

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Eighty-Fourth Regular Session

WEDNESDAY, October 15, 1980.

The chief clerk makes the following entries under the above date.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

State of Wisconsin
Department of Employment Relations

October 1, 1980

Dear Senators:

This is to inform you that the report by the Department of Employment Relations on limited term employment as required by Section 2015 of Chapter 221, Laws of 1979 is in the Senate Chief Clerk's Office, 140 South.

The report is in three sections:

Section I: Description for each agency of the recurring and non-recurring activities in the agency in which limited term employes are used and the full-time equivalent number of limited term employes in each activity.

Section II: Discussion of advantages and disadvantages of hiring permanent employes rather than limited term employes to perform these recurring activities.

Section III: Department of Employment Relations recommendations as to appropriate utilization of limited term employes.

Section 2015 requires that this report be distributed to state agencies, the Governor and the Legislature on or before November 1, 1980, and that each agency formally address the budgetary implications of the report's recommendations before the submittal of the 1981-83 biennial budget to the legislature.

HUGH HENDERSON

Secretary

State of Wisconsin
Department of Revenue

October 8, 1980

Dear Senators and Representatives:

Pursuant to s. 227.027(2), Wis. Stats., enclosed is a copy of an emergency administrative rule adopted on this date by the

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Department of Revenue, effective for the 1980 calendar year and corresponding fiscal year.

A copy of this letter and emergency rule are also hereby being transmitted to the Chief Clerk of the Senate and Assembly with the request that the rule, or a notice of it, be published in the Journal of each house to make the rule known to persons who will be affected by it.

This emergency rule is scheduled to be published in the official state newspaper on October 15, 1980. Certified copies of the rule have been filed with the Secretary of State and the Revisor of Statutes.

Sincerely,
MARK E. MUSOLF
Secretary
