7 of protection or services.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

8 SECTION 1. 46.481 (4) of the statutes, as affected by 1999 Wisconsin Act 9, is 9 amended to read:

10 46.481 (4) GRANTS FOR COURT-APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATES. The department 11 shall distribute $50,000 in each fiscal year as grants to court-appointed special 12 advocate programs that are recognized by a ~~county board, by a county department~~

1 ~~under s. 46.22 or 46.23 or, in a county having a population of 500,000 or more, by the~~ 2 ~~department or a licensed child welfare agency under contract with the department~~ 3 chief judge of a judicial administrative district under s. 48.07 (5) to perform advocacy 4 services in proceedings under s. 48.13.

5 SECTION 2.48.07 (5) of the statutes is created to read:

6 48.07 (5) COURT-APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATE PROGRAM. (a) Memorandum of 7 understanding. The court may obtain the services of a court-appointed special 8 advocate program that has been recognized by the chief judge of the judicial 9 administrative district. A chief judge of a judicial administrative district may 10 recognize a court-appointed special advocate program by entering into a 11 memorandum of understanding with the court-appointed special advocate program
12 that specifies the responsibilities of the court-appointed special advocate program 13 and of a court-appointed special advocate designated under s. 48.236 (1). The 14 memorandum of understanding shall specify that the court-appointed special 15 advocate program is responsible for selecting, training, supervising and evaluating 16 the volunteers participating in the program as provided in pars. (b) to (d), that, in 17 addition to any other activities specified in the memorandum of understanding, a 18 volunteer participating in the program may be designated to perform any of the 19 activities specified in s. 48.236 (3) (a) to (c) and that, in addition to any other 20 authority specified in the memorandum of understanding, a volunteer participating 21 in the program may be authorized to exercise any of the authority specified in s.
22 48.236 (4) (a) and (b), unless the parties to the memorandum of understanding 23 determine that a variance from the requirements of pars. (b) to (d), the activities 24 specified in s. 48.236 (3) (a) to (c) or the authority specified in s. 48.236 (4) (a) and (b) 25 is necessary for the efficient administration of the program.

1 (b) Selection. 1. A court-appointed special advocate program may select a 4 background investigation as provided under subd. 2., completes the training 5 required under par. (c) and meets any other qualifications required by the 6 court-appointed special advocate program. A court-appointed special advocate 7 program may refuse to permit to participate in the program any person whose 8 participation in the program might pose a risk, as determined by the 9 court-appointed special advocate program, to the safety of any child.

10 2. On receipt of an application from a prospective court-appointed special 11 advocate, the court-appointed special advocate program, with the assistance of the 12 department of justice, shall conduct a background investigation of the applicant. If 13 the court-appointed special advocate program determines that any information 14 obtained as a result of the background investigation provides a reasonable basis for 15 further investigation, the court-appointed special advocate program may require 16 the applicant to be fingerprinted on 2 fingerprint cards, each bearing a complete set 17 of the applicant's fingerprints. The department of justice may provide for the 18 submission of the fingerprint cards to the federal bureau of investigation for the 19 purposes of verifying the identification of the applicant and obtaining the applicant's
20 criminal arrest and conviction record. The court-appointed special advocate 21 program shall keep confidential all information received from the department of 22 justice and the federal bureau of investigation under this subdivision.

23 (c) Training. A courtappointed special advocate program shall require a 24 volunteer selected under par. (b) to complete a training program before the volunteer 25 may be designated as a court-appointed special advocate under s. 48.236 (1). The 1 training program shall include instruction on recognizing child abuse and neglect, 2 cultural competency, as defined in s. 48.982 (1) (bm), child development, the 3 procedures of the court, permanency planning, the activities of a court-appointed 4 special advocate under s. 48.236 (3) and information gathering and documentation, 5 and shall include observation of a proceeding under s. 48.13. A court-appointed 6 special advocate program shall also require each volunteer to complete continuing 7 training annually.

8 (d) Supervision and evaluation. The supervisory support staff of a 9 court-appointed special advocate program shall be easily accessible to the 10 volunteers of the program, shall hold regular case conferences with those volunteers 11 to review case progress and shall conduct annual performance evaluations of those 12 volunteers. A court-appointed special advocate program shall provide its staff and 13 volunteers with written guidelines describing the policies, practices and procedures 14 of the program and the responsibilities of a volunteer with the program.

15 SECTION 3. 48.23 (3m) of the statutes is amended to read:

16 48.23 (3m) GUARDIANS AD LITEM OR COUNSEL FOR ABUSED OR NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

17 The court shall appoint counsel for any child alleged to be in need of protection or 18 services under s. 48.13 (3), (3m), (10), (10m) and (11), except that if the child is less 11 proceeding.

12 SECTION 6. 48.236 of the statutes is created to read:

13 48.236 Court-appointed special advocate. (1) DESIGNATION. In any 14 proceeding under s. 48.13 in which the court finds that providing the services of a 16 may request a court-appointed special advocate program to designate a person who 17 meets the qualifications specified in sub. (2) as a court-appointed special advocate 18 to undertake the activities specified in sub. (3). A court-appointed special advocate 19 does not become a party to the proceeding and, as a nonparty, may not make motions 20 or call or cross-examine witnesses. A designation under this subsection terminates 21 when the jurisdiction of the court over the child under s. 48.13 terminates, unless the 22 court discharges the court-appointed special advocate sooner.

23 (2) QUALIFICATIONS. A court-appointed special advocate shall be a volunteer 24 who has been selected and trained as provided in the memorandum of understanding 3 court-appointed special advocate in that proceeding.

4 (3) ACTMTIES. A court-appointed special advocate may be designated under 5 sub. (1) to perform any of the following activities:

7 designation is made, the child's family and any other person residing in the same 8 home as the child and provide that information and those observations to the court 9 in the form of written reports or, if requested by the court, oral testimony.

10 (b) Maintain regular contact with the child for whom the designation is made; 11 monitor the appropriateness and safety of the environment of the child, the extent 12 to which the child and the child's family are complying with any consent decree or 13 dispositional order of the court and with any permanency plan under s. 48.38, and 14 the extent to which any agency that is required to provide services for the child and 15 the child's family under a consent decree, dispositional order or permanency plan is 8 (7) (a) llr. and pupil records under s. 118.125 (2) (L). The order shall also require the 9 custodian of any report or record specified in this paragraph to permit the 10 court-appointed special advocate to inspect the report or record on presentation by 11 the court-appointed special advocate of a copy of the order. A court-appointed 12 special advocate that obtains access to a report or record described in this paragraph 13 shall keep the information contained in the report or record confidential and may 14 disclose that information only to the court. If a court-appointed special advocate 15 discloses any information to the court under this paragraph, the court-appointed 16 special advocate shall also disclose that information to all parties to the proceeding.

17 (b) Observe the child who is the subject of the proceeding and the child's living 18 environment and, if the child is old enough to communicate, interview the child;

25 caregiver if necessary to obtain any information that is relevant to the subject of the 1 proceeding, except that a court-appointed special advocate may enter a child's home 2 only with the permission of the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other 3 caregiver or after obtaining a court order permitting the court-appointed special 4 advocate to do so. A court-appointed special advocate who obtains any information 5 under this paragraph shall keep the information confidential and may disclose that 6 information only to the court. If a court-appointed special advocate discloses any 7 information to the court under this paragraph, the court-appointed special advocate 8 shall also disclose that information to all parties to the proceeding.

9 (c) Exercise any other authority that is consistent with the memorandum of 10 understanding entered into under s. 48.07 (5) (a).

11 (5) IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY. A volunteer court-appointed special advocate 12 designated under sub. (1) or an employe of a court-appointed special advocate 13 program recognized under s. 48.07 (5) is immune from civil liability for any act or 14 omission of the volunteer or employe occurring while acting within the scope of his 6 before the proceeding. Persons and unborn children, by their guardians ad litem, 7 entitled to inspect the records may obtain copies of the records with the permission 8 of the custodian of the records or with permission of the court. The court may instruct 9 counsel, a guardian ad litem or a court-appointed special advocate not to disclose 10 specified items in the materials to the child or the parent, or to the expectant mother,

8 if that portion of the hearing deals with sensitive personal information of the child 9 or the child's family or if the court determines that excluding the foster parent,

11 the child. Except in a proceeding under s. 48.375 (7), any other person the court finds 12 to have a proper interest in the case or in the work of the court, including a member 13 of the bar, may be admitted by the court.

5 SECTION 2. 48.07 (5) of the statutes is created to read:

6 48.07 (5) COURT-APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATE PROGRAM. (a) Memorandum of 7 understanding. The court may obtain the services of a court-appointed special 8 advocate program that has been recognized by the chief judge of the judicial 9 administrative district. A chief judge of a judicial administrative district may 10 recognize a court-appointed special advocate program by entering into a 11 memorandum of understanding with the court-appointed special advocate program
12 that specifies the responsibilities of the court-appointed special advocate program 13 and of a court-appointed special advocate designated under s. 48.236 (1). The 14 memorandum of understanding shall specify that the court-appointed special 15 advocate program is responsible for selecting, training, supervising and evaluating 16 the volunteers and employes of the program who are authorized to provide 17 court-appointed special advocate services as provided in pars. (b) to (d), that, in 18 addition to any other activities specified in the memorandum of understanding, a 19 volunteer or employe of the program who is authorized to provide court-appointed 20 special advocate services may be designated to perform any of the activities specified 21 in s. 48.236 (3) (a) to (c) and that, in addition to any other authority specified in the 22 memorandum of understanding, a volunteer or employe of the program who is 23 authorized to provide court-appointed special advocate services may be authorized

2 authority specified in s. 48.236 (4) (a) and (b) is necessary for the efficient 3 administration of the program.

12 court-appointed special advocate program, to the safety of any child.

13 2. On receipt of an application from a prospective court-appointed special 14 advocate, the court-appointed special advocate program, with the assistance of the 15 department of justice, shall conduct a background investigation of the applicant. If 16 the court-appointed special advocate program determines that any information 17 obtained as a result of the background investigation provides a reasonable basis for 18 further investigation, the court-appointed special advocate program may require 19 the applicant to be fingerprinted on 2 fingerprint cards, each bearing a complete set 20 of the applicant's fingerprints. The department of justice may provide for the
22 purposes of verifying the identification of the applicant and obtaining the applicant's
23 criminal arrest and conviction record. The court-appointed special advocate 24 program shall keep confidential all information received from the department of 25 justice and the federal bureau of investigation under this subdivision.

1 (c) Training. A court-appointed special advocate program shall require a 2 volunteer or employe of the program selected under par. (b) to complete a training 3 program before the volunteer or employe may be designated as a court-appointed 4 special advocate under s. 48.236 (1). The training program shall include instruction

18 special advocate program shall provide its staff and volunteers with written 19 guidelines describing the policies, practices and procedures of the program and the 20 responsibilities of a volunteer or employe of the program who is authorized to provide 21 court-appointed special advocate services.

18 the court-appointed special advocate of a copy of the order. A court-appointed 19 special advocate that obtains access to a report or record described in this paragraph 20 shall keep the information contained in the report or record confidential and may 15 shall also disclose that information to all parties to the proceeding.

17 understanding entered into under s. 48.07 (5) (a).
