Mr. Thomas Melvin
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
Room 8 West - West Capitol
Madison, WI 53702

Dear Sir:

This is a report on the status of the Volatile Organic Compound (VOC) Growth Accommodation and Replenishment Program at the end of 1988. This program was developed as a result of a bill (1987 Wisconsin Act 27) signed into law in 1987 to accommodate opportunities for economic growth while reducing VOC emissions to attain the ozone standard. The amount of the VOC growth accommodation at the close of 1988 is 1,848 tons.

If you have any questions concerning this report, please contact Mr. Larry Bruss (608) 267-7543 or Mr. Tom Nowakowski (608) 267-7540 of my staff.

Sincerely,
DONALD F. THEILER
Bureau of Air Management

Representative Thomas Loftus
Speaker-Wisconsin State Assembly
Room 211 West, State Capitol
Madison, WI 53708

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with the rules of the assembly, I am writing to inform you that as chairperson of the Assembly Committee on Agriculture I have established the following subcommittees of the committee with the listed membership and purpose:

Subcommittee on Farmland Preservation

Representatives Barbara Linton (Chairperson), Alvin Ott and Sheila Harsdorf.

Purpose: To review our present Farmland Preservation Program; consult with the department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection and the Land Conservation Board and other interested groups and organizations as to recommendations for changes or improvements; and to report to the Assembly Committee on Agriculture recommendations for legislation to address the concerns established by the review of the subcommittee.

Subcommittee on Agricultural Marketing

Representatives Lary Swoboda (Chairperson), John Volk, Heron Van Gorden and Wilfrid Turba.

Purpose: To review present marketing programs and procedures used by the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection and other Wisconsin agricultural products organizations in the areas of direct and domestic agricultural product marketing as to recommendations for changes or improvements; and to report to the Assembly Committee on Agriculture recommendations for legislation to address the concerns established by the review of the subcommittee.

Subcommittee on Rural Health

Representatives John Medinger (Chairperson), Harvey Stower and Judith Klusman.

Purpose: To review and address the concerns of rural health care in areas of availability of rural health care facilities (hospitals, clinics and nursing homes) and personnel (doctors, nurses, LPN's, nursing aides, etc.) and the uninsured and underinsured; and to report to the Assembly Committee on Agriculture recommendations for legislation to address the subcommittee's identified concerns.

Subcommittee on Agricultural Budget Issues

Representatives Marlin Schneider (Chairperson), Virgil Roberts and Charles Coleman.

Purpose: To advise the Assembly Committee on Agriculture of the status of state budget issues of interest to Wisconsin's agricultural sector, agricultural groups and organizations, and the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection; and to make recommendations to the Assembly Committee on Agriculture as to those issues contained in its subcommittee advisement of the status of state budget issues.

Subcommittee on Rural Development

Representatives John Volk (Chairperson), Barbara Linton and Joseph Tregoning.

Purpose: To advise the Assembly Committee on Agriculture on the status of legislation under consideration by the Assembly Committee on Rural Development and Forestry, and other legislation introduced on Rural Development; and to formulate a cooperative legislative position between the two committees on those rural development issues and legislation of designated mutual concern.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [February 13, 1989]

It is my hope, Mr. Speaker, that the establishment of these subcommittees, and their stated purposes, will make our 1989-90 Legislative Session one of continued legislative accomplishment on behalf of Wisconsin agriculture.

Respectfully submitted.

Sincerely,
BARBARA GRONEMUS
Chairperson
