3             federal-state relations in Washington, D.C. and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This draft was prepared for the joint legislative council's special committee on capture of federal resources.

The draft requires the department of administration to contract with a ~~private or non-profit~~ consultant to conduct a study of Wisconsin's state-federal relations office in Washington, D.C. and then make recommendations to enhance the state's ability to capture its "fair share" of federal resources in comparison with other states.

In addition to other measures, the consultant would be required to review the lobbying efforts of states that receive more in per capita federal spending than Wisconsin, including the size, budget, personnel and activities of their offices in Washington, D.C. and whether those states also use contract lobbyists in their attempts to get federal funding.

The department of administration shall report the consultant's findings and recommendations to the governor and the legislature on or before January 1, 2001. Finally, the draft appropriates $100,000 in general purpose revenues for the 2000-01 fiscal year to finance the study.

in the Senate ____ or the Assembly  (check only one). Only the requester under whose name the drafting request is entered in the LRB's drafting records may authorize the draft to be submitted. Please allow one day for the preparation of the required copies.

2. REDRAFT. See the changes indicated or attached _____.

A revised draft will be submitted for your approval with changes incorporated.

3. Obtain FISCAL ESTIMATE NOW, prior to introduction _____.

If the analysis indicates that a fiscal estimate is required because the proposal makes an appropriation or increases or decreases existing appropriations or state or general local government fiscal liability or revenues, you have the option to request the fiscal estimate prior to introduction. If you choose to introduce the proposal without the fiscal estimate, the fiscal estimate will be requested automatically upon introduction. It takes about 10 days to obtain a fiscal estimate. Requesting the fiscal estimate prior to introduction retains your flexibility for possible redrafting of the proposal.

If you have any questions regarding the above procedures, please call 266-3561. If you have any questions relating to the attached draft, please feel free to call me.
