(8) (c) 7, 445.045 (1) (b), 448.05 (1) (a), 455.04 (1) (b), 456.04 (2), 457.09 (1) (b), 458.02 (8) (b), 458.08 (6m) (a), 458.12 (1) (b) and 459.10 (2) (f) of the statutes, relating to revising obsolete language and removing the requirements of U.S. citizenship and good moral character from certain employment and licensure statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 38.51 (8) (c) 7 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

38.51 (8) (c) 7. Subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), the applicant has an arrest or conviction record.

SECTION 1m. 62.13 (4) (c) and (d) of the statutes are amended to read:

62.13 (4) (c) For the choosing of such list the board shall adopt, and may repeal or modify, rules calculated to secure the best service in the departments. These rules shall provide for examination of physical and educational qualifications, habits, reputation, and experience, and may provide such competitive examinations as the board shall determine, and for the classification of positions with special examination for each class. The board shall print and distribute the rules and all changes in them, at city expense.

(d) The examination shall be free for all U.S. citizens over 18 and under 55 years of age, with proper limitations as to residence, health, habits and character, and subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), arrest and conviction record. The examination, including minimum training and experience requirements, shall be job-related in compliance with appropriate validation standards and shall be subject to the approval of the board and may include tests of manual skill and physical strength. All relevant experience, whether paid or unpaid, shall satisfy experience requirements. The board shall control examinations and may designate and change examiners, who may or may not be otherwise in the official service of the city, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the board and paid by the city. Veterans shall be given preference points in accordance with s. 230.16 (7).

SECTION 2. 62.50 (3) and (5) of the statutes are amended to read:

62.50 (3) RULES AND REGULATIONS. As soon as possible after the first members of the board enter their offices, the board shall prepare and adopt rules and regulations to govern the selection and appointment of persons to be thereafter employed on either the police force or the fire department of the city, as in the judgment of the board shall be adapted to secure the best service for the public in each department. The rules and regulations shall provide for ascertaining, as far as possible, physical qualifications, standing and experience of all applicants for positions, and the rules and regulations may provide for the competitive examination of some or all in such subjects as are deemed proper for the purpose of best determining the applicants' qualifications for the position sought. The rules and regulations may provide for the classification of positions in the service and for a special course of inquiry and examination for candidates for each class. All rules and regulations adopted shall be subject to modification or repeal by the board at any time.

(5) EXAMINATIONS. The examinations which the rules and regulations provide for shall be public and free to all U.S. citizens with proper limitations as to residence, age, health, habits and moral character, and, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), arrest and conviction record. The examinations shall be practical in their character and shall relate to those matters which fairly test the relative capacity of the candidates to discharge the duties of the positions in which they seek employment or to which they seek to be appointed and may include tests of manual skill and physical strength. The board shall control all examinations and may designate suitable persons, either in the official service of the city or not, to conduct such examinations and may change such examiners at any time, as seems best.

SECTION 3. 63.25 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:
63.25 (1) (a) For open, competitive examinations and for other examinations by which to test applicants for office or for employment as to their practical fitness to discharge the duties of the positions which they desire to fill, which examinations shall be public and free to all persons with proper limitations as to citizenship, residence, age, health, habits and moral character and, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), arrest and conviction record.

SECTION 4. 66.053 (1) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

66.053 (1) (b) No license or permit may be granted to any person, unless to a domestic corporation, not a citizen of the United States and resident of this state and a resident of the town, village or city in which the license is applied for, nor, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), to any person who has been convicted of a felony, unless the person has been restored to civil rights.

SECTION 5. 66.054 (6), (7), (8) (a), (10m) (am) and (11) (a) of the statutes are amended to read:

66.054 (6) WHOLESALERS' LICENSES. Wholesalers' licenses may be issued to domestic corporations, to foreign corporations or to persons of good moral character who have been residents of this state continuously for not less than one year prior to the date of filing application for the wholesalers' license and who do not have an arrest or conviction record, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h). Corporations applying for wholesalers' licenses shall comply with s. 176.05 (13). Wholesalers' licenses shall authorize sales of fermented malt beverages only in original packages or containers to dealers, not to be consumed in or about the premises where sold. The fee for a wholesaler's license may not exceed $25 per year or fractional part thereof.

(7) CLASS "A" RETAILERS' LICENSES. Class "A" retailers' licenses may be issued only to domestic corporations, to foreign corporations or to persons of good moral character who are citizens of the United States and have been residents of this state and have resided in this state continuously for not less than one year prior to the date of filing application for the license and who do not have an arrest or conviction record, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h). Corporations applying for Class "A" retailers' licenses shall comply with s. 176.05 (13). The license authorizes sales of fermented malt beverages only for consumption away from the premises where sold and in the original packages, containers or bottles. The license fee for a Class "A" license shall be determined by the city, village or town in which the premises are located. No more than 2 Class "A" licenses may be issued in the state to any one corporation or person, and in each application for a Class "A" license the applicant shall state that he or she has not made application for more than one other Class "A" license for any other location in the state. No such license may be issued to any person acting as agent for or in the employ of another.

(8) (a) Class "B" retailers' licenses shall be issued only to persons 18 years of age or over of good moral character, who are citizens of the United States and have been residents of the state, and have resided in this state continuously for not less than one year prior to the date of filing the application and who do not have an arrest or conviction record, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h). No Class "B" retailers' license shall be granted for any premises where any other business is conducted, in connection with the licensed premises and no other business may be conducted on the licensed premises after the granting of the Class "B" license except that restriction shall not apply to a hotel, or to a restaurant not a part of or located in any mercantile establishment, or to a combination grocery store and tavern, or to a combination sporting goods store and tavern in towns, villages and cities of the 4th class, or to a novelty store and tavern, or to a bowling alley or recreation premises or to a bona fide club, society or lodge that shall have been in existence for not less than 6 months prior to the date of filing application for the Class "B" license. No more than 2 Class "B" licenses may be issued in the state to any one person, and in each application for a Class "B" license the applicant shall state that he or she has not made application for more than one other Class “B” license for any other location in the state. No Class “B” license may be issued to any person acting as agent for or in the employ of another, except that this restriction shall not apply to a hotel or to a restaurant not a part of or located in or upon the premises of any mercantile establishment, or to a bona fide club, society or lodge that has been in existence for not less than 6 months prior to the date of application. A Class “B” license for a hotel, restaurant, club, society or lodge may be taken in the name of an officer or manager, who shall be personally responsible for compliance with all of the terms and provisions of this section. Corporations applying for Class “B” retailers’ licenses shall comply with s. 176.05 (13).

(10m) (am) The city council, village board or town board electing by ordinance as provided by par. (a) may issue manager’s licenses, which shall be granted only upon application in writing. A manager’s license shall be required only for the purpose of compliance with par. (c) or s. 176.05 (10m) (a). A manager’s license shall be issued only to persons 18 years of age or over of good moral character, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), do not have an arrest or conviction record and who are residents of this state, except cities of the 1st class cities may issue a manager’s license only to a person who has been a resident of the city for the period commencing on the date one year prior to the issuance of the license and terminating on the date the license is issued. A manager’s license is valid only within the limits of the city, village or town in which it is issued.

(11) (a) Every city council, village or town board may issue a license known as an “Operator’s” license, which may be granted only upon application in writing, and which may not be required of any person or for any purpose other than to comply with par. (b). An operator’s license may be issued only to persons 18 years of age or over of good moral character, subject to s. 111.32 (5) (a) and (h), do not have an arrest or conviction record.
