2 1. Page 8, line 6: after that line insert:

3 "SECTION SM~~612~~ 100.262 of the statutes is created to read:

4 100.262 Year 2000 failures. (1) In this section:

5 (a) "Electronic computing device" means any computer hardware or software,
6 computer chip, embedded chip, process control equipment or other information
7 system used to capture, store, manipulate or process information, or that controls,
8 monitors or assists in the operation of physical apparatus that relies on automation
9 or digital technology to function.

10 (b) "Processing" includes calculating, comparing, sequencing, displaying or 11 storing.

12 (c) "Year 2000 problem" means a failure in year 2000 processing of an electronic 13 computing device.

1 (d) "Year 2000 processing" means the processing, transmitting or receiving of
2 date data from, into, and between the 20th and 21st centuries and during the years
3 1999 and 2000, and from leap year calculations.

4 (2) No person who manufactures an electronic computing device shall offer for 5 sale in this state an electronic computing device unless it is able to do year 2000
6 processing.

7 (3) No person who sells an electronic computing device that the person alters
8 or modifies from its originally manufactured condition may do so unless the person
9 provides to the buyer of the electronic computing device at the time of sale a written 10 statement of the year 2000 processing capabilities of the electronic computing device.

11 (4) The department or any district attorney may commence an action in the 12 name of the state to recover a forfeiture to the state of not less than $50 nor more than 13 $200 for each violation of this section. Each sale of an electronic computing device
14 in violation of sub. (2) or (3) is a separate violation of this section."
