1 Relating to: commemorating the achievements and contributions of the University
2 of Wisconsin on the occasion of its sesquicentennial.

3 Whereas, on July 26, 1848, our state founders had the foresight to establish, as 4 the 4th act of the new state legislature “an institution of learning under the name 5 and style of the University of Wisconsin”; and

6 Whereas, from a first class of 17 students on February 5, 1849, the University 7 of Wisconsin–Madison today enrolls more than 40,000 students annually; and

8 Whereas, the University of Wisconsin–Madison is considered to be one of the 9 most respected public universities in the world, consistently ranking among the best 10 in terms of undergraduate academics, research and development and public service; 11 and

12 Whereas, the University of Wisconsin System was created on October 11, 1971, 13 combining the University of Wisconsin and the Wisconsin state universities, under 14 a single Board of Regents; and
