20 settlement procedures, if any, established by the parties have been exhausted, and 21 the parties are deadlocked with respect to any dispute between them over wages, 22 hours and conditions of employment to be included in a new collective bargaining 23 agreement, either party, or the parties jointly, may petition the commission, in 24 writing, to initiate compulsory, final and binding arbitration, as provided in this 25 paragraph. At the time the petition is filed, the petitioning party shall submit in

1 writing to the other party and the commission its preliminary final offer containing 2 its latest proposals on all issues in dispute, other than the granting or revoking of 3 protective occupation participation status under ch. 40 for county jailers. Within 14 4 calendar days after the date of that submission, the other party shall submit in 5 writing its preliminary final offer on all disputed issues to the petitioning party and 6 the commission, other than the granting or revoking of protective occupation
7 participation status under ch. 40 for county jailers. If a petition is filed jointly, both 8 parties shall exchange their preliminary final offers in writing and submit copies to 9 the commission at the time the petition is filed.

10 SECTION 11. 111.70 (4) (cm) 6. am. of the statutes is amended to read:

11 111.70 (4) (cm) 6. am. Upon receipt of a petition to initiate arbitration, the 12 commission shall make an investigation, with or without a formal hearing, to 13 determine whether arbitration should be commenced. If in determining whether an 14 impasse exists the commission finds that the procedures set forth in this paragraph 15 have not been complied with and such compliance would tend to result in a 16 settlement, it may order such compliance before ordering arbitration. The validity 17 of any arbitration award or collective bargaining agreement shall not be affected by 18 failure to comply with such procedures. Prior to the close of the investigation each 19 party shall submit in writing to the commission its single final offer containing its 20 final proposals on all issues in dispute that are subject to interest arbitration under 21 this subdivision or under subd. 5s. in collective bargaining units to which subd. 5s.
22 applies. If a party fails to submit a single, ultimate final offer, the commission shall 23 close the investigation based on the last written position of the party. The municipal 24 employer may not submit a qualified economic offer under subd. 5s. after the close 25 of the investigation. Such final offers may include only mandatory subjects of 1 bargaining, except that no final offer may contain any proposal relating to the 2 granting or revoking of protective occupation participant status under ch. 40 for 3 county jailers and except that a permissive subject of bargaining may be included in 4 the final offer by a party if the other party does not object and shall then be treated 5 as a mandatory subject. No later than such time, the parties shall also submit to the 6 commission a stipulation, in writing, with respect to all matters which are agreed 7 upon for inclusion in the new or amended collective bargaining agreement. The 8 commission, after receiving a report from its investigator and determining that 9 arbitration should be commenced, shall issue an order requiring arbitration and 10 immediately submit to the parties a list of 7 arbitrators. Upon receipt of such list, 11 the parties shall alternately strike names until a single name is left, who shall be 12 appointed as arbitrator. The petitioning party shall notify the commission in writing 13 of the identity of the arbitrator selected. Upon receipt of such notice, the commission 14 shall formally appoint the arbitrator and submit to him or her the final offers of the 15 parties. The final offers shall be considered public documents and shall be available 16 from the commission. In lieu of a single arbitrator and upon request of both parties, 17 the commission shall appoint a tripartite arbitration panel consisting of one member 18 selected by each of the parties and a neutral person designated by the commission 19 who shall serve as a chairperson. An arbitration panel has the same powers and 20 duties as provided in this section for any other appointed arbitrator, and all 21 arbitration decisions by such panel shall be determined by majority vote. In lieu of 22 selection of the arbitrator by the parties and upon request of both parties, the 23 commission shall establish a procedure for randomly selecting names of arbitrators.

24 Under the procedure, the commission shall submit a list of 7 arbitrators to the 25 parties. Each party shall strike one name from the list. From the remaining 5

1 names, the commission shall randomly appoint an arbitrator. Unless both parties 2 to an arbitration proceeding otherwise agree in writing, every individual whose 3 name is submitted by the commission for appointment as an arbitrator shall be a 4 resident of this state at the time of submission and every individual who is 5 designated as an arbitration panel chairperson shall be a resident of this state at the 6 time of designation.
