(2) PROVISIONS. A marketing order issued under this chapter may contain any of the following:
SECTION 7. 96.04 of the statutes is renumbered 96.05 and amended to read:

96.05 (title) Marketing orders and agreements; creation, amendments and termination. (1) Whenever the secretary has reason to believe that the issuance of a marketing order or agreement will effectuate the declared policy of this chapter with respect to any agricultural commodity, the secretary shall, upon his own motion or upon petition signed by 5% or 10% of the affected producers or handlers of such the agricultural commodity, whichever is less, give due notice of and an opportunity for a public hearing upon a proposed marketing order or such agreement.

(3) Prior to the issuance of a notice of public hearing on any proposed marketing order or agreement, the secretary shall establish a list of producers or handlers of such agricultural commodity or make any such existing list current. The list of producers or handlers who may be affected by the proposed order or agreement may be established from other records kept by the department or records that may be available from any other reliable source. The secretary shall publish a notice to may, as necessary in establishing lists or keeping existing lists current, require producers or handlers of the affected commodity to be affected, requiring them to file with the secretary a report showing the producer's or handler's name and mailing address and the yearly average quantity of affected commodity affected commodities produced or handled by the producer or handler in the 5 years preceding the date of the notice, or in such lesser period as the producer or handler has produced or handled the commodity in question. The

(4) If the secretary requires the filing of reports, notice of the requirement shall be published as a class I notice, under ch. 985, and otherwise distributed or publicized within the affected areas in such a manner as the secretary prescribes and shall be mailed to all producers or handlers on record with the secretary deems necessary to ensure that effective notice is given of the report filing requirement. All reports shall be filed with the secretary within 20 days from the date of publication of the notice or within 30 days after the mailing of the notice to producers or handlers, whichever is later. Each period as the secretary prescribes. The secretary shall keep such lists at all times as current as possible and may require information from affected producers or handlers at various times in accordance with rules prescribed by the secretary. Such producer or handler lists shall be final and conclusive in making determinations relative to the assent of producers. or handlers upon the issuance, amendment or termination of a marketing order and in elections under this chapter. The secretary shall then notify affected producers or handlers so listed by mail that the public hearing affording opportunity for them to be heard upon the proposed issuance, amendment or termination of the marketing order will be held at the time and place stated in the notice. Such notice of the hearing shall be given not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days prior to the hearing. (2) If any proposed marketing order affects milk, apples or cherries, the secretary may, in lieu of other provisions of this section, establish a list of producers from records kept by the department or records that may be available from any other reliable source. Data relating to the amount of milk, apples or cherries produced shall not be required. No marketing order for milk, apples or cherries any agricultural commodity shall be issued unless the secretary finds that the list so established under this section represents at least a majority of the affected producers or handlers.

(5) The list of producers or handlers established by the department shall be final and conclusive in determining whether the issuance of a marketing order or marketing agreement has been approved by referendum or written assent, and in determining the eligibility of nominees and voters in elections for board members. Nothing in this section shall prohibit affected producers or handlers whose names and addresses are not on the department list from participating under this chapter and registering their names and addresses and, as required, quantities of commodities produced or handled by them, in connection with the execution of an assent, or the casting of a ballot in a referendum or election.

SECTION 8. 96.04 (title), (1) and (2) (a) to (d) [(2) (intro.) to (d)] and (f) of the statutes are created to read:

96.04 (title) Marketing agreement. (1) APPLICABILITY. A marketing agreement is applicable only to producers and handlers who assent to the agreement.

(2) PROVISIONS. A marketing agreement entered into under this chapter may contain any of the following:

(a) Provisions for the adoption of grading and other uniform standards of identity for an affected commodity, which may include condition, size or maturity or any other specified quality.

(b) Provisions for uniform grading and inspection, or for minimum standards, of an affected commodity that is marketed in regular trade channels, except that any standard established may not be below any other minimum standard prescribed by law.

(c) Provisions relating to the correction or prohibition of trade practices which are found to be unfair under s. 100.20.

(d) Provisions that establish a minimum volume or other standard for affected producers. The agreement may define the area of the state to be covered by the agreement, which may be all or any portion of the state, and it may provide that its provisions apply to all of the affected commodity produced or marketed within that area regardless of where sold or processed.

(f) Provisions for the collection of fees to fully compensate for services needed to carry out the purposes of the agreement.

SECTION 9. 96.05 of the statutes is renumbered 96.06 (2) and amended to read:

by a draft of the proposed order or agreement. Within a reasonable time after receipt of a petition, the secretary shall either schedule the proposal for public hearing as provided in sub. (1), or deny the petition in writing if in the judgment of the secretary the proposal exceeds the purposes or limitations of this chapter. If the petition is denied, the secretary shall give notice, within 60 days, of the denial and the notice shall include a clear statement of the specific reasons for the denial. Notice of the denial shall be published as a class 1 notice under ch. 985. If a petition is denied it may not be reconsidered by the secretary for a period of one year from the date of notice of the denial.

(6) Prior to conducting any hearing, or submitting a proposed marketing order or agreement to affected producers or handlers for their approval, the secretary may require petitioners to deposit with the department funds reasonably necessary to defray the costs and expenses that may be incurred by the department in establishing producer or handler lists, sending mail, issuing notices, conducting hearings and referendum or assent proceedings, and other related costs and expenses that may be incurred prior to issuing a marketing order or agreement. The secretary shall refund to petitioners all funds in excess of those actually used.

(7) A marketing order or marketing agreement may be amended or terminated as provided under s. 96.08. The secretary may suspend a marketing agreement whenever the secretary finds after a public hearing duly noticed that such an agreement cannot be reasonably enforced or is contrary to the purposes of this chapter.

(8) The secretary shall develop, maintain and distribute administrative policies and guidelines that establish uniform terms, conditions, definitions and nomenclature to be used in marketing orders and agreements.

SECTION 11. 96.06 of the statutes is renumbered 96.07, and 96.07 (1) (intro.), (a) and (b), as renumbered, are amended to read:

96.07 (1) (intro.) The secretary shall make and publish findings upon every material point controverted at the hearing and required by this chapter, and upon such other matters and things as he may deem fitting and proper. The secretary shall issue a decision within 45 days after the close of the hearing based upon his the findings and shall cause copies of the findings and recommended decision to be delivered or mailed to all parties of record appearing at the hearing or their attorneys of record. The decision shall contain the text in full of any order or agreement or amendment or termination of an existing order or agreement, and may deny or approve the proposal in its entirety or it may recommend a marketing order or agreement containing other or different terms or conditions from those contained in the proposal, but such decision shall be substantially within the purview of the notice of hearing and shall be supported by evidence taken at the hearing or by documents of which the secretary is authorized to take official notice. The secretary shall not approve the issuance, amendment or termination of any marketing order or agreement unless he shall find with respect thereto the secretary finds all of the following:

(a) That the proposed issuance, amendment or termination thereof is reasonably calculated to attain the objectives sought in such the proposed marketing order; or agreement.

(b) That the proposed issuance, amendment or termination is in conformity with this chapter, and within the applicable limitations and restrictions set forth therein will tend to effectuate the declared purposes and policies of this chapter.

SECTION 12. 96.06 (title) and (1) of the statutes are created to read:
96.06 (title) Notice; hearing. (1) The notice for a public hearing under s. 96.05 shall be given as provided in s. 227.021 and shall be published as a class I notice under ch. 985 within affected areas of the state as prescribed by the secretary. Notice shall be given not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days prior to the date of hearing.

SECTION 13. 96.07 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 14. 96.08 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

96.08 Referendum and assent procedures. (1) Marketing order; referendum. (a) Every proposal for the creation of a marketing order shall include a proposed voting requirement from par. (b) to be used for the adoption of the proposal. The secretary shall receive testimony and evidence on the proposed voting requirement at the public hearing. The decision issued under s. 96.07 shall state which voting requirement will be used for the adoption of the proposal and that requirement may be different from the one contained in the proposal.

(b) A marketing order may not become effective until the secretary finds that the needed voting requirement has been met. In determining whether the voting requirement under subd. 2 or 4 has been met the secretary may not consider any votes cast using the bloc voting procedure under sub. (3). One of the following voting requirements must be used. The secretary must find that a marketing order:

1. Is approved by producers on record with the department in a referendum conducted among producers directly affected by the marketing order. The producers directly affected shall be deemed to have approved a proposed order if 50% or more by number of producers on record with the department vote and if, of those voting, two-thirds or more by number who produce 50% or more of the volume of the affected commodity or 50% by number who produce two-thirds or more of the volume approve the proposed marketing order. Volume shall be determined on the basis of the quantity of the commodity produced in the last preceding marketing season.

2. Is approved in a referendum by 50% or more of the producers of the affected commodity who produced 50% or more of the volume in the last preceding marketing season.

3. Is approved by not less than 50% of the producers voting provided that 50% of the producers on the established list vote in the referendum.

4. Is approved by more than 50% of the affected producers voting in the referendum, provided that the marketing order provides for producer refunds.

5. Is approved in a referendum by 50% or more of the handlers on record with the department if the marketing order directly affects handlers.

6. Is approved in a referendum by 50% or more of the producers and 50% or more of the handlers on record with the department if the order directly affects producers and handlers.

(c) An amendment to, or the termination of, a marketing order may not become effective until the secretary finds that the same voting requirement is met that was used to adopt the order.

(2) Marketing agreement; assent. (a) A marketing agreement may not become effective until the secretary finds that not less than 50% of the affected producers or handlers assent to the proposal.

(b) An amendment to, or the termination of, a marketing agreement may not become effective until the secretary finds that not less than 50% of the producers or handlers who assented to the marketing agreement, assent to the proposed amendment or termination.

(3) Bloc voting and assent procedure. (a) In finding whether a marketing order is approved by referendum or a marketing agreement is assented to, the secretary shall consider the approval or disapproval of any agricultural cooperative marketing association, which is authorized by its members to cast a bloc vote or assent on behalf of its members as the approval or disapproval of the producers who are members of the agricultural cooperative marketing association, but any member of a cooperative may elect to vote or assent individually and be excluded from the bloc vote or assent by notifying the cooperative and the secretary in writing. At least 45 days prior to the commencement of a referendum or assent procedure, a cooperative that intends to cast a bloc vote or assent for its members shall notify its members of their right to vote or assent individually and be excluded from the bloc vote or assent, and it shall file with the department a list of its members for whom it is eligible to vote or assent. The secretary shall delete from the list the names of those producers who have filed notice of their intent to vote or assent individually. Notice by the cooperative to the department shall include a statement that it has complied with the notice requirements of this paragraph.

(b) A cooperative association engaged in the marketing of affected commodities as the agent of its members may cast a bloc vote or assent for its members, except that it shall exclude from its bloc vote or assent any of its members who are also member-patrons of another cooperative which intends to cast a bloc vote or assent for those members.

SECTION 15. 96.09 (title) of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 16. 96.09 of the statutes is renumbered 96.20 (1).

SECTION 17. 96.09 of the statutes is created to read:

SECTION 40. 96.21 (title), (1), (2) and (3) (title) and (c) of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 41. 96.21 (3) (a) and (b) of the statutes are consolidated, renumbered 96.04 (2) (e) and amended to read:

96.04 (2) (e) Upon petition by 5% or 100, whichever is less, of the milk producers in the marketing area proposed in the petition to be affected by a marketing order under this section and after notice and hearing under ss. 96.04 and 96.05, the secretary may issue a marketing order. Provisions establishing minimum prices at which milk the affected commodity may be purchased from milk producers in the affected area. Different minimum prices may be established for various marketing areas in the state. (b) Provision for the automatic adjustment of minimum prices according to predetermined conditions may be included. No marketing agreement containing a provision establishing minimum prices may conflict with, or be more restrictive than, any other marketing order or agreement under state or federal law. In establishing minimum prices for milk an affected commodity purchased from producers, all of the following economic factors shall be taken into consideration:

1. The differing methods by which milk the affected commodity is produced, processed and transported;

2. Reasonable and necessary Estimated costs of production and transportation, including a reasonable return on investment; management.

3. Quantities of dairy products consumed; and Changes in consumption.

4. Other economic factors which substantially and directly affect supply and demand of milk and dairy products the affected commodity.

SECTION 42. 96.22 of the statutes is renumbered 96.19 and amended to read:

96.19 Restraint of trade. In any civil or criminal action or proceeding for violation of any rule of statutory or common law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade, proof that the act complained of was done in compliance with this chapter or a marketing order or agreement issued under this chapter and in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this chapter shall be a complete defense to such action or proceeding.

SECTION 43. 96.23 of the statutes is renumbered 96.18 and amended to read:

96.18 Price fixing. Nothing contained in this chapter shall permit fixing of prices not otherwise permitted by law or any limitation on production, and no marketing order or agreement, or any rule thereunder, shall contain any such provision, except as permitted under s. 96.24 96.04.

SECTION 44. 96.24 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 45. Nonstatutory provisions; agriculture, trade and consumer protection. (1) Notwithstanding the treatment of chapter 96 of the statutes by this act, chapter 96, 1979 stats., shall continue in effect for any marketing order that was adopted under chapter 96, 1979 stats., until August 31, 1983.

SECTION 46. Program responsibility changes. In the sections of the statutes listed in Column A, the program responsibilities references shown in Column B are deleted and the program responsibilities references shown in Column C are inserted:
