

ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENT 3,
TO 1995 ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 29

November 14, 1995 - Offered by Representatives PROSSER, WOOD and ZUKOWSKI.

1     Relating to: commending Shannon Faulkner.

2             Whereas, Shannon Faulkner, refusing to surrender to adversity and rejection,
3 attempted for 2 1/2 years to enroll in the Citadel, the South Carolina state military 4 college; and

5             Whereas, Shannon Faulkner's courageous enterprise was crowned with 6 success when she was admitted as the first woman cadet in the 152-year history of 7 the Citadel cadet corps; and

8             Whereas, Shannon Faulkner left the Citadel in August 1995, when it became 9 apparent that continuing the course of study posed serious risk to her physical 10 health; and

11             Whereas, Shannon Faulkner's departure from the Citadel ended her quest to 12 follow in the footsteps of Rebecca Marier, whose June 1995 graduation from the 13 United States Military Academy made her the first woman to complete the course
14 of study at West Point ranked number one in her cadet class, in the academy's 19
15 years of accepting female members of the corps; now, therefore, be it
