Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill changes the name of the division of emergency government in the department of military affairs to the division of emergency management. In addition, references to local government agencies and personnel as “emergency government” agencies and personnel are changed to “emergency management” agencies and personnel. The bill adds a representative of the department of industry, labor and job development (currently named the department of industry, labor and human relations) to the state emergency response board and provides that the members of that board serve for 4-year terms instead of at the pleasure of the governor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

13 name of the state. Records shall be kept of such action and such records shall be 14 evidence of a claim against the state. Any such claim shall be referred to the claims 15 board under s. 16.007.

16 SECTION 20. 166.03 (2) (a) 1. to 3. of the statutes are amended to read:

17 166.03 (2) (a) 1. Subject to approval by the governor, develop and promulgate 18 a state plan of emergency ~~government~~ management for the security of persons and 19 property which shall be mandatory during a state of emergency. In developing the 20 plan, the adjutant general shall seek the advice of the department of health and 21 social services with respect to the emergency medical aspects of the plan.

22 2. Prescribe and carry out statewide training programs and exercises to 23 develop emergency ~~government~~ management proficiency, disseminate information 24 including warnings of enemy action, serve as the principal assistant to the governor

1 in the direction of emergency government management activities and coordinate 2 emergency government management programs between counties.

3 3. Furnish guidance and develop and promulgate standards for emergency 4 government management programs for counties, towns and municipalities, and 5 prescribe nomenclature for all levels of emergency government management.

6 SECTION 21. 166.03 (2) (b) 1. to 3. of the statutes are amended to read:

7 166.03 (2) (b) 1. Divide the state into emergency government management 8 areas composed of whole counties by general or special written orders subject to 9 approval by the governor, and modify the boundaries thereof as changed conditions 10 warrant. Such areas shall be classified and designated in accordance with standards 11 promulgated under the federal civil defense act of 1950, as amended.

12 2. Appoint a head of emergency government management for each area 13 established in accordance with subd. 1. under the classified service on either a 14 part-time or full-time basis, or may request the governor to designate any state 15 officer or employe as acting area head on a part-time basis.

16 3. Designate and post highways as emergency government management routes 17 closed to all but authorized vehicles when required for training programs and 18 exercises.

19 SECTION 22. 166.03 (3) to (5) of the statutes are amended to read:

20 166.03 (3) POWERS AND DUTIES OF AREA HEADS. Area heads of emergency 21 government management may exercise such powers as are delegated and shall 22 perform such duties as are assigned to them by the adjutant general.

23 (4) POWERS AND DUTIES OF COUNTIES AND MUNICIPALITIES. (a) The governing body 24 of each county, town and municipality shall adopt an effective program of emergency 25 government management consistent with the state plan of emergency government

1 management and, except at the county level in counties having a county executive, 2 shall appoint a head of emergency ~~government~~ management services. Each such 3 governing body may appropriate funds and levy taxes for this program.

4 (b) In counties having a county executive under s. 59.031, the county board 5 shall designate the county executive or confirm his or her appointee as county head 6 of emergency ~~government~~ management services.

7 (c) Each county board shall designate a committee of the board as a county 8 emergency ~~government~~ management committee whose chairperson shall be a 9 member of the committee designated by the chairperson of the county board. The 10 committee, in counties having a county executive under s. 59.031, shall retain 11 policy-making and rule-making powers in the establishment and development of 12 county emergency ~~government~~ management plans and programs.

13 (d) During the continuance of a state of emergency proclaimed by the governor 14 the county board of each county situated within the area to which the governor's 15 proclamation applies may employ the county emergency ~~government~~ management 16 organization and the facilities and other resources of the organization to cope with 17 the problems of the emergency, and the governing body of each municipality and 18 town situated within the area shall have similar authority with respect to municipal 19 emergency ~~government~~ management organizations, facilities and resources.
20 Nothing in this chapter prohibits counties and municipalities from employing their 21 emergency ~~government~~ management organizations, facilities and resources to cope 22 with the problems of local public emergencies except where restrictions are imposed 23 by federal regulations on property donated by the federal government.

24 (5) (title) POWERS AND DUTIES OF HEAD OF EMERGENCY ~~GOVERNMENT~~ MANAGEMENT
25 SERVICES. (a) The head of emergency ~~government~~ management services in each

1 county, town and municipality shall for his or her respective county, town or 2 municipality, develop and promulgate emergency government management plans 3 consistent with state plans, direct the emergency government management program 4 and perform such other duties related to emergency government management as are 5 required by the governing body and the emergency government management 6 committee of the governing body when applicable.

7 (b) The head of emergency government management services in each county 8 shall coordinate and assist in developing town and municipal emergency 9 government management plans within the county, integrate such plans with the 10 county plan, advise the department of all emergency government management 11 planning in the county and submit to the adjutant general such reports as he or she 12 requires, direct and coordinate emergency government management activities 13 throughout the county during a state of emergency, and direct countywide 14 emergency government management training programs and exercises.

15 (c) The head of emergency government management services in each town and 16 municipality shall direct local emergency government management training 17 programs and exercises, direct participation in emergency government management 18 programs and exercises ordered by the adjutant general and the county head of 19 emergency government management services, and advise the county head of 20 emergency government management services on local emergency government 21 management programs and submit to him or her such reports as he or she requires.

22 (d) During the continuance of a state of emergency proclaimed by the governor, 23 the head of emergency government management services in each county, town and 24 municipality, on behalf of his or her respective county, town or municipality, may

1 contract with any person to provide equipment and services on a cost basis to be used 2 in disaster relief.

3 SECTION 23. 166.03 (7) (a) and (b) of the statutes are amended to read:

4 166.03 (7) (a) Counties, towns and municipalities may cooperate under s. 66.30 5 to furnish services, combine offices and finance emergency ~~government~~ management 6 services.

7 (b) Counties, towns and municipalities may contract for emergency 8 ~~government~~ management services with political subdivisions, emergency 9 ~~government~~ management units and civil defense units of this state, and upon prior 10 approval of the adjutant general, with such entities in bordering states. A copy of 11 each such agreement shall be filed with the adjutant general within 10 days after 12 execution thereof.

13 SECTION 24. 166.03 (8) (a) to (e) and (g) of the statutes are amended to read:

14 166.03 (8) (a) No emergency ~~government~~ management organization 15 established under this section shall participate in any form of political activity or be 16 employed directly or indirectly for any political activity.

17 (b) No emergency ~~government~~ management organization established under 18 this section shall be employed to interfere with the orderly process of a labor dispute.

19 (c) No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any emergency 20 ~~government~~ management organization under this section who advocates a change 21 by force or violence in the constitutional form of government of the United States or 22 this state or who has been convicted of or is under indictment or information charging 23 any subversive act against the United States.

24 (d) Employes of municipal and county emergency ~~government~~ management 25 units are employes of the municipality or county to which the unit is attached for

1 purposes of worker's compensation benefits. Employes of the area and state 2 emergency government management units are employes of the state for purposes of 3 worker's compensation benefits. Volunteer emergency government management 4 workers are employes of the emergency government management unit with whom 5 duly registered in writing for purposes of worker's compensation benefits. An 6 emergency government management employe or volunteer who engages in 7 emergency government management activities upon order of any echelon in the 8 emergency government management organization other than that which carries his 9 or her worker's compensation coverage shall be eligible for the same benefits as 10 though employed by the governmental unit employing him or her. Any employment 11 which is part of an emergency government management program including but not 12 restricted because of enumeration, test runs and other activities which have a 13 training objective as well as emergency government management activities during 14 an emergency proclaimed in accordance with this chapter and which grows out of, 15 and is incidental to, such emergency government management activity is covered 16 employment. Members of an emergency government management unit who are not 17 acting as employes of a private employer during emergency government 18 management activities are employes of the emergency government management 19 unit for which acting. If no pay agreement exists or if the contract pay is less, pay 20 for worker's compensation purposes shall be computed in accordance with s. 102.11.

21 (e) Emergency government management employes as defined in par. (d) shall 22 be indemnified by their sponsor against any tort liability to third persons incurred 23 in the performance of emergency government management activities while acting in 24 good faith and in a reasonable manner. Emergency government management 25 activities constitute a governmental function.

1 (g) Emergency ~~government~~ management employes as such shall receive no pay 2 unless specific agreement for pay is made.

3 SECTION 25. 166.03 (9), (10), (13) and (14) of the statutes are amended to read:

4 166.03 (9) BEARING OF LOSSES. Any loss arising from the damage to or 5 destruction of government-owned equipment utilized in any authorized emergency 6 ~~government~~ management activity shall be borne by the owner thereof.

7 (10) EXEMPTION FROM LIABILITY. No person who provides equipment or services 8 under the direction of the governor, the adjutant general or the head of emergency 9 ~~government~~ management services in any county, town or municipality during a state 10 of emergency declared by the governor is liable for the death of or injury to any person 11 or damage to any property caused by his or her actions, except where the trier of fact 12 finds that the person acted intentionally or with gross negligence. This subsection 13 does not affect the right of any person to receive benefits to which he or she would 14 otherwise be entitled under the worker's compensation law or under any pension law, 15 nor does it affect entitlement to any other benefits or compensation authorized by 16 state or federal law.

17 (13) AUTHORITY TO WITHHOLD GRANTS. If the adjutant general finds that any 18 political subdivision of the state has not complied with the requirement of this 19 section that it establish and maintain an operating emergency ~~government~~ 20 management organization, he or she may refuse to approve grants of funds or items 21 of equipment to such political subdivision until it complies. If such political 22 subdivision fails to use funds or items of equipment granted to it through the 23 adjutant general in accordance with the agreement under which the grant was made, 24 the adjutant general may refuse to make any additional grants to such political 25 subdivision until it has complied with the conditions of the prior grant, and he or she

1 may start recovery proceedings on the funds and items of equipment which have not 2 been used in accordance with the conditions of the grant.

3 (14) PENALTIES. Whoever intentionally fails to comply with the directives of 4 emergency government management authorities promulgated under this section 5 during a state of emergency or during any training program or exercises may be fined 6 not more than $200 or imprisoned not more than 90 days or both.

7 SECTION 26. 166.05 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

8 166.05 (1) DESIGNATION OF EMERGENCY TEMPORARY LOCATION. Whenever, during 9 a state of emergency it becomes imprudent, inexpedient or impossible to conduct the 10 affairs of state government at the state capital, the governor shall, as often as the 11 exigencies of the situation require, by proclamation designate an emergency 12 temporary location for the seat of government at such place within or without this 13 state as he or she deems advisable, and shall take such action and issue such orders 14 as are necessary for an orderly transition of the affairs of state government to such 15 emergency temporary location. If practicable, the emergency temporary location so 16 designated by the governor shall conform to that provided for in the current 17 emergency government management plan authorized by s. 166.03. Such emergency 18 temporary location shall remain as the seat of government until the governor 19 establishes a new location under this section, or until the emergency is ended under 20 s. 166.03 and the seat of government is returned to its normal location.

21 SECTION 27. 166.06 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

22 166.06 (1) DESIGNATION OF EMERGENCY TEMPORARY LOCATIONS. Whenever during 23 a state of emergency it becomes imprudent, inexpedient or impossible to conduct the 24 affairs of local government at the regular or usual place or places thereof, the 25 governing body of each county, town and municipality of this state may meet at any

1 place within or without the territorial limits of such political subdivision on the call 2 of the presiding officer or his or her successor, and shall proceed to establish and 3 designate by ordinance, resolution or other manner, alternate or substitute sites or 4 places as the emergency temporary locations of government where all, or any part, 5 of the public business may be transacted and conducted during the emergency 6 situation. Such alternate or substitute site or places may be within or without the 7 territorial limits of such county, town or municipality and may be within or without 8 those of the state. If practicable, they shall be the sites or places designated as the 9 emergency temporary locations of government in the current emergency ~~government~~ 10 management plan.

11 SECTION 28. 166.15 (1) (d) of the statutes is amended to read:

12 166.15 (1) (d) "Emergency provider" means any person who provides 13 emergency care or facilities and includes emergency ~~government~~ management.

14 SECTION 29. 166.20 (3) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 166.20 (3) (c) Consult and coordinate with the county board, the county and 16 local heads of emergency ~~government~~ management services designated under s.
17 166.03 (4) (a) or (b) and the county emergency ~~government~~ management committee 18 designated under s. 166.03 (4) (c) in the execution of the local emergency planning 19 committee's duties under this section.

20 SECTION 30. 166.22 (1) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:
