- 1 AN ACT to amend 71.07 (5) (a) 15.; and to create 71.05 (6) (b) 31. of the statutes;
- 2 relating to: creating an individual income tax subtract modification for
- amounts spent on medical insurance premiums by certain individuals.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, there is an individual income tax deduction for 100% of the amount paid by a person for a long–term care insurance policy that covers the person and his or her spouse.

This bill creates an individual income tax deduction for 100% of the amount paid by an individual for a medicare supplement policy that covers the individual and his or her spouse.

This bill will be referred to the joint survey committee on tax exemptions for a detailed analysis, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 71.05 (6) (b) 31. of the statutes is created to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 848

71.05 (6) (b) 31. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1999, an amount paid by an individual for a medicare supplement policy for the individual and his or her spouse, calculated as follows:

- a. One hundred percent of the amount paid by the individual for a medicare supplement policy. In this subdivision, "medicare" means 42 USC 1395 to 1395ss and "medicare supplement policy" means a disability insurance policy or certificate advertised, marketed or designed primarily to supplement benefits under medicare for the hospital, medical or surgical expenses of persons eligible for medicare that covers the individual and his or her spouse.
- b. From the amount calculated under subd. 31. a., subtract the amounts deducted from gross income for a medicare supplement policy in the calculation of federal adjusted gross income.
- c. For an individual who is a nonresident or part–year resident of this state, multiply the amount calculated under subd. 31. a. or b., by a fraction the numerator of which is the individual's wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business that are taxable by this state and the denominator of which is the individual's total wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business. In this subd. 31. c., for married persons filing separately "wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business" means the separate wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business of each spouse, and for married persons filing jointly "wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business" means the total wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business of both spouses.

ASSEMBLY BILL 848

d. Reduce the amount calculated under subd. 31. a., b. or c. to the individual's aggregate wages, salary, tips, unearned income and net earnings from a trade or business that are taxable by this state.
