- "(3) This section does not provide immunity to a person who provides obstetric and gynecological services to a woman if the person does not do all of the following:
- (a) Provide all of the tests and procedures that the standard of care required of a reasonable practitioner of obstetric and gynecological services to women would require.
- (b) Provide the woman with the results of all of the tests and procedures required under par. (a) in a manner that allows the woman to make an informed decision regarding future health care procedures.".
