RULING OF THE CHAIR

On Wednesday, March 21, 1984 the Senator from the 11th, Senator Davis, raised a point of order that senate substitute amendment 1 to Assembly Bill 500 was non-germane. The chair took the point of order under advisement.

Assembly Bill 500 relates to the vote requirements to terminate the operations of a drainage district. Senate substitute amendment 1 adds language relating to the organization of a drainage district in that it sets new requirements on the DNR and the boards in relation to review and reports on activities of drainage districts. It is the opinion of the chair that the senate substitute amendment adds language relating to a different specific subject than the original bill, that it expands and not limits the scope of the original proposal and therefore in accordance with Senate Rule 50(1)(2) and (7), it is the opinion of the Chair that the amendment is not germane and the point of order raised by the Senator from the 11th, Senator Davis, is well taken.

Assembly Bill 500
