1 Relating to: proclaiming May 3rd of every year, Trzeciego Maja Day.

2 Whereas, “Trzeciego Maja”, May 3, 1999, marks the 208th anniversary of the 3 signing of the Polish Constitution on May 3, 1791; and

4 Whereas, the Polish Constitution was the first written constitution in Europe;
5 and

6 Whereas, the Polish Constitution, modeled after that of the United States,
7 established the bold principle that the power to govern emanates from the people;
8 and

9 Whereas, the Polish Constitution established a bicameral legislature, a system 10 of checks and balances, an elected judiciary and trial by jury, the concept of habeas 11 corpus and freedom of religion; and

12 Whereas, this document, described as “radical, if not revolutionary” by the 13 tyrants of 18th century Europe, was nonetheless adopted without bloodshed; and

14 Whereas, the Polish Constitution was the product of a cross section of the best 15 Polish political thought of the time, far-reaching in intent, with the promise for all

1 Polish citizens of a democratic form of government, one that would ensure all citizens 2 respect and consideration; and

3 Whereas, the democratic and Western-oriented ideals inherent in the first 4 Polish Constitution live on today within a citizenry that has played a leading role in 5 bringing an end to Communism in Eastern Europe and in the country that was the 6 Soviet Union and whose elected representatives are presently at work building a new 7 societal system based on the precepts of political liberty linked in spirit to Poland's 8 historic values as embodied in the Polish Constitution of 1791; now, therefore, be it

9 Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the legislature of
