Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, subject to certain exceptions, every employer who owns or operates a factory or mercantile establishment must allow every person employed in the factory or mercantile establishment to have at least 24 consecutive hours of rest in every period of 7 consecutive days (one day of rest in 7). Currently, an employer of a person employed in the manufacture of butter, cheese or other dairy products, or in the distribution of milk or cream, or in a cannery or freezer, is not required to allow the person to have one day of rest in 7. This bill requires a person employed in the manufacture of butter, cheese or other dairy products from nonperishable milk, in the distribution of nonperishable milk or cream or in canning or freezing nonperishable agricultural commodities to be given one day of rest in 7, unless the person voluntarily agrees to work without one day of rest in 7. The bill, however, continues the exception to the one day of rest in 7 law for persons employed in the manufacture of butter, cheese or other dairy products from fresh milk, in the distribution of fresh milk or cream or in canning or freezing perishable agricultural commodities.

Under current law, no person may be employed or permitted to work for a period of time during any day, night or week (hours of labor) that is dangerous or prejudicial to the person's life, health, safety or welfare. Current law requires the department of industry, labor and human relations (DILHR) to promulgate rules fixing the hours of labor that are necessary to protect the life, health, safety or welfare of any person.

This bill requires DILHR, in promulgating those rules, to promulgate a rule prohibiting a person employed in the manufacture of butter, cheese or other dairy products, in the distribution of milk or cream or in canning or freezing agricultural commodities from being employed or permitted to work for more than 60 hours in any period of 7 consecutive days, unless the person voluntarily agrees to do so.
