Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill may reduce the workload of district attorneys' offices by allowing the DA in the county where the person was convicted to bring a vehicle seizure action. Under current law only the DA in the county where the vehicle was seized may do this. This change may allow for the more efficient use of prosecutorial resources by reducing travel time.

The various types of increased penalties permitted or mandated by the bill will tend to increase the number of cases that go to trial. This will increase the workload of district attorneys' offices.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

None
