Please draft ASA1-AB 620. I would first like a preliminary draft - not ready for introduction - if possible.

I have deleted portions of AA6-AB 620, and portions of AB-620. The existing portions of the amendment and the original bill, when combined, should be the resultant substitute amendment I am looking for.

This is a high-priority request as far as we are concerned. If it is not possible to have a preliminary draft no later than Tuesday afternoon, please let me know.

Please call me with questions, comments or concerns. Thank you for your assistance.

ASSEMBLY BILL 620

1 earnings garnishment retail theft and recovery in actions involving worthless
2 checks.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill increases the jurisdictional limit in small claims actions from $5,000 to $10,000.

Current law provides for limited payment of attorney fees by the unsuccessful litigant to the successful litigant in all civil actions. In a civil action concerning money damages or property, the successful litigant is entitled to attorney fees based on the following schedule:

Amount recovered/value of property	Fee
$1,000 or more	$100
$500 to $999.99	$ 50
$200 to $499.99	$ 25
Under $200	$ 15

This bill changes the amount of attorney fees allowed in these cases as follows:

Amount recovered/value of property	Fee
Greater than $10,000	$750
$5,000 to $10,000	$500
$1,000 to $4,999.99	$300
Under $1,000	$100

The bill also increases the amount of attorney fees recoverable in civil cases that do not involve money damages or property from a maximum of $100 to a maximum of $500.

Under current law, in civil cases certain disbursements, such as those made for the costs of certified copies of public papers or records, postage and depositions, are recoverable by the successful litigant, but are limited to $50 for each item. This bill expands the list of disbursements that are recoverable to include such items as overnight delivery and facsimile transmissions and increases the limit to $100 for each item. The bill also increases the amount that a successful litigant may recover for the cost of each expert witness testifying on behalf of the successful litigant from $100 to $300 and for filing a motion from $50 to $300.

Under current law, the earnings exemption in earnings garnishment actions provides that a debtor's earnings are totally exempt if the debtor's income is below the poverty line or if the garnishment would cause that result. Under this bill, a debtor's earnings are totally exempt if the debtor's income is below the poverty line, but if the garnishment would result in the debtor's income being below the poverty line, the amount garnished is limited to the debtor's income in excess of the poverty line. The bill requires debtors who claim earnings exemptions to submit with their answer to the garnishment the schedules and worksheets that were given to them with the garnishment, plus any supporting documents. The bill restricts the exemption from execution for depository accounts to those depository accounts that are for the debtor's personal use.

The bill allows any person to assign a debt owed to that person for consideration. The bill requires the person assigned a debt to notify the debtor within 30 days of that assignment. Under the bill, if the notice is not sent within 30 days, the assignment is ineffective until the notice is sent. The person assigned the debt may sue to recover the debt. The court may allow the payment of reasonable attorney fees in those suits.

Under current law, a person who suffers damage as a result of certain crimes against property may sue the person that caused the damage. Currently, the person may recover treble damages plus the costs of the investigation and litigation. Under the bill, the person may recover his or her actual damages, including the value of the damaged property, the court costs, the costs of the investigation and litigation, including attorney fees and the value of the time spent by an employee, and exemplary damages of not more than three times the amount of actual damages. Any recovery is reduced by any amount received as restitution.

Current law provides that the total amount a person may receive for exemplary damages and attorney fees in an action to recover damages resulting from the issuance of a worthless check or retail theft is limited to $500. This bill provides that the $500 limit applies for each violation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

ASSEMBLY BILL 620

(1) earnings garnishment retail theft and recovery in actions involving worthless
2 checks.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill increases the jurisdictional limit in small claims actions from $5,000 to $10,000.

Current law provides for limited payment of attorney fees by the unsuccessful litigant to the successful litigant in all civil actions. In a civil action concerning money damages or property, the successful litigant is entitled to attorney fees based on the following schedule:

Amount recovered / value of property	Fee
$1,000 or more	$100
$500 to $999.99	$ 50
$200 to $499.99	$ 25
Under $200	$ 15

This bill changes the amount of attorney fees allowed in these cases as follows:

Amount recovered / value of property	Fee
Greater than $10,000	$750
$5,000 to $10,000	$500
$1,000 to $4,999.99	$300
Under $1,000	$100

The bill also increases the amount of attorney fees recoverable in civil cases that do not involve money damages or property from a maximum of $100 to a maximum of $500.

Under current law, in civil cases certain disbursements, such as those made for the costs of certified copies of public papers or records, postage and depositions, are recoverable by the successful litigant, but are limited to $50 for each item. This bill expands the list of disbursements that are recoverable to include such items as overnight delivery and facsimile transmissions and increases the limit to $100 for each item. The bill also increases the amount that a successful litigant may recover for the cost of each expert witness testifying on behalf of the successful litigant from $100 to $300 and for filing a motion from $50 to $300.

Under current law, the earnings exemption in earnings garnishment actions provides that a debtor's earnings are totally exempt if the debtor's income is below the poverty line or if the garnishment would cause that result. Under this bill, a debtor's earnings are totally exempt if the debtor's income is below the poverty line, but if the garnishment would result in the debtor's income being below the poverty line, the amount garnished is limited to the debtor's income in excess of the poverty line. The bill requires debtors who claim earnings exemptions to submit with their answer to the garnishment the schedules and worksheets that were given to them with the garnishment, plus any supporting documents. The bill restricts the exemption from execution for depository accounts to those depository accounts that are for the debtor's personal use.

The bill allows any person to assign a debt owed to that person for consideration. The bill requires the person assigned a debt to notify the debtor within 30 days of that assignment. Under the bill, if the notice is not sent within 30 days, the assignment is ineffective until the notice is sent. The person assigned the debt may sue to recover the debt. The court may allow the payment of reasonable attorney fees in those suits.

Under current law, a person who suffers damage as a result of certain crimes against property may sue the person that caused the damage. Currently, the person may recover treble damages plus the costs of the investigation and litigation. Under the bill, the person may recover his or her actual damages, including the value of the damaged property, the court costs, the costs of the investigation and litigation, including attorney fees and the value of the time spent by an employe, and exemplary damages of not more than three times the amount of actual damages. Any recovery is reduced by any amount received as restitution.

Current law provides that the total amount a person may receive for exemplary damages and attorney fees in an action to recover damages resulting from the issuance of a worthless check or retail theft is limited to $500. This bill provides that the $500 limit applies for each violation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
