2 (1) (d) and 100.261 of the statutes; relating to: untrue, deceptive or misleading

6 making an appropriation and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits a person from making any statement or representation with regard to the year 2000 readiness of an electronic computing device which is false, misleading or deceptive. Under the bill, it is false, misleading or deceptive to state or represent that an electronic computing device is able to process, transmit or receive date data from, into and between the 20th and 21st centuries and during the years 1999 and 2000, and from leap year calculations if the electronic computing device cannot do so without modification or alteration.

A person who violates this prohibition may be subject to a forfeiture (civil monetary penalty) of not less than $100 nor more than $10,000. In addition, a person adversely affected by the false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation may bring an action for relief and may be awarded one or more of the following: damages of not less than $500 nor more than twice the amount of actual damages; injunctive or declaratory relief; specific performance; and reasonable attorney fees.

ASSEMBLY BILL 107

In addition, the department of justice at the request of the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection (DATCP) or a district attorney may bring an action to restrain a person from violating the prohibition created in the bill and to award a person damaged by any violation twice the amount of damages the person suffered.

Finally, under the bill DATCP may request any person to provide DATCP with information about the year 2000 readiness of any electronic computing device that the person sells or offers to sell or has ever sold or offered to sell in this state. If a person fails to respond to an information request from DATCP or if the person provides false, misleading or deceptive information to DATCP, then any person adversely affected by the failure of that electronic computing device to be year 2000 ready may bring an action against the person who failed to respond or who responded with false, misleading or deceptive information. The court may award the injured party appropriate relief, including damages of not less than $500 nor more than twice the amount of actual damages, injunctive or declaratory relief, specific performance and reasonable attorney fees.
