1   Relating to: declaring a "Professional Locksmiths Day" in Wisconsin.

2   Whereas, October is National Crime Prevention Month; and

3   Whereas, by observing a Professional Locksmiths Day, greater awareness of the 4 indispensable duties performed by these artisans will be furthered; and

5   Whereas, locksmiths design and implement cost–effective locking systems for

6 churches, schools, industry and institutions, as well as commercial businesses of all

7 kinds and private homes; and

8   Whereas, locksmiths provide access to those hard–to–find unique items,

9 out–of–date parts, and special applications; and

10   Whereas, locksmiths work wonders with antique locks, restore abused door

11 hardware and create function where disaster had existed; and

12   Whereas, locksmiths make available, open, repair, and offer advice on, the 13 multitude of safes for protection from burglary, fire and theft of electronic data and 14 deposits, as well as protecting family treasures and heirlooms; and

1   Whereas, locksmiths respond at all times of the day, evenings, weekends,

2   special events and holidays, facing the worst weather and conditions, to help

3   stranded people that have keys locked in their homes, businesses and automobiles;

4   and

5   Whereas, by observing a Professional Locksmiths Day, these artisans, who

6   serve the citizens of Wisconsin, are recognized as professionals for their endeavors;

7   now, therefore, be it

8   Resolved by the assembly, That the members of the Wisconsin assembly, on
