time earlier than 60 days after the expiration of one year after the filing of the summons and complaint if upon either a motion of a party for cause shown or upon stipulation of all parties the court is asked to establish an earlier pretrial and trial date. Any order made by a court under sub. (2) establishing dates for a pretrial conference and a trial may on the court's own motion or upon motion of a party for cause shown be modified.

Sub. (3) allows a court, in lieu of the provisions of sub. (2), to not earlier than 90 days after the summons and complaint are filed on its own motion or upon motion of a party call a scheduling conference. The manner in which the scheduling conference is conducted and the items set at the conference remain unchanged from prior law. The use of a standard scheduling order in sub. (3) (c) also remains unchanged from prior law.

Sub. (4) requires that the new calendaring practice established by s. 802.10 become effective to all actions and special proceedings pending on or after July 1, 1978. Any scheduling order entered prior to that date shall remain in effect. [Re Order effective July 1, 1978]

802.11 Pretrial conference. (1) SCOPE. In all contested civil actions and contested special proceedings except those under chs. 48, 52, 288, 299 and 345, the judge shall, unless waived by the parties with the approval of the judge, and in all other civil actions and special proceedings the judge may, direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before the judge for a pretrial conference to determine whether an order should be entered on any or all of the following matters:

- (a) Definition and simplification of the issues of fact and law;
- (b) Necessity or desirability of amendment to the pleadings;
- (c) Stipulations of fact and agreements concerning the identity of or authenticity of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (d) Limitation of the number of expert witnesses and the exchange of the names of expert witnesses;
- (e) Whether issues shall be tried by court or jury;
- (f) Advisability of preliminary reference of issues for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;
- (g) Number of jurors to be impaneled, voir dire examination, and the number of strikes to be allowed;
- (h) Order of proof and order of argument;
- (i) Separation or consolidation of claims for trial;
- (j) Jury views and the costs thereof;
- (k) Disclosure of insurance policy limits;
- (l) Filing and exchanging of trial briefs; and

(m) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

(2) TIME; PARTICIPANTS. The date and time for the pretrial conference shall be set in the scheduling order as provided in 802.10 (3) (b). At least one attorney planning to take part in the trial shall appear for each of the parties and participate in the pretrial conference. Attorneys appearing at the conference must have authority to enter stipulations.

(3) ADDITIONAL CONFERENCES. If necessary or advisable, the judge may adjourn the pretrial conference from time to time or may order an additional pretrial conference.

(4) PRETRIAL ORDER. The judge shall make an order which recites the action taken with respect to the matters described in sub. (1) and which sets or confirms the final trial date. The order when entered shall control the subsequent course of action, unless modified thereafter on motion of a party or the court for good cause. If for any reason, the action is not tried on the date set in the scheduling order or the pretrial order, the judge shall, within 30 days after the date set in the scheduling order or pretrial order, set another date for trial on the earliest available trial date.

(5) SANCTIONS. If without just excuse or because of failure to give reasonable attention to the matter, no appearance is made on behalf of a party at a pretrial conference, or if an attorney is grossly unprepared to participate in the conference, the judge may, in his sound discretion:

- (a) Reschedule the conference and order the payment by the delinquent attorney or, when just, by the party the attorney represents of the reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to the aggrieved party;
- (b) Conduct the conference and enter the pretrial order without participation by the delinquent attorney;
- (c) Order dismissal or entry of a default judgment.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 634; 1975 c. 218; Sup. Ct. Order, 82 W (2d) ix; 1977 c. 447 s. 210.

Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1974: Sub. (1) is more explicit than s. 269.65 in listing the matters which should be considered at the pretrial conference. The expanded list should not be considered exhaustive.

Subs. (2) and (5) are designed to lessen the problem of unprepared "participants" at a pretrial conference.

The last sentence of sub. (4) is designed to maintain to the extent possible the reliability of the original trial date. [Re Order effective Jan. 1, 1976, as affected by Order effective July 1, 1978]

See note to 805.15, citing Karl v. Employers Ins. of Wausau, 78 W (2d) 284, 254 NW (2d) 255.

Failure of party to seek modification of pretrial stipulations does not constitute waiver of right to challenge trial court's construction of the stipulations. Milw. & Sub. Trans. v. Milw. County, 82 W (2d) 420, 263 NW (2d) 503.
