Budget Recommendation

Paper Ballot

P. 175, Item 1C

Governor: Create nonstatutory language requiring DOC to use $60,000 in 1997-98 from the Department's general program operations appropriation to contract with a consulting firm to study the most cost-effective method to distribute medication to prisoners and the feasibility of contracting with a private health care organization for managed health care services for prisoners.

Senator Buettner-Roessler: This provision should be eliminated and the funding should be used to purchase an Emergency Government/Corrections Mobile Transport Unit. (Next item before the committee)

Motion: Delete governor's recommendation.
