(ANALYSIS)

Beginning January 1, 2000, this bill prohibits a school board from requiring a pupil to wear a bracelet, necklace, or pin, or any similar item, that incorporates the pupil's identification number or that incorporates a bar code or any other form of special personal identification.

Beginning January 1, 2000, current law will prohibit a school board, other than the Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS), or a private school from assigning to a pupil an identification number that incorporates the pupil's social security number. This bill extends this prohibition to the MPS.

(DN)

In re drafting this bill, I noticed that the prohibition on the use of a pupil's social security number in the pupil's identification number (enacted by 1997 Wisconsin Act 128) does not apply to the MPS. I included Milwaukee Public Schools. This I corrected that in this draft. If you wish to delete this change, please let me know.

I also made the provider for an effective date of January 1 2000, or the day after publication, whichever is later, in order to ensure that the provisions in this bill do not become effective before the provisions of that Act 128. OK?
