in proposed s. 421.202 (7m)
and the scope provision
in proposed s. 435.102 (1)

Senator Chvala:

The attached bill is not identical to the rent-to-own provisions contained in Assembly Amendment 2 to Assembly Substitute Amendment 1 to AB-131 (budget amendment). I was able to devote more time to the bill than I was able to devote to drafting the budget amendment. As a result, the bill is more refined and consistent with current drafting style. I have tried to make all changes consistent with my understanding of the underlying intent. In particular, please note the following:

1. The budget amendment excluded a rent-to-own agreement from the Wisconsin Consumer Act (consumer act) and also specifically exempted a rent-to-own agreement from certain definitions under the consumer act. Because the exclusion ~~make~~ these definitional exemptions unnecessary, the bill does not contain the definitional exemptions. In addition, it appears as though, under the budget amendment, the assignment-of-earnings provision of the consumer act actually was intended to apply to a creditor under a rent-to-own agreement. See proposed s. 435.602 (4) in the budget amendment. Rather than make the exclusion from the consumer act ambiguous, the bill creates an assignment of earnings provision that specifically applies to the rent-to-own chapter. See proposed s. 435.606.

2. The budget amendment specified several transactions that were specifically excluded from the rent-to-own chapter. See proposed s. 435.102 (2) in the budget amendment. However, the definition of "rent-to-own agreement" itself eliminates three of these excluded transactions from the rent-to-own chapter. As a result, the list of excluded transactions in proposed s. 435.102 (2) is shorter than the list contained in the budget amendment.

3. The registration requirement in the bill raises two issues. First, the bill does not permit the department of financial institutions (DFI) to deny a rental-purchase company's registration. The bill does not require DFI to review a registration and does not specify any standards for DFI to apply when a rental-purchase company submits a registration. Although the bill, in proposed s. 435.304 (1) (b), permits DFI to suspend or revoke a registration if the department becomes aware of a fact that "would have warranted the department's refusal to honor the registration", it is unclear what facts meet this requirement.

Second, the bill permits a rental-purchase company to operate for 30 days before registering. Although this procedure is similar to registration language contained in the consumer act, the procedure may cause difficulties in enforcement. You may want to consider requiring a rental-purchase company to obtain a valid registration before conducting business in this state and allow a transitional period of 30 days after the bill's effective date for existing rental-purchase companies to register.

4. The bill makes the administrative review procedure in proposed s. 435.304 (2)(c) consistent with s. 227.42 (1), stats., by requiring all conditions under s. 227.42 (1) (a) to (d) to be satisfied in order for a contested case hearing to be held.

5. The budget amendment contained a liability exemption for any advertiser that runs a rent-to-own agreement advertisement that violates proposed s. 435.502 (1). The bill clarifies that the requirements of s. 435.502 (1) only apply to a rental-purchase company. Thus, the bill eliminates the liability exemption.

6. The budget amendment required a rent-to-own advertisement to state "that the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the total dollar amount of payments necessary to acquire ownership is not paid". The bill uses uniform terminology and, as a result, under the bill this disclosure refers to the lessee failing to make "all periodic rental payments or other payments necessary to acquire ownership". Please let me know if this disclosure is not sufficient.

7. Please review proposed s. 435.603, regarding reduced periodic rental payments due to reduced income. It was unclear whether you intend the eligibility requirement in proposed s. 435.603 (1) (a) 1. to refer to 50% of the total dollar amount or of the total number of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership. The bill requires a lessee to have paid more than 50% of the total number of periodic rental payments.

Proposed s. 435.603 requires a reduction in monthly income. The submitted language did not specify a time-frame for measuring the required reduction.

Proposed s. 435.603 (3) clarifies that a rental-purchase company may restore the amount of periodic rental payments due if the lessee's income is fully restored.

The submitted language did not require any notification of a change in the amount or number of periodic rental payments under proposed s. 435.603. The bill requires a rental-purchase company to notify a lessee of these changes ~~and requires written notification if the change is an increase in the amount or number of periodic rental payments.~~ See proposed s. 435.603 (5). Let me know if this provision is not consistent with your intent.

8. The budget amendment prohibited the use of force or violence against a lessee's dependents when attempting to collect a debt. In order to remain consistent with other provisions, the bill refers, instead, to any person related to a lessee. See proposed s. 435.605 (1).

With certain exceptions, the budget amendment also prohibits a rental-purchase company from communicating with a lessee's employer "except as permitted by statute". This type of overbroad reference is not allowed under Joint Rule 52 (6). As a result, the bill eliminates this language. See proposed s. 435.605 (4).

The bill also clarifies the prohibition against threatening to sue a lessee. Please review proposed s. 435.605 (10), as compared with proposed s. 435.602 (10) in the budget amendment.

9. The bill does not specify a penalty that applies to a rental-purchase company that engages in business without a required registration. Without a specific penalty, this violation is subject to a forfeiture of up to $200 under s. 939.61, stats.

10. The bill contains a five-month delayed effective date, in order to allow DFI time to promulgate the rules required under the bill. Under the bill, DFI must submit proposed rules no later than the first day of the third month beginning after publication. An eight-month or twelve-month delayed effective date, along with a six-month time period for the submission of proposed rules, may be more feasible.

Reference Bureau

This bill exempts certain leases from the consumer act and creates a new chapter for the purpose of regulating these leases and the businesses that rent property to individuals under these leases. The primary aspects of the bill are as follows:

Scope

The bill regulates the activities of a rental-purchase company, which is defined in the bill as any person who regularly provides the use of personal property through the consumer act, the procedure may cause difficulties in enforcement. You may want to consider requiring a rental-purchase company to obtain a valid registration before conducting business in this state and allow a transitional period of 30 days after the bill's effective date for existing rental-purchase companies to register.

→ THERE CURRENTLY EXISTS SOME UNCERTAINTY AS TO WHETHER SOME LEASES OF 4 MONTHS OR LESS ~~OR LESS~~ AND WHICH ~~ARE~~ ALLOW THE CUSTOMER TO BECOME THE OWNER OF THE RENTED PROPERTY ARE SUBJECT TO THE CONSUMER ACT.

4. The bill makes the administrative review procedure in proposed s. 435.304 (2) (c) consistent with s. 227.42 (1), stats., by requiring all conditions under s. 227.42 (1) (a) to (d) to be satisfied in order for a contested case hearing to be held.

5. The budget amendment contained a liability exemption for any advertiser that runs a rent-to-own agreement advertisement that violates proposed s. 435.502 (1). The bill clarifies that the requirements of s. 435.502 (1) only apply to a rental-purchase company. Thus, the bill eliminates the liability exemption.

6. The budget amendment required a rent-to-own advertisement to state "that the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the total dollar amount of payments necessary to acquire ownership is not paid". The bill uses uniform terminology and, as a result, under the bill this disclosure refers to the lessee failing to make "all periodic rental payments or other payments necessary to acquire ownership". Please let me know if this disclosure is not sufficient.

7. Please review proposed s. 435.603, regarding reduced periodic rental payments due to reduced income. It was unclear whether you intend the eligibility requirement in proposed s. 435.603 (1) (a) 1. to refer to 50% of the total dollar amount or of the total number of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership. The bill requires a lessee to have paid more than 50% of the total number of periodic rental payments.

Proposed s. 435.603 requires a reduction in monthly income. The submitted language did not specify a time-frame for measuring the required reduction.

Proposed s. 435.603 (3) clarifies that a rental-purchase company may restore the amount of periodic rental payments due if the lessee's income is fully restored.

← The submitted language did not require any notification of a change in the amount or number of periodic rental payments under proposed s. 435.603. The bill requires a rental-purchase company to notify a lessee of these changes. See proposed s. 435.603 (5). Let me know if this provision is not consistent with your intent.

8. The budget amendment prohibited the use of force or violence against a lessee's dependents when attempting to collect a debt. In order to remain consistent with other provisions, the bill refers, instead, to any person related to a lessee. See proposed s. 435.605 (1).

With certain exceptions, the budget amendment also prohibits a rental-purchase company from communicating with a lessee's employer "except as permitted by statute". This type of overbroad reference is not allowed under Joint Rule 52 (6). As a result, the bill eliminates this language. See proposed s. 435.605 (4).

The bill also clarifies the prohibition against threatening to sue a lessee. Please review proposed s. 435.605 (10), as compared with proposed s. 435.602 (10) in the budget amendment.

435.501 Price cards displayed. (1) PRICE CARDS; GENERALLY. Except as provided under sub. (2), a rental-purchase company shall display a card or tag that clearly and conspicuously states all of the following information on or next to any property displayed or offered by the rental-purchase company for rent under a rent-to-own agreement:

8 435.603 Reduced periodic rental payment due to reduced income. (1)
9 REDUCTION IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS; REQUIRED EVIDENCE. (a)
10 Reduction in amount of periodic rental payments. If a lessee's monthly income is 11 reduced by 25% or more due to pregnancy, disability, involuntary job loss or 12 involuntary reduction in the amount of hours worked or wages earned, the 13 rental-purchase company shall reduce the amount of each periodic rental payment
14 due under the rent-to-own agreement by the same percentage that the lessee's
15 monthly income is reduced or by 50%, whichever is less, for the period of time during 16 which the lessee's income is reduced. This subsection only applies if all of the 17 following conditions are satisfied:

18 1. The total number of periodic rental payments made by the lessee under the 19 rent-to-own agreement equals more than 50% of the total ^{DELETA AMOUNT} number of periodic rental
20 payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

21 2. The lessee has provided the rental-purchase company with reasonable
22 evidence of the amount and cause of the reduction in the lessee's monthly income.

23 (b) Evidence of continued reduction in income. At reasonable intervals after

3 (2) INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
4 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental
5 payment under sub. (1) (a), the rental-purchase company may increase the total
6 number of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental
7 property.

8 (3) INCREASE IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
9 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental
10 payment under sub. (1) (a) and if, subsequently, the lessee's monthly income is fully 11 ~~restored~~ ^{restored}, the rental-purchase company may increase the amount of each periodic 12 rental payment due after the date on which the lessee's monthly income is fully
13 restored. BY THE SAME PERCENTAGE THAT THE INCOME IS INCREASED

14 (4) LIMITATION ON INCREASES. If a rental-purchase company, under sub. (2) or 15 (3), increases the amount or number of periodic rental payments due under a
16 rent-to-own agreement, the increase only affects the rights or duties of the lessee
17 to the extent authorized in sub. (2) or (3). No rental-purchase company, acting under 18 sub. (2) or (3), may increase the total dollar amount of periodic rental payments
19 necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property, or the amount of a periodic
20 rental payment, to greater than the amount disclosed in the rent-to-own agreement.

5 (c) Notice of increase in amount of payments. Written notice of any increase in
6 the amount of a periodic rental payment under sub. (3) before the date on which the
7 first increased payment is due.

8 435.604 Default and right to cure. (1) DEFAULT; GENERALLY. A lessee is in
9 default under a rent-to-own agreement if any of the following applies:

10 (a) The lessee fails to return the rental property within 7 days after the date
11 on which the last term for which a periodic rental payment was made expires, unless
12 the lessee has exercised an early-purchase option or has made all periodic rental

1 AN ACT to create 409.104 (12m), 421.202 (7m) and chapter 435 of the statutes;
2 relating to: regulating rental-purchase companies and granting rule-making
3 authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a consumer credit transaction that is entered into for personal, family or household purposes is generally subject to the Wisconsin Consumer Act (consumer act). The consumer act grants consumers certain rights and remedies and contains notice and disclosure requirements and prohibitions relating to consumer credit transactions. Currently, a consumer lease that has a term of more than four months is among the consumer credit transactions that are subject to the consumer act. In addition, the consumer act applies to any other consumer lease, if the lessee pays or agrees to pay at least an amount that is substantially equal to the value of the leased property and if the lessee will become, or for not more than a nominal additional payment has the option to become, the owner of the leased property.

This bill exempts certain consumer leases from the consumer act and creates a new chapter for the purpose of regulating these leases and the businesses that rent property to individuals under these leases. The primary aspects of the bill are as follows:

Scope

The bill regulates the activities of a rental-purchase company, which is defined in the bill as any person who regularly provides the use of personal property through

rent-to-own agreements and to whom rental payments are initially payable under a particular rent-to-own agreement. With certain exceptions, an agreement qualifies as a rent-to-own agreement under the bill if, among other things, the rental property is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes; the agreement has an initial term of four months or less and is automatically renewable with each payment after the initial term; the agreement does not require the lessee to renew the agreement beyond the initial term; and the agreement permits, but does not require, the lessee to acquire ownership of the personal property. Under the bill, a rent-to-own agreement is not subject to any laws relating to a security interest or lease under the Uniform Commercial Code.

Certain transactions are specifically excluded, however, from the new chapter. These exclusions include a lease or bailment of personal property that is incidental to the lease of real property; a credit sale, as defined in the federal consumer credit protection laws; and a motor vehicle lease.

Administration

The bill requires every rental-purchase company doing business in this state to register with the department of financial institutions (department) and pay a registration fee. The bill permits the department to examine the books and records of a rental-purchase company to determine compliance with the new chapter. The department may suspend or revoke a rental-purchase company's registration if the rental-purchase company violates the new chapter and the violation is not isolated or inadvertent, if the rental-purchase company fails to pay the registration fee or if the department becomes aware of a fact that would be grounds for the department's refusal to honor the rental-purchase company's registration. If certain conditions are satisfied, a rental-purchase company may appeal an order of the department that suspends or revokes the rental-purchase company's registration.

Provisions of rent-to-own agreements

The bill requires every rent-to-own agreement to contain all of the following provisions, to the extent applicable:

- (1) A description of the rental property.
- (2) The cost of purchasing the rental property on the date on which the rent-to-own agreement is executed.
- (3) A statement indicating that it may cost less to purchase the rental property from a retailer other than the rental-purchase company.
- (4) The amount of the periodic rental payment.
- (5) The amount of any payment due when the rent-to-own agreement is executed or the rental property is delivered.
- (6) The total dollar amount, total number and due dates of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.
- (7) A statement indicating that the total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership does not include other, separately identified, charges that the rental-purchase company may assess.
- (8) A summary of the lessee's early purchase option.
- (9) A description of the lessee's responsibility in the event of theft of or damage to the rental property.

BILL

(10) A statement identifying the party that is responsible for service and maintenance of the rental property and a statement regarding any warranty that covers the rental property.

(11) A statement that the lessee may terminate the rental-purchase agreement at any time, without penalty, by surrendering the rental property in good repair ~~and~~ ✓

~~paying any past-due rental payments, fees and charges.~~

(12) A description of the lessee's right to reinstate the rental-purchase agreement.

(13) A statement indicating that the lessee does not own the rental property and will not own the property until exercising an early-purchase option or making all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership.

The bill also prohibits certain provisions from being placed in a rent-to-own agreement. For example, under the bill, a rent-to-own agreement may not include a confession of judgment, a provision granting the rental-purchase company a security interest in property other than the rental property, a provision granting the rental-purchase company permission to enter the lessee's premises or commit a breach of the peace in repossessing the rental property, a waiver of any defense or counterclaim or any provision of the new chapter, a provision requiring rental payments totaling more than the total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership or a provision requiring the purchase of insurance from the rental-purchase company to insure the rental property. Several of these prohibitions are similar to prohibitions contained in the consumer act.

Disclosure

All required provisions of a rent-to-own agreement must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed to the lessee in at least eight-point standard type on the face of the rent-to-own agreement. As under the consumer act, the bill requires the rental-purchase company to provide the lessee, or one lessee if there are multiple lessees under the same agreement, with a copy of the executed rent-to-own agreement. In addition, upon the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase company must provide the lessee with a receipt for any payment made by the lessee. Under the consumer act, a payment receipt must be provided without request, unless the method of payment itself is evidence of payment. With certain exceptions, upon the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase company must also provide the lessee or a person designated by the lessee with a copy of the lessee's payment history.

Related transactions

Under the bill, a rental-purchase company must offer an early-purchase option to a lessee and may offer a liability waiver to a lessee. The terms of a liability waiver and the fact that the lessee is not required to purchase the waiver must be disclosed to the lessee in writing. The fee for the liability waiver may not equal more than 10% of the rental payment due under the rent-to-own agreement.

Marketing activities

With certain exceptions, the bill requires a rental-purchase company to display a card or tag on or next to any property offered for rent, indicating whether the property is new or used and indicating the cash price of the property, the amount of the rental payment and the term over which the rental payment must be made and the total number and total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property. In addition, a rental-purchase company must ensure that an advertisement for a rent-to-own agreement that refers to the amount of a payment for any property, and to the right to acquire ownership of that property, also states that the advertisement is for a rent-to-own agreement and that the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the lessee fails to make all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership. The advertisement must also include the total number and total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property. The provisions relating to advertising, however, do not apply to an in-store display or an advertisement published in the yellow pages or similar business directory. The consumer act does not contain a similar provision regulating the manner in which consumer credit is marketed, although the consumer act does prohibit false, misleading and deceptive advertising of certain products.

Similar to the consumer act, the bill prohibits a rental-purchase company from inducing an individual to enter into a rent-to-own agreement by giving or offering to give the individual a rebate or discount in consideration of the individual's giving the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees, if the earning of the rebate or discount is contingent upon the occurrence of any event that takes place after the time that the individual enters into the rent-to-own agreement. The bill, however, specifically allows a rental-purchase company to give or offer to give a rebate or discount to a current lessee, in consideration of the lessee's giving the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees.

Right to reduced amount of rental payments and right to reinstatement

Under the bill, if a lessee who has paid more than 50% of the total ~~number~~ of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership provides the rental-purchase company with reasonable evidence that the lessee's monthly income is reduced by at least 25% due to certain specified events, the rental-purchase company must reduce the amount of each rental payment by the same percentage that the lessee's monthly income is reduced or by 50%, whichever is less. The events that may trigger a reduced rental payment are pregnancy, disability, an involuntary job loss or an involuntary reduction in the amount of hours worked or wages earned by the lessee. The reduced rental payment must remain in effect until the lessee's monthly income is no longer reduced, and a rental-purchase company may reasonably require continuing evidence of reduced monthly income. In order to compensate for the reduced amount of the rental payments, a rental-purchase company may increase the total number of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property. A rental-purchase company may not, however, increase the total dollar amount of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership, or the amount of any single rental payment, to greater than the amount initially disclosed in the rent-to-own agreement. The consumer act does not contain any similar provisions.

The bill also grants a lessee the right to reinstate a terminated rent-to-own agreement, as long as the lessee returned the rental property within five days after termination and not more than 21 days have passed since the return date or, if the lessee paid at least two-thirds of the total number of rental payments necessary to

dollar amount

acquire ownership, not more than 45 days have passed since the return date. A rental-purchase company may require the payment of a $5 reinstatement fee, all past-due rental charges and any applicable late fees as a condition of reinstatement. Upon reinstatement, a rental-purchase company must provide a lessee with the same rental property, if available and in the same condition as when it was returned, or with comparable quality rental property.

Default and right to cure

The bill establishes a notice procedure similar to that contained in the consumer act that a rental-purchase company may follow if a lessee defaults under a rent-to-own agreement. The bill defines "default" as a material breach of the rent-to-own agreement or a failure to return rental property within seven days after the expiration of the term for which the last payment was made. Before giving a lessee a notice of default, a rental-purchase company may first request the lessee to voluntarily surrender the applicable rental property. Under the bill, as under the consumer act, with certain exceptions, in order to file an action against a lessee arising out of the lessee's default, a rental-purchase company must give to the lessee a written notice of the default and of the lessee's right, within 15 days after receiving the notice, to cure the default. Under the bill, the notice must specify, among other things, the actions required to cure the default, although, unlike the consumer act, the bill does not indicate what actions are required or permitted. As in the consumer act, if the lessee received a similar notice and cured the applicable default at least twice during the year preceding the current default, the bill permits a rental-purchase company to file an action without providing the written notice of default and right to cure as a condition of filing an action.

Collections practices

Under the bill, a rental-purchase company may not do any of the following in attempting to recover rental property or collect amounts owed under a rent-to-own agreement:

- (1) Use or threaten to use force or violence.
- (2) Disclose or threaten to disclose false information relating to the creditworthiness of the lessee.
- (3) Disclose or threaten to disclose a debt that is disputed by the lessee without disclosing the fact that the debt is disputed.
- (4) Harass or threaten the lessee or a relative of the lessee.
- (5) Use obscene language in communicating with the lessee or a relative of the lessee.
- (6) Threaten to enforce a right with knowledge that the right does not exist.
- (7) Use a communication that falsely simulates legal, judicial or governmental process.
- (8) Threaten to file an action against the lessee, unless the action is of a type that the rental-purchase company files in the regular course of business or unless the rental-purchase company intends to file the action.

In addition, a rental-purchase company may not threaten criminal prosecution, unless the rental-purchase company reasonably believes, in good faith, that the lessee has committed a crime and the rental-purchase company intends to seek the filing of criminal charges against the lessee. A rental-purchase company also may not communicate with a lessee's employer, except to verify employment status or earnings, to determine whether the employer has established a debt counseling procedure or to give effect to an assignment of earnings. Similar provisions regarding debt collection are also contained in the consumer act, except that, with certain exceptions, the consumer act also prohibits a creditor from disclosing to another person information affecting a customer's reputation, if the creditor knows or has reason to know that the person has no legitimate business need for the information.

Remedies, defenses and statute of limitations

With certain exceptions, a rental-purchase company that violates the new chapter is liable to a lessee damaged as a result of the violation for the greater of $100; the amount of actual damages sustained as a result of the violation, including incidental and consequential damages; or an amount equal to 25% of the total amount of payments due in one month under the lessee's rent-to-own agreement, up to $1,000. A rental-purchase company is also liable for the costs of the action and reasonable attorney fees. If, however, a rental-purchase company includes a prohibited provision in a rent-to-own agreement, these remedies do not apply. In this case, the rental-purchase company must surrender to the lessee the rental property and any amounts paid under the rent-to-own agreement. With certain limited exceptions, multiple violations in connection with the same rent-to-own agreement only entitle the lessee to a single recovery. The bill also caps the total liability of a rental-purchase company under a class action at $100,000 plus costs and reasonable attorney fees.

The bill establishes two defenses to a rental-purchase company's liability. First, a rental-purchase company is not liable for any violation resulting from an error of the rental-purchase company if, within 60 days after discovering the error, the rental-purchase company notifies the lessee of the error and makes necessary adjustments to correct the error. Second, a rental-purchase company is not liable for any violation that the rental-purchase company shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, was unintentional and resulted from a bona fide error that the rental-purchase company has acted to correct and that took place notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error. The bill specifies that a bona fide error includes a clerical error, an error in making calculations and an error due to computer malfunction or computer programming or a printing error. The consumer act does not contain similar defenses.

An action brought by a lessee for a violation of the new chapter must be commenced within one year after the date of the violation, two years after the date on which the rent-to-own agreement was entered into or one year after the date of the last payment, whichever is later. This statute of limitations is generally the same as the statute of limitations under the consumer act.

4 435.405 Early-purchase option. An early-purchase option under a

3 435.501 Price cards displayed. (1) PRICE CARDS; GENERALLY. Except as
4 provided under sub. (2), a rental-purchase company shall display a card or tag that
5 clearly and conspicuously states all of the following information on or next to any
6 property displayed or offered by the rental-purchase company for rent under a
7 rent-to-own agreement: Cash

8 (a) The price that an individual would pay to purchase the property ~~at the date~~
9 ~~on which the individual reads the card or tag.~~

10 (b) The amount of the periodic rental payment and the term over which the 11 payment must be made.

12 (c) The total number and total dollar amount of all periodic rental payments
13 necessary to acquire ownership of the property under a rent-to-own agreement.

14 (d) Whether the property is new or used.

15 (2) EXCEPTIONS. If property is offered for rent under a rent-to-own agreement
16 through a catalog or if the size of the property is such that displaying a card or tag
17 on or next to the property is impractical, a rental-purchase company may make the 18 disclosures required under sub. (1) in a catalog or list that is readily available to 19 prospective lessees.

20 435.502 Advertising. (1) DISCLOSURE REQUIRED. Except as provided under 21 sub. (2), if an advertisement for a rent-to-own agreement refers to or states the
22 amount of a payment for any property and the right to acquire ownership of that
23 property, the rental-purchase company shall ensure that the advertisement clearly
24 and conspicuously states all of the following:

25 (a) That the transaction advertised is a rent-to-own agreement.

BILL

1 (b) The total number and total dollar amount of all periodic rental payments
2 necessary to acquire ownership of the property.

3 (c) That the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the lessee fails
4 to make all periodic rental payments or other payments necessary to acquire
5 ownership of the property.

6 (2) EXCEPTION. Subsection (1) does not apply to an in-store display or to an
7 advertisement that is published in the yellow pages of a telephone directory or in a
8 similar directory of businesses.

9 435.503 Referral transactions. (1) PROHIBITED REFERRAL TRANSACTIONS. No
10 rental-purchase company may induce any individual to enter into a rent-to-own
11 agreement by giving or offering to give a rebate or discount to the individual in
12 consideration of the individual's giving to the rental-purchase company the names
13 of prospective lessees, if the earning of the rebate or discount is contingent upon the 14 occurrence of any event that takes place after the time that the individual enters into 15 the rent-to-own agreement.

16 (2) AUTHORIZED REFERRAL TRANSACTIONS. After entering into a rent-to-own
17 agreement, a rental-purchase company may give or offer to give a rebate or discount
18 to the lessee under the rent-to-own agreement, in consideration of the lessee's giving
19 to the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees. A rebate or 20 discount under this subsection may be contingent upon the occurrence of any event
21 that takes place after the time that the names are given to the rental-purchase
22 company.

23 SUBCHAPTER VI

24 RENTAL PAYMENTS

25 AND COLLECTIONS

BILL

435.601 Late payment, grace period and late fees. (1) LATE FEE;

2 GENERALLY If a lessee fails to make a periodic rental payment when due under a
3 rent-to-own agreement or if, at the end of any rental term, the lessee fails to return
4 the rental property or to renew the rent-to-own agreement for an additional term,
5 the rental-purchase company may require the lessee to pay a late fee. Except as
6 provided under sub. (4), this subsection does not apply if the lessee's failure to return
7 the rental property or failure to renew the rent-to-own agreement at the end of the 8 rental term is due to the lessee's exercise of an early-purchase option under the
9 rent-to-own agreement or is due to the lessee making all periodic rental payments
10 necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

11 (2) GRACE PERIODS. The following grace periods shall apply to periodic rental
12 payments made with respect to a rental-purchase agreement:

13 (a) For an agreement that is renewed on a weekly basis, no late fee may be
14 assessed for a periodic rental payment that is made within 2 days after the date on 15 which the payment is due.

16 (b) For an agreement that is renewed for a term that is longer than one week,
17 no late fee may be assessed for a periodic rental payment that is made within 5 days
18 after the date on which the payment is due.

19 (3) COLLECTION, RECORDING AND LIMITATION OF LATE FEES. Late fees are subject
20 to all of the following limitations:

21 (a) A late fee may not exceed $5 for each past-due periodic rental payment.

22 (b) A late fee may be collected only once on each periodic rental payment due,
23 regardless of how long the payment remains past due.

24 (c) Payments received shall be applied first to the payment of any rent that is
25 due and then to late fees and any other charges.

BILL

1 (d) A late fee may be collected at the time that the late fee accrues or at any time
2 afterward.

3 (4) EFFECT OF OUTSTANDING LATE FEE ON TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP. A
4 rental-purchase company may require payment of any outstanding late fees before
5 transferring ownership of rental property to a lessee.

6 435.602 Reinstatement of terminated rent-to-own agreement. (1)
7 REINSTATEMENT, GENERALLY. A lessee may reinstate a terminated rent-to-own
8 agreement without losing any rights or options previously acquired if all of the 9 following conditions apply:

10 (a) The lessee returned or surrendered the rental property within 5 days after 11 the termination of the rent-to-own agreement.

12 (b) Not more than 21 days have passed after the date on which the rental
13 property was returned to the rental-purchase company or, if the lessee has paid
14 two-thirds or more of the total number of periodic rental payments necessary to 15 acquire ownership of the rental property, not more than 45 days have passed since
16 the date on which the rental property was returned to the rental-purchase company.

17 (2) AUTHORIZED CONDITIONS ON REINSTATEMENT. As a condition of reinstatement
18 under this section, the rental-purchase company may require the payment of all
19 past-due rental charges, any applicable late fees, a reinstatement fee not to exceed
20 $5 and the periodic rental payment for an additional term.

21 (3) EFFECT OF REPOSSESSION ON REINSTATEMENT. Nothing in this section prohibits
22 a rental-purchase company from attempting to repossess rental property upon 23 termination of a rent-to-own agreement, but repossession efforts do not affect the 24 lessee's right to reinstate the rent-to-own agreement as long as the rental property

BILL

1 is voluntarily returned or surrendered within 5 days after the termination of the
2 rent-to-own agreement.

3 (4) PROPERTY AVAILABLE UPON REINSTATEMENT. Upon reinstatement, the
4 rental-purchase company shall provide the lessee with the same rental property, if
5 the property is available and is in the same condition as when it was returned to the
6 rental-purchase company, or with substitute rental property of comparable quality
7 and condition.

8 435.603 Reduced periodic rental payment due to reduced income. (1)

9 REDUCTION IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS; REQUIRED EVIDENCE. (a)

10 Reduction in amount of periodic rental payments. If a lessee's monthly income is 11 reduced by 25% or more due to pregnancy, disability, involuntary job loss or 12 involuntary reduction in the amount of hours worked or wages earned, the
13 rental-purchase company shall reduce the amount of each periodic rental payment
14 due under the rent-to-own agreement by the same percentage that the lessee's
15 monthly income is reduced or by 50%, whichever is less, for the period of time during 16 which the lessee's income is reduced. This subsection only applies if all of the 17 following conditions are satisfied.

18 1. The total ~~number~~ dollar amount of periodic rental payments made by the lessee under the 19 rent-to-own agreement equals more than 50% of the total ~~number~~ of periodic rental
20 payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

21 2. The lessee has provided the rental-purchase company with reasonable
22 evidence of the amount and cause of the reduction in the lessee's monthly income.

23 (b) Evidence of continued reduction in income. At reasonable intervals after
24 reducing the amount of a periodic rental payment under par. (a), a rental-purchase
25 company may require the lessee to provide evidence of the lessee's monthly income

BILL

1 and evidence that the cause of the reduction in the lessee's monthly income has not
2 abated.

3 (2) INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
4 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental
5 payment under sub. (1) (a), the rental-purchase company may increase the total
6 number of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental
7 property.

8 (3) INCREASE IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
9 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental

10 payment under sub. (1) (a) and if, subsequently, the lessee's monthly income is ~~fully~~

11 ~~restored~~, ^{increased} the rental-purchase company may increase ^{by the same percentage that the lessee's monthly income is increased,} the amount of each periodic

12 rental payment due after the date on which the lessee's monthly income is ~~fully~~

13 ~~restored~~. ^{is increased}

14 (4) LIMITATION ON INCREASES. If a rental-purchase company, under sub. (2) or 15 (3), increases the amount or number of periodic rental payments due under a
16 rent-to-own agreement, the increase only affects the rights or duties of the lessee
17 to the extent authorized in sub. (2) or (3). No rental-purchase company, acting under 18 sub. (2) or (3), may increase the total dollar amount of periodic rental payments
19 necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property, or the amount of a periodic
20 rental payment, to greater than the amount disclosed in the rent-to-own agreement.

21 (5) REQUIRED NOTICES. A rental-purchase company shall provide a lessee with 22 all of the following:

23 (a) Notice of reduction. Written notice of any reduction in the amount of a 24 periodic rental payment under sub. (1) (a) before the date on which the first reduced 25 payment is due.

SECTION 3

1 (b) Notice of increase in number of payments. Written notice of any increase in
2 the total number of periodic rental payments under sub. (2) no later than 15 days
3 after the rental-purchase company determines to increase the total number of 4 payments.

5 (c) Notice of increase in amount of payments. Written notice of any increase in
6 the amount of a periodic rental payment under sub. (3) before the date on which the
7 first increased payment is due.

8 435.604 Default and right to cure. (1) DEFAULT; GENERALLY. A lessee is in
9 default under a rent-to-own agreement if any of the following applies:

10 (a) The lessee fails to return the rental property within 7 days after the date
11 on which the last term for which a periodic rental payment was made expires, unless
12 the lessee has exercised an early-purchase option or has made all periodic rental
13 payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

14 (b) The lessee materially breaches any other provision of the rent-to-own
15 agreement.

16 (2) DEFAULT; NECESSARY FOR LESSEE LIABILITY. No cause of action shall accrue
17 against a lessee with respect to the lessee's obligations under a rent-to-own
18 agreement except upon default and the expiration of any applicable period of time
19 allowed for cure of the default.

20 (3) NOTICE OF DEFAULT; GENERAL REQUIREMENT. Except as provided in sub. (4),
21 as a condition precedent to bringing an action against a lessee arising out of the 22 lessee's default, a rental-purchase company shall provide a written notice of the 23 default and of the right to cure the default to the lessee. The notice shall specify the 24 default and the action required to cure the default and shall inform the lessee that

BILL

1 if the default is not cured within 15 days after the notice is given the rental-purchase
2 company will have the right to bring an action against the lessee.

3 (4) NOTICE OF DEFAULT; EXCEPTION. A rental-purchase company is not required
4 to provide a notice of default and right to cure as a condition precedent to bringing
5 an action against a lessee if each of the following occurred twice during the 12 months
6 before the date of the current default with respect to the same rent-to-own
7 agreement:

8 (a) The lessee was in default.

9 (b) The rental-purchase company gave the lessee written notice of the default
10 and of the lessee's right to cure under sub. (3).

11 (c) The lessee cured the default.

12 (5) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTARY SURRENDER OF PROPERTY. A rental-purchase
13 company may request the voluntary return or surrender of rental property prior to 14 the declaration of a default and the sending of written notice of default and right to 15 cure. A request under this subsection is subject to the requirements of s. 435.605.

16 435.605 Rental-purchase company collection practices. In attempting
17 to recover possession of rental property or to collect past-due periodic rental
18 payments or other charges owed under a rent-to-own agreement, a rental-purchase
19 company may not do any of the following:

20 (1) USE OF FORCE. Use or threaten to use force or violence to cause physical harm
21 to the lessee or the lessee's property or to a person related to the lessee.

22 (2) CRIMINAL PROSECUTION. Threaten criminal prosecution, unless the
23 rental-purchase company reasonably believes, in good faith, that the lessee has
24 violated a law of this state and, as a result of the violation, is subject to penalties

BILLSECTION 3

1 including a fine or imprisonment or both and the rental-purchase company intends
2 to seek the filing of criminal charges against the lessee.

3 (3) DISCLOSURE OF FALSE INFORMATION. Disclose or threaten to disclose
4 information adversely affecting the lessee's reputation for creditworthiness with
5 knowledge or reason to know that the information is false.

6 (4) COMMUNICATION WITH LESSEES EMPLOYER. Initiate or threaten to initiate
7 communication with the lessee's employer prior to obtaining final judgment against
8 the lessee, except ^{for the purpose of enforcing an assignment of earnings} as permitted under s. 435.606. This subsection does not prohibit 9 a rental-purchase company from communicating with a lessee's employer solely to 10 verify employment status or earnings or to determine if the employer has an 11 established debt counseling service or procedure.

12 (5) DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION REGARDING A DISPUTED DEBT. Disclose or threaten
13 to disclose information concerning the existence of a debt known to be reasonably
14 disputed by the lessee without disclosing the fact that the lessee disputes the debt.

15 (6) HARASSMENT. Communicate with the lessee or a person related to the lessee
16 with such frequency or at such unusual hours or in such a manner as can reasonably
17 be expected to threaten or harass the lessee or engage in any other conduct that can 18 reasonably be expected to threaten or harass the lessee or a person related to the 19 lessee.

20 (7) USE OF OBSCENE OR THREATENING LANGUAGE. Use obscene or threatening
21 language in communicating with the lessee or a person related to the lessee.

2 process or that gives the appearance of being authorized, issued or approved by a
3 government, government agency or attorney-at-law when it is not.

4 (10) USE OF THREAT TO SUE. Threaten to file a civil action against the lessee
5 unless the civil action is of a type that the rental-purchase company files in the 6 regular course of business or unless the rental-purchase company intends to file the 7 civil action against the lessee.

8 435.606 Assignment of earnings. ~~(1) IRREVOCABLE ASSIGNMENT OF EARNINGS~~
9 ~~PROHIBITED~~ No rental-purchase company may take or arrange for an assignment of 10 earnings of an individual for payment or as security for payment of an obligation
11 arising out of a rent-to-own agreement unless the assignment is revocable at will 12 by the individual.

13 (2) REVOCABLE ASSIGNMENT OF EARNINGS; TERM. Notwithstanding s. 241.09, a 14 revocable assignment of earnings that is entered into for payment or as security for 15 payment of an obligation arising out of a rent-to-own agreement shall be considered
16 to be renewed for a term not to exceed 6 months if all of the following apply:

17 (a) The original assignment of earnings contains a conspicuous notice of the 18 right of the individual whose earnings are assigned to revoke the assignment.

19 (b) The rental-purchase company, before expiration of the assignment of 20 earnings, provides a notice to the individual whose earnings are assigned,
21 conspicuously stating that the assignment of earnings is revocable and that the

4 435.701 Civil actions and defenses. (1) LIABILITY; GENERALLY. Except as
5 provided under subs. (2) to (6), a rental-purchase company that violates any
6 provision of this chapter is liable to a lessee damaged as a result of that violation for
7 the costs of the action and, notwithstanding s. 814.01 (4), for reasonable attorney fees
8 as determined by the court, plus an amount equal to the greater of the following:

9 (a) The actual damages, including any incidental and consequential damages,
10 sustained by the lessee as a result of the violation.

11 (b) An amount equal to 25% of the total amount of payments due in one month
12 under the lessee's rent-to-own agreement, except that liability under this 13 paragraph may not be less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

14 (2) LIABILITY; CERTAIN VIOLATIONS. Except as provided in subs. (4) and (5), if a 15 rental-purchase company violates s. 435.403, the lessee may retain the rental
16 property under the rent-to-own agreement without obligation to pay any amount
17 and may recover any amounts paid to the rental-purchase company under the 18 transaction.

19 (3) CLASS ACTION. In the case of a class action, a rental-purchase company that
20 violates this chapter is liable to the members of the class in an amount determined
21 by the court, except that the total recovery for all lessees whose recovery is computed
22 under sub. (1) (b) may not exceed $100,000 plus the costs of the action and,
23 notwithstanding s. 814.01 (4), reasonable attorney fees as determined by the court.
24 In determining the amount to award under this subsection, the court shall consider,
25 among other relevant factors, the amount of actual damages sustained by the

1 members of the class, the frequency and persistence of the violations by the
2 rental-purchase company, the resources of the rental-purchase company, the
3 number of persons damaged by the violation, the presence or absence of good faith

10 necessary to correct the error.

11 (5) DEFENSE; UNINTENTIONAL ERROR. A rental-purchase company is not liable
12 for a violation of this chapter if the rental-purchase company shows by a
13 preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional, that the 14 violation resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of 15 procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error and that the rental-purchase
16 company has acted to correct the error. A bona fide error under this subsection
17 includes a clerical error, an error in making calculations, an error due to computer
18 malfunction or computer programming or a printing error.

19 (6) LIABILITY FOR MULTIPLE VIOLATIONS. Multiple violations of this chapter in 20 connection with the same rent-to-own agreement shall only entitle the lessee to a
21 single recovery under sub. (1), except that a violation of s. 435.605 that occurs after
22 recovery has been granted with respect to that rent-to-own agreement may entitle
23 the lessee to an additional recovery under sub. (1).

24 (7) NECESSARY PARTIES. If more than one lessee is a party to the same
25 rent-to-own agreement, all of the lessees that are parties to the rent-to-own

2 are entitled to only a single recovery under sub. (1).

3 435.702 Limitation on actions. An action brought by a lessee under this
4 chapter shall be commenced within one year after the date on which the alleged
5 violation occurred, 2 years after the date on which the rent-to-own agreement was
6 entered into or one year after the date on which the last payment was made under

1 AN ACT to create 409.104 (12m), 421.202 (7m) and chapter 435 of the statutes;
2 relating to: regulating rental-purchase companies and granting rule-making
3 authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a consumer credit transaction that is entered into for personal, family or household purposes is generally subject to the Wisconsin Consumer Act (consumer act). The consumer act grants consumers certain rights and remedies and contains notice and disclosure requirements and prohibitions relating to consumer credit transactions. Currently, a consumer lease that has a term of more than four months is among the consumer credit transactions that are subject to the consumer act. In addition, the consumer act applies to any other consumer lease, if the lessee pays or agrees to pay at least an amount that is substantially equal to the value of the leased property and if the lessee will become, or for not more than a nominal additional payment has the option to become, the owner of the leased property.

This bill exempts certain consumer leases from the consumer act and creates a new chapter for the purpose of regulating these leases and the businesses that rent property to individuals under these leases. The primary aspects of the bill are as follows:

Scope

The bill regulates the activities of a rental-purchase company, which is defined in the bill as any person who regularly provides the use of personal property through

rent-to-own agreements and to whom rental payments are initially payable under a particular rent-to-own agreement. With certain exceptions, an agreement qualifies as a rent-to-own agreement under the bill if, among other things, the rental property is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes; the agreement has an initial term of four months or less and is automatically renewable with each payment after the initial term; the agreement does not require the lessee to renew the agreement beyond the initial term; and the agreement permits, but does not require, the lessee to acquire ownership of the personal property. Under the bill, a rent-to-own agreement is not subject to any laws relating to a security interest or lease under the Uniform Commercial Code.

Certain transactions are specifically excluded, however, from the new chapter. These exclusions include a lease or bailment of personal property that is incidental to the lease of real property; a credit sale, as defined in the federal consumer credit protection laws; and a motor vehicle lease.

Administration

The bill requires every rental-purchase company doing business in this state to register with the department of financial institutions (department) and pay a registration fee. The bill permits the department to examine the books and records of a rental-purchase company to determine compliance with the new chapter. The department may suspend or revoke a rental-purchase company's registration if the rental-purchase company violates the new chapter and the violation is not isolated or inadvertent, if the rental-purchase company fails to pay the registration fee or if the department becomes aware of a fact that would be grounds for the department's refusal to honor the rental-purchase company's registration. If certain conditions are satisfied, a rental-purchase company may appeal an order of the department that suspends or revokes the rental-purchase company's registration.

Provisions of rent-to-own agreements

The bill requires every rent-to-own agreement to contain all of the following provisions, to the extent applicable:

- (1) A description of the rental property
- (2) The cost of purchasing the rental property on the date on which the rent-to-own agreement is executed.
- (3) A statement indicating that it may cost less to purchase the rental property from a retailer other than the rental-purchase company.
- (4) The amount of the periodic rental payment.
- (5) The amount of any payment due when the rent-to-own agreement is executed or the rental property is delivered.
- (6) The total dollar amount, total number and ^{Timing} ~~due dates~~ of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.
- (7) A statement ~~in dictating~~ that the total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership does not include other, separately identified, charges that the rental-purchase company may assess.
- (8) A summary of the lessee's early purchase option.
- (9) A description of the lessee's responsibility in the event of theft of or damage to the rental property

BILL

(10) A statement identifying the party that is responsible for service and maintenance of the rental property and a statement regarding any warranty that covers the rental property

(11) A statement that the lessee may terminate the rental-purchase agreement at any time, without penalty, by surrendering the rental property in good repair.

(12) A description of the lessee's right to reinstate the rental-purchase agreement.

(13) A statement indicating that the lessee does not own the rental property and will not own the property until exercising an early-purchase option or making all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership.

The bill also prohibits certain provisions from being placed in a rent-to-own agreement. For example, under the bill, a rent-to-own agreement may not include a confession of judgment, a provision granting the rental-purchase company a security interest in property other than the rental property, a provision granting the rental-purchase company permission to enter the lessee's premises or commit a breach of the peace in repossessing the rental property, a waiver of any defense or counterclaim or any provision of the new chapter, a provision requiring rental payments totaling more than the total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership or a provision requiring the purchase of insurance from the rental-purchase company to insure the rental property. Several of these prohibitions are similar to prohibitions contained in the consumer act.

Disclosure

All required provisions of a rent-to-own agreement must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed to the lessee in at least eight-point standard type on the face of the rent-to-own agreement. As under the consumer act, the bill requires the rental-purchase company to provide the lessee, or one lessee if there are multiple lessees under the same agreement, with a copy of the executed rent-to-own agreement. In addition, upon the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase company must provide the lessee with a receipt for any payment made by the lessee. Under the consumer act, a payment receipt must be provided without request, unless the method of payment itself is evidence of payment. With certain exceptions, upon the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase company must also provide the lessee or a person designated by the lessee with a copy of the lessee's payment history.

Related transactions

Under the bill, a rental-purchase company must offer an early-purchase option to a lessee and may offer a liability waiver to a lessee. The terms of a liability waiver and the fact that the lessee is not required to purchase the waiver must be disclosed to the lessee in writing. The fee for the liability waiver may not equal more than 10% of the rental payment due under the rent-to-own agreement.

Marketing activities

With certain exceptions, the bill requires a rental-purchase company to display a card or tag on or next to any property offered for rent, indicating whether the property is new or used and indicating the cash price of the property, the amount of the rental payment and the term over which the rental payment must be made and the total number and total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property. In addition, a rental-purchase company must ensure that an advertisement for a rent-to-own agreement that refers to the amount of a payment for any property, and to the right to acquire ownership of that property, also states that the advertisement is for a rent-to-own agreement and that the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the lessee fails to make all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership. The advertisement must also include the total number and total dollar amount of all rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property. The provisions relating to advertising, however, do not apply to an in-store display or an advertisement published in the yellow pages or similar business directory. The consumer act does not contain a similar provision regulating the manner in which consumer credit is marketed, although the consumer act does prohibit false, misleading and deceptive advertising of certain products.

Similar to the consumer act, the bill prohibits a rental-purchase company from inducing an individual to enter into a rent-to-own agreement by giving or offering to give the individual a rebate or discount in consideration of the individual's giving the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees, if the earning of the rebate or discount is contingent upon the occurrence of any event that takes place after the time that the individual enters into the rent-to-own agreement. The bill, however, specifically allows a rental-purchase company to give or offer to give a rebate or discount to a current lessee, in consideration of the lessee's giving the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees.

Under the bill, if a lessee who has paid more than 50% of the total dollar amount of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership provides the rental-purchase company with reasonable evidence that the lessee's monthly income is reduced by at least 25% due to certain specified events, the rental-purchase company must reduce the amount of each rental payment by the same percentage that the lessee's monthly income is reduced or by 50%, whichever is less. The events that may trigger a reduced rental payment are pregnancy, disability, an involuntary job loss or an involuntary reduction in the amount of hours worked or wages earned by the lessee. The reduced rental payment must remain in effect until the lessee's monthly income is no longer reduced, except that the amount of each rental payment may be adjusted accordingly as the lessee's monthly income increases. A rental-purchase company may reasonably require continuing evidence of reduced monthly income. In order to compensate for the reduced amount of the rental payments, a rental-purchase company may increase the total number of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property. A rental-purchase company may not, however, increase the total dollar amount of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership, or the amount of any single rental payment, to greater than the amount initially disclosed in the rent-to-own agreement. The consumer act does not contain any similar provisions.

The bill also grants a lessee the right to reinstate a terminated ~~rent-to-own~~ agreement, as long as the lessee returned the rental property within five days after termination and not more than 21 days have passed since the return date or, if the lessee paid at least two-thirds of the total number of rental payments necessary to acquire ownership, not more than 45 days have passed since the return date. A rental-purchase company may require the payment of a $5 reinstatement fee, all past-due rental charges and any applicable late fees as a condition of reinstatement. Upon reinstatement, a rental-purchase company must provide a lessee with the same rental property, if available and in the same condition as when it was returned, or with comparable quality rental property.

Default and right to cure

The bill establishes a notice procedure similar to that contained in the consumer act that a rental-purchase company may follow if a lessee defaults under a rent-to-own agreement. The bill defines "default" as a material breach of the rent-to-own agreement or a failure to return rental property within seven days after the expiration of the term for which the last payment was made. Before giving a lessee a notice of default, a rental-purchase company may first request the lessee to voluntarily surrender the applicable rental property. Under the bill, as under the consumer act, with certain exceptions, in order to file an action against a lessee arising out of the lessee's default, a rental-purchase company must give to the lessee a written notice of the default and of the lessee's right, within 15 days after receiving the notice, to cure the default. Under the bill, the notice must specify, among other things, the actions required to cure the default, although, unlike the consumer act, the bill does not indicate what actions are required or permitted. As in the consumer act, if the lessee received a similar notice and cured the applicable default at least twice during the year preceding the current default, the bill permits a rental-purchase company to file an action without providing the written notice of default and right to cure as a condition of filing an action.

Collections practices

Under the bill, a rental-purchase company may not do any of the following in attempting to recover rental property or collect amounts owed under a rent-to-own agreement:

- (1) Use or threaten to use force or violence.
- (2) Disclose or threaten to disclose false information relating to the creditworthiness of the lessee.
- (3) Disclose or threaten to disclose a debt that is disputed by the lessee without disclosing the fact that the debt is disputed.
- (4) Harass or threaten the lessee or a relative of the lessee.
- (5) Use obscene language in communicating with the lessee or a relative of the lessee.
- (6) Threaten to enforce a right with knowledge that the right does not exist.
- (7) Use a communication that falsely simulates legal, judicial or governmental process.
- (8) Threaten to file an action against the lessee, unless the action is of a type that the rental-purchase company files in the regular course of business or unless the rental-purchase company intends to file the action.

In addition, a rental-purchase company may not threaten criminal prosecution, unless the rental-purchase company reasonably believes, in good faith, that the lessee has committed a crime and the rental-purchase company intends to seek the filing of criminal charges against the lessee. A rental-purchase company also may not communicate with a lessee's employer, except to verify employment status or earnings, to determine whether the employer has established a debt counseling procedure or to give effect to an assignment of earnings. Similar provisions regarding debt collection are also contained in the consumer act, except that, with certain exceptions, the consumer act also prohibits a creditor from disclosing to another person information affecting a customer's reputation, if the creditor knows or has reason to know that the person has no legitimate business need for the information.

With certain exceptions, a rental-purchase company that violates the new chapter is liable to a lessee damaged as a result of the violation for the greater of $100; the amount of actual damages sustained as a result of the violation, including incidental and consequential damages; or an amount equal to 25% of the total amount of payments due in one month under the lessee's rent-to-own agreement, up to $1,000. A rental-purchase company is also liable for the costs of the action and reasonable attorney fees. If, however, a rental-purchase company includes a prohibited provision in a rent-to-own agreement, these remedies do not apply. In this case, the rental-purchase company must surrender to the lessee the rental property and any amounts paid under the rent-to-own agreement. With certain limited exceptions, multiple violations in connection with the same rent-to-own agreement only entitle the lessee to a single recovery. The bill also caps the total liability of a rental-purchase company under a class action at $100,000 plus costs and reasonable attorney fees.

The bill establishes two defenses to a rental-purchase company's liability. First, a rental-purchase company is not liable for any violation resulting from an error of the rental-purchase company if, within 60 days after discovering the error, the rental-purchase company notifies the lessee of the error and makes necessary adjustments to correct the error. Second, a rental-purchase company is not liable for any violation that the rental-purchase company shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, was unintentional and resulted from a bona fide error that the rental-purchase company has acted to correct and that took place notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error. The bill specifies that a bona fide error includes a clerical error, an error in making calculations and an error due to computer malfunction or computer programming or a printing error. The consumer act does not contain similar defenses.

An action brought by a lessee for a violation of the new chapter must be commenced within one year after the date of the violation, two years after the date on which the rent-to-own agreement was entered into or one year after the date of the last payment, whichever is later. This statute of limitations is generally the same as the statute of limitations under the consumer act.

3 435.405 Early-purchase option. An early-purchase option under a
4 rent-to-own agreement shall permit the lessee to purchase the rental property for 5 cash at any time after the initial periodic rental payment. As a condition of exercising 6 the early-purchase option, the rental-purchase company may require the lessee to 7 be current on the payments under the lessee's rent-to-own agreement or to pay any 8 past-due rental charges and other outstanding fees that are owed.

9 435.406 Receipts and statements. (1) RECEIPTS DUE UPON REQUEST. Upon 10 the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase company shall provide a written receipt 11 to the lessee for any payment made by the lessee.

12 (2) STATEMENT DUE THE LESSEE. Upon the request of a lessee, a rental-purchase
13 company shall provide a written statement to the lessee showing the lessee's 14 payment history under each rent-to-own agreement between the lessee and the 15 rental-purchase company. A rental-purchase company is not required to provide a 16 statement covering any rent-to-own agreement that terminated more than one year
17 prior to the date of the lessee's request. A rental-purchase company may provide a 18 single statement covering all rent-to-own agreements or separate statements for 19 each rent-to-own agreement, at the rental-purchase company's option.

20 (3) STATEMENT DUE THE 3RD PARTY. Upon the written request of a lessee, made
21 during the term of or no later than one year after the termination of a rent-to-own 22 agreement, a rental-purchase company shall provide a written statement to any 23 person designated by the lessee, showing the lessee's payment history under the 24 rent-to-own agreement.

3 435.501 Price cards displayed. (1) PRICE CARDS; GENERALLY. Except as
4 provided under sub. (2), a rental-purchase company shall display a card or tag that
5 clearly and conspicuously states all of the following information on or next to any
6 property displayed or offered by the rental-purchase company for rent under a
7 rent-to-own agreement:

8 (a) The cash price that an individual would pay to purchase the property.

9 (b) The amount of the periodic rental payment and the term over which the 10 payment must be made.

11 (c) The total number and total dollar amount of all periodic rental payments
12 necessary to acquire ownership of the property under a rent-to-own agreement.

13 (d) Whether the property is new or used.

14 (2) EXCEPTIONS. If property is offered for rent under a rent-to-own agreement
15 through a catalog or if the size of the property is such that displaying a card or tag
16 on or next to the property is impractical, a rental-purchase company may make the 17 disclosures required under sub. (1) in a catalog or list that is readily available to 18 prospective lessees.

19 435.502 Advertising. (1) DISCLOSURE REQUIRED. Except as provided under 20 sub. (2), if an advertisement for a rent-to-own agreement refers to or states the
21 amount of a payment for any property and the right to acquire ownership of that
22 property, the rental-purchase company shall ensure that the advertisement clearly
23 and conspicuously states all of the following:

24 (a) That the transaction advertised is a rent-to-own agreement.

BILL

1 (b) The total number and total dollar amount of all periodic rental payments
2 necessary to acquire ownership of the property

3 (c) That the lessee does not acquire ownership of the property if the lessee fails
4 to make all periodic rental payments or other payments necessary to acquire
5 ownership of the property.

6 (2) EXCEPTION. Subsection (1) does not apply to an in-store display or to an
7 advertisement that is published in the yellow pages of a telephone directory or in a
8 similar directory of businesses.

9 435.503 Referral transactions. (1) PROHIBITED REFERRAL TRANSACTIONS. No
10 rental-purchase company may induce any individual to enter into a rent-to-own
11 agreement by giving or offering to give a rebate or discount to the individual in
12 consideration of the individual's giving to the rental-purchase company the names
13 of prospective lessees, if the earning of the rebate or discount is contingent upon the
14 occurrence of any event that takes place after the time that the individual enters into 15 the rent-to-own agreement.

16 (2) AUTHORIZED REFERRAL TRANSACTIONS. After entering into a rent-to-own
17 agreement, a rental-purchase company may give or offer to give a rebate or discount
18 to the lessee under the rent-to-own agreement, in consideration of the lessee's giving
19 to the rental-purchase company the names of prospective lessees. A rebate or 20 discount under this subsection may be contingent upon the occurrence of any event
21 that takes place after the time that the names are given to the rental-purchase
22 company.

23 SUBCHAPTER VI

24 RENTAL PAYMENTS

25 AND COLLECTIONS

BILL

1 435.601 Late payment, grace period and late fees. (1) LATE FEE;
2 GENERALLY. If a lessee fails to make a periodic rental payment when due under a
3 rent-to-own agreement or if, at the end of any rental term, the lessee fails to return
4 the rental property or to renew the rent-to-own agreement for an additional term,
5 the rental-purchase company may require the lessee to pay a late fee. Except as
6 provided under sub. (4), this subsection does not apply if the lessee's failure to return
7 the rental property or failure to renew the rent-to-own agreement at the end of the 8 rental term is due to the lessee's exercise of an early-purchase option under the
9 rent-to-own agreement or is due to the lessee making all periodic rental payments
10 necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

11 (2) GRACE PERIODS. The following grace periods shall apply to periodic rental
12 payments made with respect to a rental-purchase agreement:

13 (a) For an agreement that is renewed on a weekly basis, no late fee may be
14 assessed for a periodic rental payment that is made within 2 days after the date on 15 which the payment is due.

16 (b) For an agreement that is renewed for a term that is longer than one week,
17 no late fee may be assessed for a periodic rental payment that is made within 5 days
18 after the date on which the payment is due.

19 (3) COLLECTION, RECORDING AND LIMITATION OF LATE FEES. Late fees are subject
20 to all of the following limitations:

21 (a) A late fee may not exceed $5 for each past-due periodic rental payment.

22 (b) A late fee may be collected only once on each periodic rental payment due,
23 regardless of how long the payment remains past due.

24 (c) Payments received shall be applied first to the payment of any rent that is
25 due and then to late fees and any other charges.

BILL

1 (d) A late fee may be collected at the time that the late fee accrues or at any time
2 afterward.

3 (4) EFFECT OF OUTSTANDING LATE FEE ON TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP. A
4 rental-purchase company may require payment of any outstanding late fees before
5 transferring ownership of rental property to a lessee.

6 435.602 Reinstatement of terminated rent-to-own agreement. (1)
7 REINSTATEMENT, GENERALLY. A lessee may reinstate a terminated rent-to-own
8 agreement without losing any rights or options previously acquired if all of the 9 following conditions apply:

10 (a) The lessee returned or surrendered the rental property within 5 days after
11 the termination of the rent-to-own agreement.

12 (b) Not more than 21 days have passed after the date on which the rental
13 property was returned to the rental-purchase company or, if the lessee has paid
14 two-thirds or more of the total number of periodic rental payments necessary to 15 acquire ownership of the rental property, not more than 45 days have passed since
16 the date on which the rental property was returned to the rental-purchase company.

17 (2) AUTHORIZED CONDITIONS ON REINSTATEMENT. As a condition of reinstatement
18 under this section, the rental-purchase company may require the payment of all
19 past-due rental charges, any applicable late fees, a reinstatement fee not to exceed
20 $5 and the periodic rental payment for an additional term.

21 (3) EFFECT OF REPOSSESSION ON REINSTATEMENT. Nothing in this section prohibits
22 a rental-purchase company from attempting to repossess rental property upon
23 termination of a rent-to-own agreement, but repossession efforts do not affect the 24 lessee's right to reinstate the rent-to-own agreement as long as the rental property

BILL

1 is voluntarily returned or surrendered within 5 days after the termination of the
2 rent-to-own agreement.

3 (4) PROPERTY AVAILABLE UPON REINSTATEMENT. Upon reinstatement, the
4 rental-purchase company shall provide the lessee with the same rental property, if
5 the property is available and is in the same condition as when it was returned to the
6 rental-purchase company, or with substitute rental property of comparable quality
7 and condition.

8 435.603 Reduced periodic rental payment due to reduced income. (1)

9 REDUCTION IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS; REQUIRED EVIDENCE. (a)

10 Reduction in amount of periodic rental payments. If a lessee's monthly income is 11 reduced by 25% or more due to pregnancy, disability, involuntary job loss or 12 involuntary reduction in the amount of hours worked or wages earned, the
13 rental-purchase company shall reduce the amount of each periodic rental payment
14 due under the rent-to-own agreement by the same percentage that the lessee's
15 monthly income is reduced or by 50%, whichever is less, for the period of time during 16 which the lessee's income is reduced. This subsection only applies if all of the 17 following conditions are satisfied:

18 1. The total dollar amount of periodic rental payments made by the lessee
19 under the rent-to-own agreement equals more than 50% of the total dollar amount 20 of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

21 2. The lessee has provided the rental-purchase company with reasonable
22 evidence of the amount and cause of the reduction in the lessee's monthly income.

23 (b) Evidence of continued reduction in income. At reasonable intervals after
24 reducing the amount of a periodic rental payment under par. (a), a rental-purchase
25 company may require the lessee to provide evidence of the lessee's monthly income

BILL

1 and evidence that the cause of the reduction in the lessee's monthly income has not
2 abated.

3 (2) INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
4 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental
5 payment under sub. (1) (a), the rental-purchase company may increase the total
6 number of periodic rental payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental
7 property

8 (3) INCREASE IN AMOUNT OF PERIODIC RENTAL PAYMENTS. Except as provided in
9 sub. (4), if a rental-purchase company reduces the amount of a periodic rental
10 payment under sub. (1) (a) and if, subsequently, the lessee's monthly income is 11 increased, the rental-purchase company may increase, by the same percentage that 12 the lessee's monthly income is increased, the amount of each periodic rental payment
13 due after the date on which the lessee's monthly income is increased.

14 (4) LIMITATION ON INCREASES. If a rental-purchase company, under sub. (2) or 15 (3), increases the amount or number of periodic rental payments due under a
16 rent-to-own agreement, the increase only affects the rights or duties of the lessee
17 to the extent authorized in sub. (2) or (3). No rental-purchase company, acting under 18 sub. (2) or (3), may increase the total dollar amount of periodic rental payments
19 necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property, or the amount of a periodic
20 rental payment, to greater than the amount disclosed in the rent-to-own agreement.

21 435.604 Default and right to cure. (1) DEFAULT; GENERALLY. A lessee is in
22 default under a rent-to-own agreement if any of the following applies:

23 (a) The lessee fails to return the rental property within 7 days after the date
24 on which the last term for which a periodic rental payment was made expires, unless

BILL

1 the lessee has exercised an early-purchase option or has made all periodic rental
2 payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property.

3 (b) The lessee materially breaches any other provision of the rent-to-own
4 agreement.

5 (2) ~~DEFAULT; NECESSARYFORLESSEE LIABILITY~~. No cause of action shall accrue
6 against a lessee with respect to the lessee's obligations under a rent-to-own
7 agreement except upon default and the expiration of any applicable period of time
8 allowed for cure of the default.

9 (3) ~~NOTICE OF DEFAULT; GENERALREQUIREMENT~~. Except as provided in sub. (4),
10 as a condition precedent to bringing an action against a lessee arising out of the 11 lessee's default, a rental-purchase company shall provide a written notice of the 12 default and of the right to cure the default to the lessee. The notice shall specify the 13 default and the action required to cure the default and shall inform the lessee that
14 if the default is not cured within 15 days after the notice is given the rental-purchase
15 company will have the right to bring an action against the lessee.

16 (4) ~~NOTICE OF DEFAULT; EXCEPTION~~. A rental-purchase company is not required
17 to provide a notice of default and right to cure as a condition precedent to bringing
18 an action against a lessee if each of the following occurred twice during the 12 months
19 before the date of the current default with respect to the same rent-to-own
20 agreement:

21 (a) The lessee was in default.

22 (b) The rental-purchase company gave the lessee written notice of the default
23 and of the lessee's right to cure under sub. (3).

24 (c) The lessee cured the default.

BILL

1 (5) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTARY SURRENDER OF PROPERTY. A rental-purchase
2 company may request the voluntary return or surrender of rental property prior to
3 the declaration of a default and the sending of written notice of default and right to
4 cure. A request under this subsection is subject to the requirements of s. 435.605.

5 435.605 Rental-purchase company collection practices. In attempting
6 to recover possession of rental property or to collect past-due periodic rental
7 payments or other charges owed under a rent-to-own agreement, a rental-purchase
8 company may not do any of the following:

9 (1) USE OF FORCE. Use or threaten to use force or violence to cause physical harm
10 to the lessee or the lessee's property or to a person related to the lessee.

11 (2) CRIMINAL PROSECUTION. Threaten criminal prosecution, unless the
12 rental-purchase company reasonably believes, in good faith, that the lessee has
13 violated a law of this state and, as a result of the violation, is subject to penalties
14 including a fine or imprisonment or both and the rental-purchase company intends
15 to seek the filing of criminal charges against the lessee.

16 (3) DISCLOSURE OF FALSE INFORMATION. Disclose or threaten to disclose
17 information adversely affecting the lessee's reputation for creditworthiness with 18 knowledge or reason to know that the information is false.

19 (4) COMMUNICATION WITH LESSEE'S EMPLOYER. Initiate or threaten to initiate
20 communication with the lessee's employer prior to obtaining final judgment against 21 the lessee, except for the purpose of enforcing an assignment of earnings under s.
22 435.606. This subsection does not prohibit a rental-purchase company from 23 communicating with a lessee's employer solely to verify employment status or 24 earnings or to determine if the employer has an established debt counseling service
25 or procedure.

BILL

1 (5) DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION REGARDING A DISPUTED DEBT. Disclose or threaten
2 to disclose information concerning the existence of a debt known to be reasonably
3 disputed by the lessee without disclosing the fact that the lessee disputes the debt.

4 (6) HARASSMENT. Communicate with the lessee or a person related to the lessee
5 with such frequency or at such unusual hours or in such a manner as can reasonably
6 be expected to threaten or harass the lessee or engage in any other conduct that can
7 reasonably be expected to threaten or harass the lessee or a person related to the 8 lessee.

9 (7) USE OF OBSCENE OR THREATENING LANGUAGE. Use obscene or threatening
10 language in communicating with the lessee or a person related to the lessee.

11 (8) USE OF THREAT TO ENFORCE FALSE RIGHT. Threaten to enforce a right with 12 knowledge that the right does not exist.

13 (9) USE OF FALSE PROCESS. Use a communication that simulates legal or judicial
14 process or that gives the appearance of being authorized, issued or approved by a
15 government, government agency or attorney-at-law when it is not.

16 (10) USE OF THREAT TO SUE. Threaten to file a civil action against the lessee
17 unless the civil action is of a type that the rental-purchase company files in the 18 regular course of business or unless the rental-purchase company intends to file the 19 civil action against the lessee.

20 435.606 Assignment of earnings. No rental-purchase company may take 21 or arrange for an assignment of earnings of an individual for payment or as security 22 for payment of an obligation arising out of a rent-to-own agreement unless the 23 assignment is revocable at will by the individual.

1 SUBCHAPTER VII

2 REMEDIES, DEFENSES

3 AND LIMITATIONS

4 435.701 Civil actions and defenses. (1) LIABILITY; GENERALLY. Except as
5 provided under subs. (2) to (6), a rental-purchase company that violates any
6 provision of this chapter is liable to a lessee damaged as a result of that violation for
7 the costs of the action and, notwithstanding s. 814.01 (4), for reasonable attorney fees
8 as determined by the court, plus an amount equal to the greater of the following:

9 (a) The actual damages, including any incidental and consequential damages,
10 sustained by the lessee as a result of the violation.

11 (b) An amount equal to 25% of the total amount of payments due in one month
12 under the lessee's rent-to-own agreement, except that liability under this
13 paragraph may not be less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

14 (2) LIABILITY; CERTAIN VIOLATIONS. Except as provided in subs. (4) and (5), if a
15 rental-purchase company violates s. 435.403, the lessee may retain the rental
16 property under the rent-to-own agreement without obligation to pay any amount
17 and may recover any amounts paid to the rental-purchase company under the 18 transaction.

19 (3) CLASS ACTION. In the case of a class action, a rental-purchase company that
20 violates this chapter is liable to the members of the class in an amount determined
21 by the court, except that the total recovery for all lessees whose recovery is computed
22 under sub. (1) (b) may not exceed $100,000 plus the costs of the action and,
23 notwithstanding s. 814.01 (4), reasonable attorney fees as determined by the court.
24 In determining the amount to award under this subsection, the court shall consider,
25 among other relevant factors, the amount of actual damages sustained by the

1 members of the class, the frequency and persistence of the violations by the
2 rental-purchase company, the resources of the rental-purchase company, the
3 number of persons damaged by the violation, the presence or absence of good faith
4 on the part of the rental-purchase company and the extent to which the violation was 5 intentional.

6 (4) DEFENSE; ERROR NOTIFICATION AND CORRECTION. A rental-purchase company
7 is not liable for a violation of this chapter resulting from an error by the 8 rental-purchase company if, within 60 days after discovering the error, the 9 rental-purchase company notifies the lessee of the error and makes any adjustments
10 necessary to correct the error.

11 (5) DEFENSE; UNINTENTIONAL ERROR. A rental-purchase company is not liable
12 for a violation of this chapter if the rental-purchase company shows by a
13 preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional, that the 14 violation resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of
15 procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error and that the rental-purchase
16 company has acted to correct the error. A bona fide error under this subsection
17 includes a clerical error, an error in making calculations, an error due to computer
18 malfunction or computer programming or a printing error.

19 (6) LIABILITY FOR MULTIPLE VIOLATIONS. Multiple violations of this chapter in 20 connection with the same rent-to-own agreement shall only entitle the lessee to a
21 single recovery under sub. (1), except that a violation of s. 435.605 that occurs after
22 recovery has been granted with respect to that rent-to-own agreement may entitle
23 the lessee to an additional recovery under sub. (1).

24 (7) NECESSARY PARTIES. If more than one lessee is a party to the same
25 rent-to-own agreement, all of the lessees that are parties to the rent-to-own

BILL

1 agreement shall be joined as plaintiffs in any action under sub. (1) and the lessees
2 are entitled to only a single recovery under sub. (1).

3 435.702 Limitation on actions. An action brought by a lessee under this
4 chapter shall be commenced within one year after the date on which the alleged
5 violation occurred, 2 years after the date on which the rent-to-own agreement was
6 entered into or one year after the date on which the last payment was made under
7 the rent-to-own agreement, whichever is later.

SECTION 4. Nonstatutory provisions.

9 (1) SUBMISSION OF PROPOSED RULES GOVERNING REGISTRATION OF RENTAL-PURCHASE
10 COMPANIES. No later than the first day of the 3rd month beginning after publication,
11 the department of financial institutions shall submit in proposed form the rules
12 governing registration of rental-purchase companies under section 435.301 (2) of 13 the statutes, as created by this act, to the legislative council staff under section 14 227.15 (1) of the statutes.

SECTION 5. Initial applicability.

16 (1) RENT-TO-OWN AGREEMENTS. The treatment of sections 409.104 (12m), 17 421.202 (7m), 435.102 to 435.201, 435.401 to 435.403 and 435.405 to 435.701 of the 18 statutes first applies to rent-to-own agreements entered into on the effective date
19 of this subsection.

20 (2) LIABILITY WAIVERS. The treatment of section 435.404 of the statutes first 21 applies to liability waivers entered into on the effective date of this subsection.

22 (3) REGISTRATION OF RENTAL-PURCHASE COMPANIES. The treatment of sections
23 435.301 to 435.304 of the statutes first applies to any person engaging in business
24 as a rental-purchase company on the effective date of this subsection.
