Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate This bill removes the requirement that the social security number of parties be included in orders for support and divorce judgments involving maintenance or child support. It also removes the requirement that the social security numbers of children of the parties must be filed. While this has no direct effect upon circuit court operations it is expected that income assignments will be difficult for employers to honor and that the amount of child support collected will definitely be reduced.
