Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of natural resources (DNR) must require that a person who is applying for any type of fish or game approval provide DNR with his or her social security number. These include recreational hunting and fishing licenses as well as commercial licenses such as fish dealer and taxidermist permits. DNR must deny the application if the person refuses to provide his or her social security number. DNR then discloses the number to the department of workforce development to determine whether the person is delinquent in child support or other court-ordered family or birth expenses or has failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant that relates to paternity or child support court proceedings. If the person is delinquent or has failed to comply, DNR must deny the application and suspend any current approvals held by the person.

DNR also discloses the social security number to the department of revenue to determine whether the person is delinquent in the payment of certain state taxes. If the person is delinquent, the person must deny the application and revoke any current approvals held by the person.

The bill repeals the provision requiring that an applicant for a fish and game approval provide his or her social security number and that DNR deny (suspend) or revoke or suspend an approval if a person fails to provide his or her number.

DRAFTER'S NOTE
FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-2183/P1dn

1. ~~Attached is a preliminary draft for your review.~~ You have requested a repeal of the provisions created in 1997 Acts 191 and 237 requiring a person to disclose his or her social security number (SSN). Please note that, under the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), each state must require a person's SSN to be recorded on any application for a professional, driver's, occupational, recreational or marriage license, on any records relating to a judgment of divorce, support order or paternity determination and on every death certificate. A state that fails to enact these requirements risks losing federal funding for child and spousal support enforcement. Wisconsin passed 1997 Act 191 to comply with the PRWORA. If enacted, this draft would jeopardize Wisconsin's receipt of federal funds.

2. The following statutes contained SSN requirements before 1997 Acts 191 and 237 became effective. Please review these statutes and let me know if you intend to treat them in this draft: ss. 73.03 (38), 101.87 (1), 103.35 (3m) (a), 214.245 (1), 343.14 (2) (b), 565.30 (5m), 767.085 (1) (a) and 769.311 (1), stats.

3. I did not repeal the SSN language in the following statutes, even though these statutes were treated in 1997 Act 191. None of these statutes requires a person to provide a SSN; rather they regard disclosure of a SSN between agencies, authorities or entities. Please review these statutes and let me know if you intend to repeal them in this draft: ss. 69.20 (3) (f), 49.853 (3) (a), (b), and (4) (a), 69.17, 343.14 (2j) (b), 563.28 (2) and 563.285 (2) (a), stats.

4. This draft repeals SSN requirements that specifically apply to a person involved in a divorce, paternity or child support proceeding. The various agencies that enforce support orders may have difficulty tracking support payments without using a person's SSN. In addition, it is unclear how the department of workforce development will be able to maintain the statewide support lien docket under s. 49.854 (2) (b), stats., without using a person's SSN. Please let me know if you desire any changes to these provisions.

2. Do you want a delayed effective date?

1 based on the failure of the approval applicants or approval holders to provide
2 social security numbers.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau ^{approvals}

Under current law, the department of natural resources (DNR) must require that a person who is applying for any type of fish or game approval provide DNR with his or her social security number. These include recreational hunting and fishing licenses as well as commercial licenses such as fish dealer and taxidermist permits. DNR must deny the application if the person refuses to provide his or her social security number. DNR then discloses the number to the department of workforce development (DWD) so that DWD may determine whether the person is delinquent in child support or other court-ordered family or birth expenses or has failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant that relates to paternity or child support court proceedings. If the person is delinquent or has failed to comply, DNR must deny the application and suspend any current approvals held by the person.

DNR also discloses the social security number to the department of revenue (DOR) so that DOR may determine whether the person is delinquent in the payment of certain state taxes. If the person is delinquent, the person must deny the application and revoke any current approvals held by the person.

The bill repeals the provision requiring that an applicant for a fish or game approval provide his or her social security number and the provision that DNR must deny or suspend an application or revoke or suspend an approval if a person fails to provide his or her number.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-1064/^Adn
MGG:cmh:jf

August 3, 1999

1. You have requested a repeal of the provisions created in 1997 Acts 191 and 237 requiring a person to disclose his or her social security number (SSN). Please note that, under the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), each state must require a person's SSN to be recorded on any application for a professional, driver's, occupational, recreational or marriage license, on any records relating to a judgment of divorce, support order or paternity determination and on every death certificate. A state that fails to enact these requirements risks losing federal funding for child and spousal support enforcement. Wisconsin passed 1997 Act 191 to comply with the PRWORA. If enacted, this draft would jeopardize Wisconsin's receipt of federal funds.

1. JACKET the draft for introduction _____

in the Senate ____ or the Assembly ____ (check only one). Only the requester under whose name the drafting request is entered in the LRB's drafting records may authorize the draft to be submitted. Please allow one day for the preparation of the required copies.

2. REDRAFT. See the changes indicated or attached _____.

A revised draft will be submitted for your approval with changes incorporated.

3. Obtain FISCAL ESTIMATE NOW, prior to introduction _____.

If the analysis indicates that a fiscal estimate is required because the proposal makes an appropriation or increases or decreases existing appropriations or state or general local government fiscal liability or revenues, you have the option to request the fiscal estimate prior to introduction. If you choose to introduce the proposal without the fiscal estimate, the fiscal estimate will be requested automatically upon introduction. It takes about 10 days to obtain a fiscal estimate. Requesting the fiscal estimate prior to introduction retains your flexibility for possible redrafting of the proposal.

If you have any questions regarding the above procedures, please call 266-3561. If you have any questions relating to the attached draft, please feel free to call me.
