1 Relating to: urging the Wisconsin congressional delegation to work to enact

applications

1           Whereas, the venue for enforcement under PRWORA is a person's individual 2 social security number; and

3           Whereas, 1997 Wisconsin Acts 27 and 191 implemented these changes for the 4 use of social security numbers as enforcement mechanisms, including hunting and 5 fishing licenses, to comply with the federal 1996 Personal Responsibility and Work 6 Opportunity Reconciliation Act; and for

7           Whereas, the requirement for social security numbers for hunting and fishing 8 licenses by the federal and state governments, especially those of sportsmen and 9 women, is a major, uncalled-for invasion of the right of privacy of individuals and is 10 a solution that far exceeds the problem that it seeks to address; and 11           Whereas, the heavy-handed and overbroad efforts of the Congress dictating to 12 the states how to change family law is an usurpation of an area of the law reserved

13 to the states, and unreasonably ties together 2 distinctively different areas of the law
14 by the threat of loss of federal funds; now, therefore, be it
