Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Personal Privacy.

1     To renumber and amend section 12 of article VII; and to create section 12 (2) of 2             article VII of the constitution; relating to: 4–year terms of office for clerks of 3             the circuit courts (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 1999 legislature on first consideration, extends the terms of office of clerks of the circuit courts from two years to four years. The change first applies to the clerks of circuit court who are elected at the first general election at which the governor is elected which occurs after the ratification of this amendment.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by 2 successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.
