Paragraph (a) does not preclude qualification for benefits based on employment with a part-time employer with whom an employe terminates his or her employment if the employe first qualifies for benefits based on employment with another employer under this paragraph and exhausts all benefit credits available based on that employment. In this paragraph, "applicable weekly benefit rate" means the benefit rate applicable to credit weeks earned with the employment upon which benefits are based.

The employe's benefit rate shall be that which is otherwise applicable.

(b) An employe who fails to return to work with a former employer who has duly recalled the employe within 52 weeks after having last worked for such employer shall, if the failure was without good cause as determined by the department, be ineligible for benefits from that employer's account for the week in which such failure occurs and thereafter until the employe has again been employed within at least 48 weeks and has earned wages equaling at least $200 in employment covered by the unemployment compensation law of any state or the federal government equaling at least 16 times the employe's weekly benefit rate with the employer against whom benefits are initially chargeable, and credit weeks available to the employe based on employment with the employer with whom benefits are chargeable at the time that the failure occurs, if more than one, shall be reduced to one. (a) may, by a determination issued under s. 108.09, be required, as to each act of concealment the employer aids and abets, to forfeit an amount equal to the amount of the benefits the claimant improperly received as a result of the concealment. The amount forfeited shall be credited to the fund's balancing account.

(d) In addition to other remedies, the department may, by civil action, recover any benefits obtained by means of any false statement or representation.

(e) This subsection may be applied even when other provisions, including penalty provisions, of this chapter are applied.

If an employe is denied benefits under this paragraph, but the department later determines that he or she was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the educational institution in the 2nd such academic year or term, the employe is entitled to retroactive payment for each week of such denial if he or she filed a claim for benefits for that week and was otherwise eligible.
