GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE

December 7, 1979

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 275 without my signature.

I have no quarrel with substance of the bill. There is included, however, an administrative rule review procedure separate from the one enacted in Chapter 34 over my veto. Because I believe this state should have one consistent rule review procedure, I have vetoed this bill.

Since there appears to be no urgency to the substance of this bill, the legislature has sufficient time to deal with this issue again in the next session.

Respectfully submitted,
LEE SHERMAN DREYFUS
Governor

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE

December 7, 1979

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 312 without my approval.

The bill is designed to address a potentially serious problem of mosquito control by allowing counties to join together to form mosquito control districts.

I recognize the problem, particularly in the Mississippi River Area. My objection relates only to the mechanism. As a basic principle, problems should be dealt with within the regular governmental structure. Special purpose districts should be kept to a minimum because they confuse lines of responsibility for people and remove certain issues from the normal scrutiny of the political process.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [December 12, 1979]

This proposal sets up a commission at county option, details a funding formula, and lists extensive powers and duties. It effectively creates a super governmental structure overlaying counties on a regional level.

Counties currently have authority to enter into cooperative agreements with other counties, and with towns or municipalities to the extent of their power. If counties do not now have the authority to address the health and safety concerns posed by the lack of effective mosquito control, I believe the better approach is to simply give counties that authority, then let counties decide how to deal with it if they choose to do so.

The Legislature has sufficient time to deal with this question in the next session.

Respectfully submitted,
LEE SHERMAN DREYFUS
Governor
