The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 343.01 (2) (d) of the statutes is amended to read:

343.01 (2) (d) “Other jurisdiction” or “another jurisdiction” means any state other than Wisconsin and includes the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico and any territory or possession of the United States, any federal military installation located within the territorial boundaries of Wisconsin and any province of the Dominion of Canada.

SECTION 2. 343.32 (2) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

343.32 (2) (a) The secretary may suspend or revoke a person’s operating privilege if the person appears by the records of the department to be an habitually reckless or negligent operator of a motor vehicle or to have repeatedly violated any of the state traffic laws or any local ordinance enacted under ch. 349 or, if the offense occurred on a federal military installation located in this state, any federal law which is in strict conformity with a state traffic law. For the purpose of determining when to suspend or revoke an operating privilege under this subsection, the secretary may determine and adopt by rule a method of weighing traffic convictions by their seriousness and may, subject to the limitations in this subsection, change such weighted scale as experience or the accident frequency in the state makes necessary or desirable.

SECTION 3. Initial applicability. This act first applies to offenses occurring on the effective date of this SECTION.
