1997 Assembly Joint Resolution 99

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to: commending the University of Wisconsin–Madison Women’s Volleyball Team for its accomplishments during the 1997 season.

Whereas, the University of Wisconsin–Madison Women’s Volleyball Team completed its best season ever with 30 victories and only 3 loses and was ranked number 5 in the country; and

Whereas, that team was the Big Ten Conference Champions with a 19 and 1 conference record; and

Whereas, in compiling this record, they faced one of the tougher schedules in Wisconsin history, playing 11 teams that participated in the NCAA postseason tournament; and

Whereas, the University of Wisconsin–Madison women’s volleyball coach, John Cook, was named Big Ten Conference Co–coach of the Year; and

Whereas, 2 University of Wisconsin–Madison women were named “All Americans”, 3 were “All District” selections and 4 were named to the All–Big Ten Team; and

Whereas, the University of Wisconsin–Madison Women’s Volleyball Team set a season attendance record of 62,227 spectators and brought excitement to the Field House and a new appreciation of the sport of volleyball; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the legislature of the state of Wisconsin commends the University of Wisconsin–Madison Women’s Volleyball Team for its most successful season in history; and, be it further

Resolved, That the assembly chief clerk shall provide a copy of this joint resolution to John Cook, coach of the University of Wisconsin–Madison Women’s Volleyball Team.
