Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Present law prohibits a person from authorizing or permitting the operation of his or her motor vehicle by another person if that other person is not authorized to operate a motor vehicle. The present penalty for a violation is a forfeiture of not more than $100. This bill creates two new penalties for that violation if the person authorizing or permitting the operation of his or her motor vehicle by another knew or should have known that the other person was not allowed to operate a motor vehicle because the other person had one or more prior violations of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicant or drugs or a combination of an intoxicant and drugs. For the first conviction within a five-year period, the penalty is a fine of not less than $150 nor more than $300 or imprisonment for not more than ten days or both. For a second or subsequent conviction within a five-year period, the penalty is a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $1,000 and imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than 30 days.
