✓ juvenile court or a

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the disclosure of juvenile records by a municipal court.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, records of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the children's code and the juvenile justice code (juvenile court) and of a municipal court, subject to certain exceptions, are not open to inspection and their contents may not be disclosed except by order of the juvenile court. If, however, school attendance is a condition of a juvenile court dispositional order for a juvenile who is delinquent or in need of protection or services, current law requires the order to specify what constitutes a violation of the condition and to direct the school board of the school district, or the governing body of the private school, in which the juvenile is enrolled to notify the county department of human services or social services that is responsible for supervising the juvenile of any violation of that condition. Current law also requires the juvenile court clerk to notify the school board or governing body of the fact that school attendance is a condition of the juvenile's dispositional order.

This bill requires a dispositional order of the juvenile court or of a municipal court that requires school attendance of a person who is truant or habitually truant to specify what constitutes a violation of that disposition and to direct the school board of the school district or the governing body of the private school, in which the person is enrolled to notify the agency that is responsible for supervising the person or, if the person is not under the supervision of an agency, the juvenile court or municipal court of any violation of that disposition. The bill also requires the juvenile court clerk or the municipal court clerk to notify the school board or governing body of the fact that school attendance is a condition of the person's dispositional order.

Current law requires the juvenile court to open its records of a juvenile for inspection by certain persons under certain circumstances or for certain purposes. Those persons, and circumstances or purposes, include the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the juvenile or the juvenile, if 14[✓] years of age or over, upon request of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or juvenile; any third[✓] person, upon the written permission of the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the juvenile or the juvenile, if 14 years of age or over; and any other juvenile court for purposes of proceedings in that other juvenile court.

This bill requires a municipal court to open its records of a juvenile for inspection by the parent, guardian or legal custodian of a juvenile or the juvenile, if 14 years of age or over, upon request of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or juvenile; by any third person, upon the written permission of the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the juvenile or the juvenile, if 14 years of age or over; or by any other municipal court or city, village or town attorney for purposes of proceedings in that other municipal court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 118.125^x (5) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:
