1999 BILL

for insert

1 AN ACT to amend 29.563 (14) (intro.); and to create 29.56 and 29.563 (14) (am)
2 of the statutes; relating to: transaction fees for issuing fishing and game
3 approvals. INS ANL

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, both the department of natural resources (DNR) and the agents that DNR appoints or contracts with to issue fish and game licenses and stamps (agents) collect an issuing fee with each license or stamp, which is added to the base fee charged for the license or stamp. Under current law, the issuing fee for a license is 75 cents, and for a stamp it is 25 cents. An agent who is not a DNR employe keeps 50 cents of each license issuing fee and remits the balance of 25 cents to DNR. For stamps, an agent keeps 15 cents of each issuing fee and remits 10 cents to DNR. If a license or stamp is issued directly by an employe of DNR, DNR retains the entire issuing fee.

Also, under current law, DNR may establish a handling fee to cover long-distance handling costs and in-person credit transaction costs that are incurred in issuing fish and game approvals. The amount of the fee is established by rule by DNR. DNR may collect this fee for approvals that DNR itself issues and may also allow agents to collect the fee.

INS ANL

requires This bill allows agents to collect an additional fee, which is called a transaction fee, in issuing fish and game licenses and stamps and bonus deer hunting permits (fish and game approvals). Under the bill, an agent may establish the amount of the fee that the agent will charge, but the fee may not exceed $3. An agent may establish

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of natural resources (DNR) appoints agents to issue certain fish and game licenses and stamps and bonus deer hunting permits. Both DNR and the agents collect an issuing fee for each of these licenses, stamps and permits. The issuing fee is added to the base fee charged for the license, stamp or permit. Under current law, the issuing fee for a license is 75 cents, for a stamp it is 25 cents and for a bonus deer hunting permit it is 75 cents. An agent who is not a DNR employe keeps 50 cents of each license issuing fee and remits the balance of 25 cents to DNR. For stamps, the agent keeps 15 cents of each issuing fee and remits 10 cents to DNR. For bonus deer hunting permits, the agent keeps 50 cents of each issuing fee and remits 25 cents to DNR. If a ~~fish and game~~ approval is issued directly by an employe of DNR, DNR retains the entire issuing fee.
