

1995 ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 14

January 26, 1995 - Introduced by Representatives WOOD and FREESE. Referred to Committee on Elections and Constitutional Law.

1 To amend assembly rule 39 (4) (c); relating to: time for publishing referrals of 2 proposals.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

The assembly rules require the chief clerk to publish a referral of a proposal within 7 working days after the office of the chief clerk receives the proposal for introduction. This resolution requires that the referral, instead, be published in the first journal published after the referral is made.

3 Resolved by the assembly, That:

4 SECTION 1. Assembly rule 39 (4) (c), as created by 1995 Assembly Resolution
5 2, is amended to read:

6 Assembly Rule 39 (4) (c) The speaker shall refer a properly jacketed proposal
7 within 7 working days after the office of the chief clerk receives the proposal for 8 introduction or on the final legislative day of the last scheduled floorperiod preceding
9 the veto review session, whichever is earlier. The chief clerk shall publish the 10 referral ~~within those 7 working days~~ in the first journal published after the referral
11 is made.
