

1995 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 55

March 14, 1996 - Introduced by Senators CHVALA, CLAUSING, BURKE and GROBSCHMIDT, cosponsored by Representatives HANSON, BALDWIN and BOCK. Referred to Committee on State Government Operations and Corrections.

1       Relating to: encouraging employers to facilitate the participation of their employes
2           as elections inspectors.

3           Whereas, participation in the electoral process is a right and a privilege of all 4       Americans; and

5           Whereas, free elections are the foundation of our American democracy; and

6           Whereas, citizens of the United States are encouraged to actively participate 7       in the electoral process as a means of exercising the principles of democracy; and

8           Whereas, citizens are encouraged to participate through voting and serving as 9       elections inspectors; and

10          Whereas, elections inspectors act so as to promote and maintain order at polling 11       sites; and

12          Whereas, elections inspectors promote fair and legitimate polling of electors; 13       and

14          Whereas, a citizen should be encouraged to participate in the electoral process, 15       such as by serving as an elections inspector; now, therefore, be it

16                Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the 17       Wisconsin legislature, in accordance with Wisconsin statute 7.33 (3), encourage

1 employers in the state of Wisconsin to promote the participation of employes in the 2 electoral process through their service as elections inspectors.

3 (END)