

1985 Senate Bill 534

Date of enactment: April 15, 1986
Date of publication: April 23, 1986

1985 Wisconsin Act 250

AN ACT to repeal various provisions of session laws for the purpose of eliminating unnecessary and obsolete provisions regarding courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

PREFATORY NOTE: The revisor of statutes, under s. 13.93 (2) (j), stats., shall examine and identify for revision by the legislature the statutes and session laws to eliminate defects, anachronisms, conflicts, ambiguities and unconstitutional or obsolete provisions.

This bill repeals legislative acts, not incorporated into the Wisconsin Statutes (hereafter referred to as session laws), which concern courts and which are obsolete. Chapter 315, laws of 1959, made major revisions in the court system by eliminating the numerous statutory courts with varying jurisdictions and replacing them with county courts of uniform jurisdiction. Section 27 of chapter 315, which directed that several specialized courts would become county courts, also included a general repealer "[a]ll special or local acts relating to these courts are repealed ...". Unfortunately, a "general repealer" does not identify which laws are repealed.

Section 28 of chapter 315 abolished all other statutory courts except the county courts and section 29 repealed "[a]ll special or local acts conferring jurisdiction on county courts ...". Chapter 449, laws of 1977, repealed county courts as a part of a major court reorganization following amendment of the judiciary article of the constitution in April of 1977.

This bill attempts to repeal all session laws relating to the obsolete special courts and county courts. It also repeals session laws relating to the supreme court and circuit courts where the session law has clearly been replaced by statute law.

The session laws which are repealed in this bill were identified from the "Special, Private or Local Laws" table, last printed in the 1970 Wisconsin Annotations and kept current in the biennial Wisconsin Statutes. Acts listed in the table which affected statute laws are not repealed since these were improperly placed in a table which purports to include "legislative acts ... not incorporated in the Wisconsin Statutes". Acts listed in the table which merely repealed earlier acts are also not repealed in this bill.

Repeal of the obsolete session laws relating to courts is part of an attempt to make the Special, Private and Local Laws table more useful by including only those laws which are "in force".
