(2) pg. 5 of the bill, section 8 (creating s. 196.219(2m)(d) 2.)

Ln 4 after "commission" delete all language through and including ln 9, and replace with "to set a maximum access rate for a telecommunications provider that is less than an access rate specified in subd. 1, the commission may order such a maximum rate after notice and opportunity for a hearing, if the commission finds that the petitioner has established each of the following"

Explanation: These changes are largely stylistic and in keeping with the first set of suggested changes to s. 8 of the bill. Of note is the suggested elimination of the "clear and convincing" standard of proof, reverting thus to the default standard of "by a preponderance of the evidence" which is more customary in regulatory rate proceedings.
