2           “SECTION 2e. Nonstatutory provisions.

3           (1) During the 1997-99 fiscal biennium, from the appropriation under section 4           20.370 (2) (da) of the statutes, as created by this act, the department of natural 5           resources shall make a payment to each person who received a waste tire 6           reimbursement grant under sections NR 555.08 to 555.12, Wisconsin Administrative 7           Code, for waste tires used during 1995 if the grant was prorated. The payment may 8           not exceed the amount by which the grant was reduced because it was prorated. The 9           total amount of the payments under this section may not exceed $1,135,700.

10          (2) If funds are available for expenditure during the 1997-99 fiscal biennium
11          from the appropriation under section 20.370 (2) (da) of the statutes, as created by this 12          act, after making the payments under subsection (1), the department shall expend 13          funds from that appropriation for nuisance abatement under section 289.55 of the 14          statutes at tire dumps, as defined in section 289.55 (1) (b) of the statutes, as affected 15          by this act, that contain solid waste resulting from manufacturing tires. The 16          department may not expend more than $400,000 for this purpose.

17          (3) If funds are available for expenditure during the 1997-99 fiscal biennium
18          from the appropriation under section 20.370 (2) (da) of the statutes, as created by this 19          act, after funding the nuisance abatement under subsection (2), the department may 20          expend the funds for nuisance abatement under section 289.55 of the statutes at tire 21          dumps, as defined in section 289.55 (1) (b) of the statutes, as affected by this act, that 22          do not contain solid waste resulting from manufacturing tires.

23          SECTION 2m. Effective dates. This act takes effect on the day after 24          publication, except as follows:
